

Enlightened Ego

THE EGO

Q: What is the ego?

A: The ego is the identity of a person that gives shape to their being. We all have ego — a sense of 'I', 'me' and 'mine'. We distinctively feel different from each other because of the ego. 'I am I; I am not you!' This is the work of ego. 'This is my house, my car, my mother, my wife.' Who is making these statements? It is the ego. Somehow, the word, 'ego', has gotten linked with one's self-esteem and self-respect. It has become a sign of one's pride or arrogance. The ego is always looked at as something that can be inflated

Q: Can we destroy the ego?

A: Our ego will continue to be with us till our last breath. The ego will be alive, till our death. We cannot kill the ego or annihilate it as many wish to. It is that sense of identity which gives shape to our life. Our ego is expressed through so many forms. 'This is my ID card, my passport, my bank account.' The ego loves itself. That is why it can scan itself amongst hundreds and thousands of others because its only concern is 'me' or 'I'

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 1: What Is The Ego? (Page 8)

Q: Why does the ego say 'I', 'me' and 'mine'?

A: Can anyone of us live without the words, 'I', 'me' and 'mine'? It is impossible! If we need something, we say 'I'. When we refer to our feelings, it is 'me'. It is the basic instinct of every human being to believe that this is 'mine'. Throughout life, the most common word for any human being is 'I'. In fact, we use these words, 'I', 'me' and 'mine', more often than any other word. Our entire life is focused on who we are. Our attention is on our life, our wellbeing, our family and our relationships

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 4: I, Me And Mine (Page 13)

Q: What causes the ego?

A: It is ignorance that causes the ego to carry Karma and return to earth in a rebirth. It is ignorance that makes the Ego, along with the Mind, to become the ME. In reality, nobody has seen the Mind or the Ego. This false identity of the ego makes us the 'I' that lives and will die. The 'I' of the ego is caused by ignorance. It creates Karma. Unless the ego is enlightened, it cannot escape from the cycle of rebirth. The ego has already been caused. It is darkness. Now, we must switch on the light to Enlighten the Ego and Realize that I am not 'I'.

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 3: What Causes The Ego? (Page 12)

Q: When does the ego come alive?

A: The journey of the ego, along with the mind, starts much before the body is formed. The Mind and Ego is the ME that is conceived nine months before the date on our birth certificate. No doubt, we arrived on our 'birthday' but the truth is that we were alive and kicking inside our mother's womb much before. The ego is very much alive and doesn't arrive, so as to say, on a particular date. If one wants to decode the mystery of the ego, one has to delve deeper into the truth of life.

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 2: When Does The Ego Come Alive? (Page 9)

Q: Does the ego die when the body dies?

A: The ego never dies. Only the body dies. The ego is reborn, the moment it is gone from one body. This simple reality makes us understand that as long as we have Karma, an unsettled account of actions, the ego will continue to live and be reborn, and this will go on and on. What is the end to this cycle? It is known as Enlightenment, Nirvana, Moksha or Salvation. It is the ego along with the mind that carries Karma and is implanted in a mother's womb for another journey called Life.

Q: How does the ego cause suffering?

A: Why are we making such a fuss about the ego? Because of the ego, we are agonised. The anguish of anger, hate, revenge and jealousy, added to pride and greed, makes us miserable throughout life. As long as the ego exists, we have no option but to experience this suffering. The only solution is an Enlightened Ego. The same ego, when rid of ignorance, Realizes the Truth of, 'Who am I?' This Realization is Liberation from all agony and anguish.

Q: What is the Mind and Ego, ME?

A: We all know that we have ego but little do we know that the ego exists because of the mind. The ego, without the mind, doesn't exist. It is the mind, together with the ego that becomes the Mind and Ego, ME, causing all misery. It imprisons us and we become prisoners of pleasures, possessions and people. No doubt, the mind appears to exist. It is nothing but a bundle of thoughts, plenty, in fact! Our mind can shoot up to 50 thoughts, a minute. This can be a whopping 50,000 thoughts, a day.

Q: What is the ignorant ego?

A: The ego is a product of ignorance. Because we are unaware of the truth, we continue to believe in the myth that we grow up with and we suffer. From the time we are kids, we let the ego fool us. Our parents and our teachers are also subject to the same ignorance. In reality, the

Q: Who am I, if not the ego?

A: We have reflected that the human being is like a computer but in reality, it is quite different. We appear to be the body, the hardware and the mind, the software. But in reality, we are the Power supply, the Soul. The Soul gives life to the first cell, the zygote. Realization of the Truth enlightens us that we are not the body, mind and ego. We are the Divine Soul. The Soul is a Spark Of Unique Life. It is immortal. It does not die. It is energy and energy can neither be created nor destroyed

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 22: I Am The Divine Soul (Page 49-50)

Q: Why do we believe in the false identity of the ego?

A: While 1% of the world is visually blind, 99% is spiritually blind, completely ignorant about the Truth of who we are. Unless we go on a quest to Realize the Truth, unless we take the help of a Guru, an enlightened being, we will continue to live in ignorance, cry, die and never Realize, 'Who am I?' The root cause of all suffering — anger, hate, revenge and jealousy, is the ego and the root cause of this suffering is ignorance

Q: How does the ego differentiate us from others?

A: The ego distinguishes us from each other. When we believe, 'I' and 'you' are different, it is only then that the door of jealousy opens. We start comparing our fortunes with others and become jealous. This also leads to possessiveness in relationships. All because of the ignorant ego. All of us experience these toxic emotions but not many of us realize that it is the foolishness of the ego that is causing all the anguish

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 8: The Ego Causes Anguish (Page 21-22)

Q: What is the ego's relationship with the mind?

A: The ego's best friend is the mind. What is the mind? We all believe we have a mind. But, in reality, do we? The mind appears to be but have we ever seen the mind? How does it look like? Nobody knows! The mind is essentially a producer of toxic thoughts. It is the mind that creates fear, worry, stress and anxiety. It is because of the mind that one gets into depression. If you do not kill the mind, the mind will kill you

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 5: The Ego's Best Friend — The Mind (Page 15-16)

Q: Is the ego always negative?

A: We all have an ego. Life can't be without the ego but what is intriguing, is that the ego can either make us or break us. It is the ego that causes anger, hate, revenge and jealousy, just as it is the ego that will Realize the Truth — I am not 'I'. The ego is not like the body which has a Q: How can we overcome the ignorance of the ego?

A: The only way to overcome ignorance is to go on a quest and to find out, 'Who am I?' It is this simple question that, if answered, can eliminate all the agony and anguish caused by the ego. Unfortunately, we do not question the basic roots of our existence. We do not ask, 'Why did we come to earth? What is the cause of this human birth?' If only we question our beliefs, we can overcome ignorance and Realize the Truth of who we truly are

ANGER

Q: What is anger and where does it come from?

A: Anger is a toxic emotion towards somebody, who we believe has deliberately done something wrong to us. While there may be some possible positive situations where anger can help us, but by and large, the emotion of anger destroys us. Anger is most often caused, when we react to a stressful situation or thought. We are frustrated because we feel that we have been unfairly treated. It maybe that we have been disrespected or attacked. In that state of anger, we do not respond in Consciousness. We explode because of the mind

Q: What causes anger in a person?

A: What causes anger? While the thoughts that make us angry are created by the mind, the one who gets angry is the ego that says, 'I'. That is why, the right leg never kicks the left leg. The right hand will never attack the left hand because we realize that the right and the left hands are not separate from each other and therefore, there is no anger. But we become angry at somebody else only because the ego separates us from others

Q: Why does anger become a habit?

A: Anger is a dangerous emotion. In the beginning, it may be one isolated reaction of getting angry. But if we don't control the ego from this toxic emotion, this repeated anger becomes a habit. Then, we develop an angry character. We just explode in each and every situation. Our anger doesn't end there. What we put out into the world returns to us and our life is destroyed. Anger can be devastating and it can lead to several other miseries in our lives

Q: Is anger in our genes or can it be overcome?

A: Many of us believe that anger is in our genes. We must realize that it is not nature that matters but the way we nurture ourselves. If we let the toxic thoughts of the mind trigger our ego to get angry, we will react and destroy. But if we still the mind and flip over our emotions from

Q: How can one truly overcome anger?

A: Some people try to control anger through breathing or just by being silent and counting from one to ten. Some gulp a mouthful of water in their mouth in order not to react with anger but these are temporary solutions. The ones who overcome anger are the ones who have an Enlightened Ego. They don't express anger because they realize that we are one. They don't suppress anger, for it to burst out later. They just forgive the one who caused the anger and experience peace and tranquillity

Q: What does anger do to our life?

A: Anger can never have any benefits. It can only destroy. By screaming and shouting, we can, in fact, worsen the situation. We must dissolve our ego and make anger disappear! What we put out into the world returns to us and our life is destroyed. Anger can be devastating and it can lead to several other miseries in our lives. We must dissolve the Ego to eliminate anger. If we don't destroy it, our Life is in danger

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego deal with anger?

A: When the Enlightened Ego Realizes that we are all one, anger naturally ceases. An Enlightened Ego has no need to be angry or to hate, to take revenge or become jealous. Spiritual Awakening makes the ego realize that you and me, are both the same. We are

Divine Energy. The truth liberates the ego from the agony and anguish caused by pride, greed and selfishness. When there is no mind, thoughts that trigger anger simply dissolve
Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 26: Burn Anger, Before Anger Burns You (Page 57)

Q: Why does anger destroy our peace?

A: Nobody likes anger. It not only destroys our peace but also creates agitation, raises our blood pressure and can lead to disease and death. It is especially worse when anger becomes a habit, which it most often does. The Enlightened Ego lives with the realization that the 'I' that gets angry is a lie and so anger has no ground on which to grow. The ego flares up and we lose our temper. This causes a fire, not only at the one we spit our anger on but also within

Q: Why do we get angry when our expectations are not met?

A: Who hasn't experienced anger? We all have. But mostly, our anger is because somebody did not meet up to our expectations or did as we wished. We often experience hate. When there is a deep sense of disappointment and somebody has caused us great unhappiness for any

Q: What is the root of anger?

A: The ego that says, 'I', is the root of anger. As long as the ego does not realize that we are, in essence, not different from each other, anger and hate will travel with us, till we reach our grave. If we realize that we are not the body that we wear, we are that Power that energizes the body and that Power in everybody is ultimately, coming from the same source, we will transcend the ego and overcome anger. We must dissolve our ego to eliminate anger

Q: Is burning anger within us harmful?

A: Do you enjoy anger? Is it fun to become angry? Nobody likes anger. Anger burns us first before it burns another. The Enlightened Ego lives with peace and tranquillity because it has overcome the fire of anger through the Realization that I and you are not different. The ego's actions, both inferior and wrong, cause the ego to flare up and we lose our temper. This causes a fire, not only at the one we spit our anger on but also within. Anger is sure to burn, first us and then the one who receives our anger

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 26: Burn Anger, Before Anger Burns You (Page 57-58)

Q: Can we be free from anger forever?

A: When the Ego is Enlightened, in that state of intelligent Consciousness, the mind will disappear. In this state of Enlightenment, the mind will cease to exist and with it, anger too fades away. Anger, revenge, jealousy and hate get thrown out of the gate because for the Enlightened Ego, there is no 'I' and no 'you'. When there is no mind, then automatically, peace, we will find. The Enlightened Ego is permanently free from anger because the 'I' that gets angry is recognized as a lie

Q: Why do two people keep fighting with each other due to anger?

A: The amusing thing about the ego is that every ego thinks, 'I am right.' The ego does not accept that I may have been wrong. Therefore, the ego leads us to anger, hate and punish another. In turn, the other thinks, 'I am right,' and this revenge leads to a war. All conflicts in this world are caused by the ignorant ego. Because the ego is not enlightened, the civilized world has war. What is the solution? An Enlightened Ego

Q: How does anger relate to the ego's sense of separation?

A: Anger appears only because the ego separates us from others. If we realize that we are not the body that we wear, we are that Power that energizes the body and that Power in everybody is ultimately, coming from the same source, we will transcend the ego and overcome anger. An

Q: What happens to our blood pressure and health when we are angry?

A: Nobody likes anger. It not only destroys our peace but also creates agitation, raises our blood pressure and can lead to disease and death. It is especially worse when anger becomes a habit, which it most often does. When we become angry, we let the toxic thoughts of the mind trigger our ego. We react and destroy. HATE

Q: What is hate and why do we experience it?

A: When we feel an intense dislike for somebody, it is expressed as hate. Sometimes, hate is expressed and sometimes, it is suppressed. But in both cases, when we detest somebody and feel that strong dislike, that aversion leads us to be unfair and releases toxic, poisonous feelings within. What causes hate? It is the ignorant ego. When we look at others and judge them with assumptions and presumptions of what they did or spoke, we come to a conclusion that may not be rational

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 15: Hate (Page 35)

Q: Why do we hate others but rarely hate ourselves?

A: It is very rare for us to hate ourselves. We may hate our financial condition or be disappointed with the outcome of our performance and use the term hate for ourselves but the truth is that we love ourselves and we hate others. The reason the emotion of hate enters our gate is because we do not realize that the one we hate is not the body that we see, nor their Mind and Ego that they say is ME. We do not realize that the one we hate is in fact, none other than who we are

Q: How does hate steal our peace and happiness?

A: Hate is a toxic emotion and this poisonous feeling steals our bliss, joy and peace. Not only does it rob us of our happiness, it also contaminates the most important emotion of our life — Love. When we let weeds of hate grow in the garden of our life, they throttle the roses and tulips of love that would otherwise, blossom. Therefore, we must not let hate take charge. When we hate, it is very difficult to forgive because the ego becomes adamant

Q: What is the antidote to hate?

A: The best way of course, is to replace hate with love. This is not always easy. But if our Ego is Enlightened and we realize that we are all Divine manifestations and everything in this world, good or bad is nothing but a projection of the Supreme, the Divine, hate will disappear from our life. Not only do we hate people but we also hate many things. We can dislike something but we should not let our dislike grow into hate. To do this, we must live with kindness and compassion and there must be empathy

Q: Why does hate make it hard to forgive?

A: We are so programmed by hate that it starts to drive our life in a direction that will steal our peace. When we hate, it is very difficult to forgive because the ego becomes adamant. What we don't realize is that it is the ignorant ego that is creating this monster called hate. The thorn of hate that grows within is sure to prick us regardless of whether it pricks another or not. Therefore, we are all happier without hate in our life

Q: Does the Enlightened Ego experience hate?

A: When the Ego is Enlightened and we realize that we are all one, that emotion of hate will not light a flame of dislike within us and there will be more acceptance and tolerance. The Enlightened Ego not only overcomes the toxicity of anger and hate but such a Divine Soul experiences Divine love. The Enlightened Ego realizes that we are all manifestations of the Divine. Each one of us is a Soul, a Spark Of Unique Life. When we realize that truth, hate dissolves

Q: Why do we hate certain foods, places or things?

A: Not only do we hate people but we also hate many things. We hate a certain kind of food, we hate some places, some smells, even some songs or movies. Why should we hate and create negativity inside us? We can dislike something but we should not let our dislike grow into hate. To do this, we must live with kindness and compassion and there must be empathy. The ego's sense of 'I like' and 'I dislike' fuels hatred towards the world around us

Q: How does hate arise from ignorance?

A: Unfortunately, because the majority of us live in ignorance, hate is a common emotion. The root cause of hate is the ego's ignorance that separates 'I' from 'you'. If only we realize that we are all one, that emotion of hate will not light a flame of dislike within us. The ignorant ego creates this monster called hate. It is the ego that separates us from others and causes this toxic emotion of hate. And so, we suffer!

Q: Can hate lead to war and conflict?

A: All conflicts in this world are caused by the ignorant ego. Anger, hate and revenge, when they come together, create war. The ego of another will also not rest. It will create that desire to punish and to avenge the wrong done to them. Because the ego is not enlightened, the civilized world has war. Today, although the civilized world has evolved and developed, we still see war and conflict around us. What is the cause? The ignorant ego! What is the solution? An Enlightened Ego

Q: How does throwing hate 'out of the gate' help us?

A: What happens when hate enters our gate? We lose our peace, bliss and joy and hate doesn't knock at the door. Once it enters, it will push us down on the floor. How can we push hate out and lock the door? The problem is that hate becomes our Master and to our grave, we go faster! Until the Ego is Enlightened, we will hate people, hate things and suffer. It's time to push hate out of the gate and the way to do this is to realize our oneness with all

Q: Does realizing 'we are all one' eliminate hate?

A: When the Ego is Enlightened and we realize that we are all one, that emotion of hate will not light a flame of dislike within us and there will be more acceptance and tolerance. If our ego is Awakened to realize that others are none other than extensions of us, there will be no hate. The magic of non-duality is that hate turns to love, revenge to forgiveness, anger to peace and jealousy to brotherhood. The magic of non-duality eliminates all hate

Q: Why is hate said to be worse than dislike?

A: We can dislike something but we should not let our dislike grow into hate. Hate is a toxic emotion and this poisonous feeling steals our bliss, joy and peace. Not only does it rob us of our happiness, it also contaminates the most important emotion of our life — Love. When we let weeds of hate grow in the garden of our life, they throttle the roses and tulips of love that would otherwise, blossom. Therefore, we must not let hate take charge

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego overcome hate with love?

A: The Enlightened Ego not only realizes that everything is happening as per Karma but also realizes that we are all manifestations of the Divine. Each one of us is a Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life and we all come from SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power. When the Ego is Enlightened, it not only overcomes the toxicity of anger and hate but such a Divine Soul experiences Divine love. Q: What happens when we suppress hate?

A: Sometimes, hate is expressed and sometimes, it is suppressed. But in both cases, when we detest somebody and feel that strong dislike, that aversion leads us to be unfair and releases toxic, poisonous feelings within. We are so programmed by hate that it starts to drive our life in a direction that will steal our peace. Suppressed hate is equally destructive as expressed hate because the ignorant ego that is creating this monster called hate, still remains

Q: Is universal oneness the key to ending hate?

A: Our country is a tiny speck on the planet. The planet is a tiny speck in the universe. Who are we to hate something that appears in this amazing creation? Until the Ego is Enlightened, we will hate people, hate things and suffer. The way to throw hate out of the gate is to realize our oneness with the universe. An Enlightened Ego realizes that we are all manifestations of the Divine. We may appear different but we have the same source. We are different effects of the same cause

ANGER, HATE, REVENGE & JEALOUSY (OVERCOMING EMOTIONS)

Q: Why do we feel the need to take revenge?

A: Another great demon that destroys our life is revenge. This is often born, when anger and hate come together and we decide to hurt or harm somebody because we believe that they have wronged us. Then, our mind destroys our power of intellect, our ability of discrimination and the result is revenge. Who takes revenge? It is 'I', the ego. The ego may be fed by the toxic thoughts of the mind but if there is no, 'I', there can be no revenge

Q: Why is revenge like a burning coal?

A: What we don't realize is that revenge is like a burning coal. When we try to throw it on another, it will first burn our hand. We will harm ourselves, before we harm others. The thorn of revenge that grows within is sure to prick us regardless of whether it pricks another or not. Therefore, we are all happier without revenge in our life. But as long as we have an ego, revenge will appear, even if it means in small, seemingly innocent and harmless quantities

Q: How can we replace revenge with forgiveness?

A: We all experience the emotion of revenge. It is human to feel hurt and to want to avenge that. But who wants to? It is the ego. When the Ego is Enlightened, it not only realizes that everything is happening as per Karma but also realizes that we are all manifestations of the Divine. Each one of us is a Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life and we all come from SIP, the Q: What is jealousy and how does it destroy us?

A: The ego causes so much anguish and agony. Not just anger, hate, revenge but even the fire of jealousy is caused by the ego. Jealousy can lead one to an unlimited extent of terror and treachery. If somebody is jealous, they can even kill someone! The fire of jealousy cannot be contained. What causes jealousy? When I compare myself to you and I feel inferior or I want to be superior, in such cases, jealousy is born

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 17: Jealousy (Page 39)

Q: How can we choose tranquillity instead of jealousy?

A: When our ego is prime, in full bloom, the thorns of jealousy grow in the garden of our life. When we give so much importance to 'I' and 'me', then life is all about comparing ourselves with others. We human beings seek happiness but we don't realize that peace is the foundation of happiness. We let our peace and tranquillity get replaced by stress and anxiety, when we let our ego ride uncontrolled. Our ego is always bothered about what others have, how others look, what car they drive

Q: Does realizing 'we are all one' cure jealousy?

A: When the ego is Awakened to realize that I and you are like the two hands of a body, then, one hand will never be jealous of the other hand. Our right eye is not jealous of our left eye. It is an Enlightened Ego that realizes that we are all one and can be free from the anguish of jealousy. The Enlightened Ego lives with inclusiveness — that we are all part of one. It lives with compassion, love, kindness and forgiveness. It eliminates all resentment and it rejoices in the success of another

Q: Why do people carry grudges for years?

A: It is not rare that people carry revenge in their hearts for years, decades or even an entire life. The ego wants to avenge a wrongdoing and till it does it, it cannot rest in peace. What we don't realize is that revenge is like a burning coal. When we try to throw it on another, it will first burn our hand. Revenge doesn't end. It only plants seeds of grudge, hate and this will grow to only hurt us in the future

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego live free from anger, hate, revenge and jealousy?

A: An Enlightened Ego has no need to be angry or to hate, to take revenge or become jealous. Spiritual Awakening makes the ego realize that you and me, are both the same. We are Divine Energy. The truth liberates the ego from the agony and anguish caused by pride, greed and selfishness. Anger, hate, revenge, jealousy, greed, pride — you can let go of all these. It all happens if you start living as the Enlightened Ego

Q: What is the magic of non-duality in overcoming toxic emotions?

A: When there is no duality, there is magic! Hate turns to love, revenge to forgiveness, anger to peace and jealousy to brotherhood. The magic of non-duality eliminates all toxic emotions. When the Enlightened Ego realizes that we are both the same Power, we become one. There is no duality. And when there is no duality, there is no 'I' and 'you'. The very foundation of all toxic emotions — the sense of separation — disappears

Q: What does jealousy do to our relationships?

A: Jealousy, on the other hand, makes us burn in another's achievement. There is suspicion and the fear of humiliation. This may just be imagination but the insecurity of jealousy can kill. It is jealousy that causes one to be possessive and wants to control. All of these are negative emotions. It is also jealousy that causes one to be possessive in relationships. Only an Enlightened Ego can overcome jealousy by realizing that each individual has their own Karma

Q: Why do we suffer when we seek revenge?

A: The foolish ego says, 'I will not spare you! Tit for tat! I will return your evil deeds with a fitting reply.' Little do we realize that the ego is the biggest fool for it hurts itself. Revenge is a bitter emotion. It makes us blind and we become slaves of the toxic emotions of the mind. We are unable to find sense and whatever we do, will be a result of our ignorance. When the Ego is Enlightened, there is no revenge because there is no 'I' and there is no 'you'

Q: How can forgiveness liberate us from revenge?

A: When the Ego is Enlightened, it not only realizes that everything is happening as per Karma but also realizes that we are all manifestations of the Divine. Therefore, when we try to take revenge against another, who are we punishing? We punish the Divine that is within every being. The way to replace revenge with forgiveness is to realize that the one who wronged us is also a Soul, a manifestation of the Divine. When we forgive, we free ourselves

Q: What is the connection between jealousy and comparison?

A: There is no need to compare ourselves with others. Each individual has their own Karma and what they enjoy is a result of their actions, just as the fruit on the tree will depend on the seeds we plant. So, why do we worry about the deeds and destiny of others? Only an Enlightened Ego can overcome jealousy. When we give so much importance to 'I' and 'me', then life is all about comparing ourselves with others, which is the root of jealousy

Q: What is the impact of revenge on world peace?

A: All conflicts in this world are caused by the ignorant ego. When one ego says, 'I am right,' and another also says, 'I am right,' this revenge leads to a war. Today, although the civilized world has evolved and developed, we still see war and conflict around us. What is the cause? The ignorant ego! When the ego is enlightened, it realizes that we are all Divine Souls with the same source. There is no anger, hate, revenge or jealousy. There is no conflict or war

Q: How does ego-driven love create jealousy?

A: The ego says, 'I love you,' but by saying so, it becomes possessive, demanding and has unlimited expectations. As long as love is conditional and ego-driven, it will end in heartache and heartbreak. This leads to jealousy, just as it causes expectations and disappointments. In today's world, 'LOVE' is — Longing, Of the Being, Very Possessive and Exclusive. This leads to jealousy. When the Ego is Enlightened, love transforms to that Soulful Divine emotion that it is supposed to be

GREED, PRIDE & SELFISHNESS

Q: What is the cause of greed?

A: Greed occurs when our need grows and we become a slave to our desires and passion for pleasures, possessions and people. Then, we become enslaved by greed. Either we live a life of contentment, where we are fully satisfied and live a life of fulfilment or our ego creates unlimited desires and this becomes greed. In the latter case, we are never satisfied. The desire will never quench our thirst. It will only make us burst. The ego seeks success and achievement and not fulfilment

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 18: Greed (Page 41)

Q: What is the difference between need and greed?

A: What do you need in life? We all need the basics — Air to breathe, water to drink, food to eat, clothes to wear and a roof for shelter. Of course, this is not enough. We all have needs. But greed is when our need grows beyond reason. The truth is that we need little but when it comes to greed, there is no end to it. A truly rich man is not the one who has a lot and lives with unfulfilled greed but the one, who may have moderately but has fulfilled his need

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 30: Fulfil Your Need, Not Your Greed (Page 65)

Q: How does greed make us blind to ethics?

A: In today's world, many people have this greedy desire for wealth, power, food and clothes. Greed makes us blind to our ethics, values and morals. Even though we don't need it, our greed makes us want it and this insatiable greed traps us in the pleasure of achievement and stops us from the peace of fulfillment. And an Enlightened Ego overcomes the hunger of greed. Whether it is a fair means or foul, it hardly matters to the ego. Eventually, greed causes anguish

Q: Why do we become proud of ourselves?

A: We become proud because the ego creates a feeling of self-achievement, self-worth. It can also be due to the achievement of somebody dear. Pride is rooted in the ego and this pride is thus, caused out of ignorance. Because we believe we are different from each other, we live with pride and suffer. Very few of us develop the virtue of humility that can create peace and tranquillity. Just as the ego causes anger, hate, revenge and jealousy, it causes pride and destroys our humility

Q: What happens to our pride when others outdo us?

A: What happens when we are proud of our possessions? It may be a brand-new car or something we buy for our children. But the very next day, if the neighbours buy a better car or get something better for their children, our pride is hurt. Who is hurt? What is hurt? It is the ego! This is needless because when we are seeking supremacy through our pride, we are planting seeds of agony and anguish. Any form of 'I', will create suffering and the truth is that the proud 'I' will die

Q: Is pride positive or negative?

A: Many people think of pride to be positive. Pride creates confidence and self-esteem. It is unfortunate that we don't realize that this is a lie. Any form of 'I', will create suffering and the truth is that the proud 'I' will die, leaving behind all people and possessions. Pride is a poison. It creates disrespect for others. It seeks to be glorified and even worshiped and this leads to disappointment and misery. Thus, the scriptures warn us that pride is sure to make us fall as we aspire to grow tall

Q: What is the cause of selfishness?

A: From the time we are children, we develop selfishness. Because we don't curtail our ego, we are so possessive about our books, stationery and even toys. The cause of selfishness of the ego is ignorance. Don't we know that nothing is ours? We come with nothing and we go with nothing. Then, why do we become possessive and selfish? Inadvertently, we become slaves of our ego. The ego creates, 'I' and we want to be proud of our possessions. Therefore, we become selfish.

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 20: Selfishness (Page 45)

Q: How does selfishness lead to suffering?

A: As long as the ego is in command, we will be selfish because the 'I' wants more and more. The 'I' is ignorant and thinks that this is mine. The ego does not realize that nothing is mine! What is mine, today, will ultimately become somebody else's. Because of the ego's selfishness, we are not free from anguish and sorrow. As long as we are selfish, we will experience misery but the moment we are Enlightened, we will cherish the good things in life but not be selfish

Q: What is the opposite of selfishness?

A: Those who realize the truth, will replace selfishness with selflessness. They will learn to share. They will learn to give. They will make philanthropy and charity, a part of their life's philosophy. Unfortunately, these virtues are rare because we are trapped in selfishness. The Enlightened Ego enjoys giving away what we cherish. When we realize that nothing is ultimately ours, this world is a show and we will enjoy the journey, till we go and not be selfish, till we perish

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego overcome greed and live with contentment?

A: When the ego is awakened and it realizes that we bring nothing to this planet and we can take nothing with us, only then, will such an Enlightened Ego settle with need rather than with greed. Such a being learns to count their blessings, rather than keep on adding to their wish list and their desires. Only an Enlightened Ego that stops this race and lives with grace. Instead of letting the need become greed, the one with an Enlightened Ego is satisfied with what he has

Q: What does 'we come with nothing and go with nothing' mean for pride and greed?

A: We start with nothing and we may achieve everything but we will end with nothing. So, what is there to be proud about? Pride is a poison. And when it comes to greed — we bring nothing to this planet and we can take nothing with us. Suppose we go for a holiday and check into a hotel. Do we become possessive of the bed, pillows, blanket and everything in the room? We don't! We know that we are just guests. Similarly, in this life, we are guests and nothing is ours

Q: Why does the ego create a cycle of greed, pride and selfishness?

A: Why do we suffer the agony and anguish of anger, hate, revenge, jealousy, greed, pride and selfishness? It is because of ignorance. The ignorant ego will always be miserable. Instead of being content with our need, it will make us hungry with greed. Instead of living with humility and tranquillity, our pride will hide our Divinity. It is sad that the ignorant ego makes us selfish and stops us from the joy of sharing and giving.

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 21: Realization Of The Truth (Page 47)

Q: How can we stop the greed of wanting more and more?

A: An Enlightened Ego realizes that its first option and choice is to do good Karma so that it enjoys the fruit of its action. The solution is not to fire our greed but to be content, fulfilling our need. The one with an Enlightened Ego learns to count their blessings. He develops the art of enjoying what he has, rather than becoming miserable, thinking about what he does not have. When the ego is enlightened, we realize we bring nothing to this planet and take nothing with us

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 30: Fulfil Your Need, Not Your Greed (Page 66)

Q: Is humility the antidote to pride?

A: The key difference between the ego and the Enlightened Ego is that the ego is proud whereas, the Enlightened Ego is humble. The ego says, 'I know everything.' The Enlightened Ego says, 'I am nothing!' When there is no humility, the ego reigns supreme but when the ego is humbled, it is enlightened. Enlightenment is not a matter of pride. It is a humbling experience. When we are Spiritually Awakened, we realize that we are the Soul and experience the ecstasy of humility

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 35: The Enlightened Ego Is Humble (Page 75)

Q: What happens to greed, pride and selfishness when the ego is enlightened?

A: When the Ego is Enlightened, there is no greed because awakening makes us live with contentment, as we fulfil our need. Without an Enlightened Ego, the Mind along with the Ego becomes ME and creates all the suffering. An Enlightened Ego is free from pride, greed and selfishness. This is because the ego realizes that its identity is a myth. Gone will be the agony and anguish that is caused by the ego. We will learn to laugh because we will Realize the Truth that nothing is ultimately, ours

IGNORANCE & REALIZATION

Q: What is the role of ignorance in our suffering?

A: While the ego causes us so much suffering and pain, what is the root cause? It is ignorance. Because we are unaware of what the ego truly is, we are subject to all the agony and anguish it causes. The ego is a product of ignorance. Because we are unaware of the truth, we continue to believe in the myth that we grow up with and we suffer. From the time we are kids, we let the ego fool us. By the time we awaken as young adults, our basic beliefs and knowledge are already contaminated

Q: Why do we suffer if we already know the truth intellectually?

A: Why do we suffer the agony and anguish of anger, hate, revenge and jealousy? We know that we are not the body, mind and ego, yet we are trapped. The reason is that we have the knowledge but we don't have the Realization. You can get knowledge in a college and know the truth but you will still not do what you know, till you realize. For the ego to be enlightened, we need Purification. We need elimination of the myth that we have grown up with. We need Illumination, to switch on the light

Q: What is Self-Realization?

A: After going around the complete circle of, 'Who am I?' and intellectually analysing, 'Who am I not?' some of us will be fortunate to get to that state known as Self-Realization. We will discover the truth of who am I. The first Realization of an Enlightened Ego is Self-Realization. But this leads the ego to the next, the biggest and the ultimate Realization, God-Realization. When the ego realizes that I am not 'I', I am the Divine Soul, the ego starts another journey of Truth Consciousness

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 45: I Am Not 'I' (Page 95)

Q: How can we overcome ignorance?

A: We can eliminate darkness, only with a light. As long as we live in darkness, we cannot see. The only way to overcome ignorance is to go on a quest and to find out, 'Who am I?' It is this simple question that, if answered, can eliminate all the agony and anguish caused by the ego. If only we question our beliefs, we can overcome ignorance and Realize the Truth of who we truly are. We can overcome ignorance and replace all anxiety with tranquillity. How? By Enlightenment

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 10: Overcoming Ignorance (Page 25)

Q: What is the difference between knowledge and Realization?

A: The reason we are still trapped in anger, hate, revenge and jealousy is that we have the knowledge but we don't have the Realization. You can get knowledge in a college and know the truth but you will still not do what you know, till you realize. Such is the power of ignorance. Although we know that we are not the body that will die, we are not the mind, we cannot find and the ego that says, 'I' is a lie, we are still not able to Enlighten the Ego. We need Realization

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 21: Realization Of The Truth (Page 47-48)

Q: What is the ultimate Truth that the ego must realize?

A: What is the Truth? The Truth is that the ego is a false identity. The Truth is that when the ego says, 'I', it's a lie. We have already analysed that we are not this body that will die. We have reflected and know that the mind doesn't exist. You can't find the mind! In reality, we are the Divine Soul. The Soul is a Spark Of Unique Life. It is immortal. It does not die. It is energy and energy can neither be created nor destroyed. This is the Truth that liberates

Q: What does 'I am not I' mean?

A: In five simple words — 'Not This, Not This, Thou Art That.' It means — 'I am not this body. I am not the mind. I am that, that Supreme Immortal Power.' The moment we experience the Divine oneness with the universe, we become an Enlightened Ego. 'I am not I' is the ultimate Realization. The 'I' that we thought we were — the body, the mind, the ego — is not what we truly are. We are the Divine Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 47: Not This, Not This, Thou Art That (Page 99)

Q: How does Realization transform the ego?

A: Enlightenment transforms the ego. Many people think of the state of being Enlightened or Awakened as something, mystical and magical. While it is no doubt a rare feat, anybody who goes on a quest can reach the state of being an Enlightened Ego. When the light of truth shines, the ego realizes that I am not 'I'. Thereafter, even if we live as 'I', till we die, we will be free from the world of agony and anguish. We will treat every other ego as a manifestation of the Divine

Q: Why is it so difficult to get Realization despite wanting it?

A: The senses of the body make us feel, 'I am this body.' The mind continues to think and feel as me. With the body and the mind active, it is very difficult for the ego to be enlightened and transformed. The Mind and Ego, so envelop us in ignorance that even though the truth stares us in our face, we cannot live with grace. We need Realization and this is a challenge. Sometimes, we need the help of a Guru, an Enlightened Master to help us through this journey

Q: Can everyone attain Realization?

A: Many people think of the state of being Enlightened or Awakened as something, mystical and magical. While it is no doubt a rare feat, anybody who goes on a quest can reach the state of being an Enlightened Ego. It starts with the question, 'Who am I?' and then, leads to the Realization, 'I am not 'I'.' Do you want to live a life of Eternal Bliss and Everlasting Peace? If you do, start your quest, today. It starts with two important questions — Who am I? Why am I here

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 50: Start Your Quest, Today (Page 105)

Q: What is Spiritual Awakening?

A: There is a method to be Enlightened. There is a way to be Awakened. It starts with the question, 'Who am I?' and then, leads to the Realization, 'I am not 'I'.' The moment we experience the Divine oneness with the universe, we become an Enlightened Ego. Spiritual Awakening is not just about knowing. It is about living with the truth that we are not the body, mind or ego. We are the Divine Soul. This living knowledge is called Awakening

Q: Why is the ego called a false identity?

A: The ego is a false identity. Because we are ignorant and we think the Mind and Ego, ME exists, we suffer on earth and return in a rebirth. In reality, nobody has seen the Mind or the Ego. This false identity of the ego makes us the 'I' that lives and will die. When we realize that we are not the body, we are not the Mind and Ego, ME, we realize that we are the Divine Soul. The Realization is needed for the ego to be enlightened. Then, at death, there is no rebirth

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 22: I Am The Divine Soul (Page 49-50)

Q: What does it mean to switch on the light of Truth?

A: We can eliminate darkness, only with a light. As long as we live in darkness, we cannot see. And we will continue to believe that we are the body and the Mind and Ego, ME. Enlightenment is all about switching on the light. Then, the ego is Enlightened. How can you start your quest today? When you shut the door that is leading you astray in the eternal material world and you open the door that goes within, you start that inner voyage towards an Enlightened Ego

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 50: Start Your Quest, Today (Page 105-106)

Q: What role does a Guru play in Realization?

A: Unless we go on a quest to Realize the Truth, unless we take the help of a Guru, an enlightened being, we will continue to live in ignorance, cry, die and never Realize, 'Who am I?' Sometimes, we need the help of a Guru, an Enlightened Master to help us through this journey but once the ego is enlightened, we will be free from agony, anguish, misery and sorrow. In the words of the author — 'If it was not for my Spiritual Master, my Guru, I would have never Realized, Who am I?'

Q: How do we go from Self-Realization to God-Realization?

A: The first Realization of an Enlightened Ego is Self-Realization. But this leads the ego to the next, the biggest and the ultimate Realization, God-Realization. When the ego realizes that I am not 'I', I am the Divine Soul, the ego starts another journey of Truth Consciousness, of Eternal Bliss and the ecstasy of Divine Love. Self-Realization only happens when the ego is enlightened. The beginning of the journey of God-Realization starts when we realize, 'I am not 'I'. I will never die. I am the immortal Soul.'

KARMA & REBIRTH

Q: What is Karma?

A: Karma means action. But it has developed and evolved to become the Law of Action. It is the Law of Cause and Effect. It is also the Law of Action and Reaction. It is the law of the boomerang, with the principle — What we give, is what we get. As per this law, what you do, will come back to you. This, the ego knows but it is an Enlightened Ego that goes on a deeper quest

Q: Who creates Karma?

A: At the surface, it seems like the body is doing the action. We cannot execute any action without the five instruments of action, our hands, our feet, our tongue, amongst others. But is the body creating Karma? No! The body is being directed by the Mind and the Ego, ME. ME is the producer and director of Karma. Therefore, the one responsible for Karma is not the body. It is the Mind and Ego, ME that creates Karma, owns Karma and returns to earth, again and again, to settle Karma

Q: Does Karma follow us after death?

A: Therefore, the Karma of the one who died, is not settled. It is carried forward by the Mind and Ego, ME that leaves one body in the moment the breath is gone and is born in another body. The Mind and Ego, ME not only directs the body to act but also at death, carries all unsettled Karma forward into a new birth on earth. It is the ego along with the mind that carries Karma and is implanted in a mother's womb for another journey called Life

Q: Why are we reborn?

A: Every ego goes through the cycle of birth and death. It is reborn and this goes on and on. Every 'body' dies but there is unsettled Karma that needs to be settled. Can a body be reborn? No. The body is cremated and returns to ashes. If this is a logical fact, who is reborn? It is the Mind and Ego, ME that leaves one body at death and starts its journey in another body. The ego carries Karma and is implanted in a mother's womb for another journey called Life

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 40: The Mind And Ego Is Reborn (Page 85)

Q: Can we transcend Karma?

A: When the ego is enlightened, it realizes the way to transcend Karma. This is the way to be free from all Karma and by doing so, it is liberated from the cycle of rebirth. The Enlightened Ego realizes that I am not the body that will die. It also realizes that the ego that says 'I', is a lie. When the ego realizes that I am not the body nor am I the Mind and Ego, ME, it realizes that we are the Divine Soul. The Soul does not create Karma, own Karma or carry it forward

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 41: Transcending Karma (Page 88)

Q: What is the law of 'as you sow, so shall you reap'?

A: It is common sense that — As you sow, so shall you reap. This natural law tells us that apples can't grow on mango trees. The seed that we plant will decide the fruit on the tree, just as our deed will decide our destiny. We can't escape Karma. Let us not deny or doubt it. The

Q: What is the Karmic cycle of birth and death?

A: For the seeker of truth, the 'I' does not die. It leaves one body only to return in another body, carrying its Karma, its deeds, good or bad. The concept of Karma is a global phenomenon, accepted by most of the world. The ego is reborn, the moment it is gone from one body. This simple reality makes us understand that as long as we have Karma, an unsettled account of actions, the ego will continue to live and be reborn, and this will go on and on

Q: How can the Enlightened Ego be free from Karma?

A: At death, the Karma that belonged to the illusory Mind and Ego, which does not exist, drops like a bag of stones into the ocean. That Karma belongs to nobody. So, the Enlightened Ego does not have to return to earth in a rebirth. It transcends Karma and is liberated from the cycle of rebirth. This is life's greatest secret! The Enlightened Ego realizes that the body will die. The Mind and Ego, ME doesn't exist, it is caused by ignorance. I am the Soul. Karma does not belong to me

Q: Why is it wrong to say God decides our destiny?

A: Is it because God is cruel or kind that a child is born blind and another in a palace? It is wrong to believe that there is a God, who is deciding the destiny of every individual that is born on earth. It is more practical and logical to accept that the fate of the newborn is directly proportional to the unsettled Karma of the one who died. The Law of Karma — as you sow, so shall you reap — is what determines our destiny, not an arbitrary God sitting in judgment

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 40: The Mind And Ego Is Reborn (Page 86)

Q: What happens to Karma at the moment of death?

A: Whatever we do in the hours or days before death are Karma, both good and bad, which need to be settled. But who will settle the Karma? The body is dead and the one who was alive in the body is said to depart, to move on. In fact, we are sure that the one who was alive in the body, using the body as an instrument of action, has left the body in the moment of death. The Karma of the one who died, is not settled. It is carried forward by the Mind and Ego, ME

Q: Does good Karma help us in future lives?

A: An Enlightened Ego realizes that its first option and choice is to do good Karma so that it both enjoys the fruit of its action on earth and is blessed with a bountiful life when it returns in a rebirth. However, when the ego is enlightened, it realizes the way to transcend Karma entirely.

Q: What is the ego's journey through multiple lifetimes?

A: The ego is not like the body which has a gross physical appearance. It is the ego along with the mind that carries Karma and is implanted in a mother's womb for another journey called Life. The ego leaves one body at death and starts its journey in another body. One must probe to Realize the Truth about the ego to discover our life purpose. The drama called life is unfolding, day after day. You and me, are born and ultimately, we will die and be reborn again

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 2: When Does The Ego Come Alive? (Page 10)

Q: What is the connection between ignorance and Karma?

A: It is ignorance that causes the ego to carry Karma and return to earth in a rebirth. Because we are ignorant and we think the Mind and Ego, ME exists, we suffer on earth and return in a rebirth. When we realize that we are not the body, we are not the Mind and Ego, ME, we realize that we are the Divine Soul. Then, at death, there is no rebirth. The Soul becomes one with the Supreme and does not have to be reborn as there is no Karma of the Soul

Q: How is Enlightenment the end of the Karmic cycle?

A: It is known as Enlightenment, Nirvana, Moksha or Salvation — the end to the Karmic cycle. It is Enlightenment or Spiritual Awakening through which one reaches the state of liberation. When the ego is enlightened, it rings the death knell of the Mind and Ego, ME. And so, when the body dies, there is no reincarnation. The Enlightened Ego's Realization causes that Illumination that in the moment of death, there is Liberation and Unification with the Divine

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 49: Nirvana, Moksha Or Salvation (Page 103-104)

Q: Can the ego ever be free from the cycle of rebirth?

A: The ego never dies. Only the body dies. The ego is reborn, the moment it is gone from one body. This will go on and on. What is the end to this cycle? It is known as Enlightenment, Nirvana, Moksha or Salvation. When the ego is enlightened, it realizes the way to transcend Karma. This is the way to be free from all Karma and by doing so, it is liberated from the cycle of rebirth. Then, in the moment of death, the ego is free from the cycle of being born again and again

ENLIGHTENED EGO & SPIRITUAL AWAKENING

Q: What is an Enlightened Ego?

A: An Enlightened Ego is Awakened. The 'I' realizes that I am not 'I'. Therefore, by letting go of, 'I', 'me' and 'mine', an Enlightened Ego lives as a manifestation of the Divine. An Enlightened Ego has no need to be angry or to hate, to take revenge or become jealous. Spiritual Awakening makes the ego realize that you and me, are both the same. We are Divine Energy. The truth liberates the ego from the agony and anguish caused by pride, greed and selfishness

Q: How can the ego be enlightened?

A: Can the Ego be Enlightened? If yes, then how? First of all, the mind will not let you be enlightened. It will question, 'How can the ego be enlightened?' If we want an Enlightened Ego, we must first still the mind and kill the mind! The only way to overcome ignorance is to go on a quest and to find out, 'Who am I?' It is this simple question that, if answered, can eliminate all the agony and anguish caused by the ego. We need Purification, Illumination and Realization

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 31: How Can The Ego Be Enlightened? (Page 67)

Q: What is the life of an Enlightened Ego like?

A: Such is the life of an Enlightened Ego, as it lives in a state of Eternal Bliss in Truth Consciousness, experiencing Everlasting Peace and Divine Love. Such bliss is unheard of in the world of mortals, of bodies that live with the mind and ego. The Enlightened Ego learns to laugh at many things. It laughs at the Maya, the illusion that this world is. The Enlightened Ego does not look up at the sky, for it realizes that to believe, 'God is up there,' is a lie. We are all Divine

Q: Why is humility the hallmark of the Enlightened Ego?

A: The key difference between the ego and the Enlightened Ego is that the ego is proud whereas, the Enlightened Ego is humble. The ego says, 'I know everything.' The Enlightened Ego says, 'I am nothing!' When there is no humility, the ego reigns supreme but when the ego is humbled, it is enlightened. Enlightenment is not a matter of pride. It is a humbling experience. When we are Spiritually Awakened, we realize that we are the Soul and experience the ecstasy of humility

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 35: The Enlightened Ego Is Humble (Page 75)

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego experience love?

A: The ego that realizes, 'I am not the body or the mind, I am the Divine Soul,' experiences Divine love. Such an Enlightened Ego is blessed to love one and all. An Awakened Soul experiences love as a Divine emotion and enjoys the bliss of love, as it is expressed to one and all, each that is none other than a manifestation of the Divine. The Enlightened Ego uses love as a way to love the Divine, the Supreme. It is deep Divine Love that flows from within

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 36: The Enlightened Ego Loves All (Page 78)

Q: What is the difference between an ignorant ego and an Enlightened Ego?

A: While we cannot kill our ego, we can transcend it and have an Enlightened Ego. The ignorant ego causes anger, hate, revenge, jealousy, pride, greed and selfishness. An Enlightened Ego, by contrast, is free from all these toxic emotions. The ego says 'I know everything' — the Enlightened Ego says 'I am nothing.' The ego is proud — the Enlightened Ego is humble. The ego creates Karma — the Enlightened Ego transcends Karma. The ego is reborn — the Enlightened Ego is liberated

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Back Cover & Chapter 34: Living As The Enlightened Ego (Page 73-74)

Q: Does the Enlightened Ego still exist in the body?

A: We cannot kill our ego. We can't annihilate it, till our last breath but we can live every moment, till our death as an Enlightened Ego. We can live in our body realizing, 'I will never die. I am the immortal Soul.' And this will free us from all misery and pain, again and again. Although, we have a body, an Enlightened Ego lives in the body but not as the body. Such an Awakened Ego is not a slave of sensual pleasures. It enjoys the treasure of Enlightenment

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego enjoy the world as 'Leela' or a show?

A: What is this world all about? As long as we live with the Ego, we live, cry and then, die. But the Enlightened Ego realizes that we are all actors, who come and go. The Enlightened Ego learns to laugh at many things. It laughs at the Maya, the illusion that this world is, as it is projected to feel like a real movie. Such a Divine Soul knows that this whole world is ultimately, a Divine drama, a Leela. This Realization only happens to an Enlightened Ego

Q: Is Enlightenment only for monks or can anyone be Enlightened?

A: Many people think of the state of being Enlightened or Awakened as something, mystical and magical. While it is no doubt a rare feat, anybody who goes on a quest can reach the state of being an Enlightened Ego. The ego is the same. Without the quest, it is ignorant, for there is darkness. When we switch on the light within, the ego is enlightened. Do you want to live a life of Eternal Bliss and Everlasting Peace? If you do, start your quest, today

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 50: Start Your Quest, Today (Page 105-106)

Q: How does Man - Ego = God?

A: My Spiritual Master, my Guru, gave me one equation from my journey of Realizing the Truth: Man - Ego = God. When the ego is dissolved, what remains is not the body, not the mind, but the Divine Soul — which is God. The mind makes us believe that I am ME, Mind + Ego. But when we subtract the ego from our identity, we arrive at the truth that we are the Divine Soul, which is one with the Supreme Immortal Power. That is the equation: Man - Ego = God.

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 23: Man - Ego = God (Page 51-52)

Q: What does the Enlightened Ego realize about the world?

A: An Enlightened Ego realizes that we are not the bodies that we wear nor are we the mind, which we cannot find. Enlightenment also Awakens us to the Truth of 'Why are we here?' Then, we realize the ultimate truth of life. This world is Maya, a Cosmic Illusion. While this globe and everything in it, appears to be matter, it is in reality, energy that is projected as matter. An Enlightened Ego realizes the Divine in one and all and knows that we are all manifestations of the one Divine

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 38: This World Is Maya, A Cosmic Illusion (Page 81)

Q: What is the role of non-duality in Enlightenment?

A: As long as the Ego is not Enlightened, we experience duality — the existence of 'I' and 'you'. When the ego exists, 'I' am different from you and different from God. But when the Enlightened Ego realizes that we are both the same Power, we become one. There is no duality. And when there is no duality, there is magic! Hate turns to love, revenge to forgiveness, anger to peace and jealousy to brotherhood. Non-duality is the very foundation of Enlightenment

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 32: The Magic Of Non-Duality (Page 69-70)

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego tame the 'Monkey Mind'?

A: The Enlightened Ego tames the Monkey Mind and lives as a monk. The mind, which is nothing but M — Misery, I — Ignorance, N — Negativity and D — Desire, is wiped out and replaced by the intellect. Thoughts still appear in the life of an Enlightened Ego but the mind does not. The mind disappears as an Enlightened Ego, lives in a state of Consciousness. To tame the Monkey Mind and to make it a Monk, is a prerequisite for an Enlightened Ego

Q: What does 'We are all manifestations of the Divine' mean?

A: The Enlightened Ego goes a step further. First, it realizes that I am not 'I'. Then, it realizes that you and me, both are the same Divine energy. The energy that fills the universe manifests as me. Therefore, the Ego that is Enlightened, realizes the Divine in one and all. The Awakened Soul knows for sure, that we are all manifestations of the one Divine. We may appear to be the different bodies that we wear but the truth is that we are the Soul and have the same source. We are one!

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 33: We Are Manifestations Of The Divine (Page 71)

Q: What is the goal of the Enlightened Ego at the time of death?

A: Ultimately, the Enlightened Ego has just one goal — To live as the Divine Soul, till that moment of death, when there is no breath and the Mind and Ego, ME, which would otherwise return to earth in a rebirth, dissolves and disappears. In this magical moment called

PEACE, BLISS & LOVE

Q: What is the benefit of an Enlightened Ego for peace?

A: The benefit of an Enlightened Ego is phenomenal. First, it eliminates all agony and anguish and creates peace. And then, this peace within, vibrates in our home, our society and in the world. The Enlightened Ego lives a life of peace and tranquillity. It overcomes fear and anxiety, worry and stress that create a mess! Not only are all the agony and anguish of the Ego conquered, an Enlightened Ego is also free from the misery of the mind

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego find peace of mind?

A: Wherever there is a piece of mind, there can be no peace of mind. Therefore, we have to eliminate the mind. The Enlightened Ego slows down the pace of thoughts and thus, eliminates the mind. Then, each thought enters the Consciousness for the intellect to discriminate. This ensures peace, moment after moment because when there is no mind, then automatically, peace, we will find. When we learn to live with peace within in our heart and in our head, that state of tranquillity spreads in our surroundings

Q: What is Eternal Bliss?

A: What is the reward for an Enlightened Ego? It is Eternal Bliss, Divine Love and Everlasting Peace. What is Eternal Bliss? It is that state of happiness, which is endless. It is a state of contentment and fulfillment. It is an ecstasy of joy where there are no unfulfilled desires. It is that state of pleasure, where there is no pain. This seems to be mere fantasy but it is the state of the Enlightened Ego. We human beings go through the cycle of pleasure and pain but the Enlightened Ego experiences the ecstasy of joy, again and again

Q: What is Divine Love?

A: The Enlightened Ego not only enjoys peace and bliss but it also enjoys the magic, the ecstasy of Divine Love. To an Enlightened Ego, love flows from the Soul, from the Divine within, to the Divine that dwells in every being. It is not just love from skin to skin. It is deep Divine Love that flows from within. This love becomes a fountain of joy because it has no expectations and no conditions. It is universal spiritual love that flows not just to the beloved as the Divine, but also overflows to the world

Q: How does peace within one person create world peace?

A: The reason peace within spreads in our surroundings is that the transformed, Enlightened Ego realizes that we are all not the body that we seem to be nor the Mind and Ego, ME. We are all Divine Souls. We may appear different but we have the same source. We are different effects of the same cause. Therefore, there is no anger, hate, revenge or jealousy. There is no conflict or war. When the ego is ignorant, we are constantly fighting with each other. The moment the ego is enlightened, conflict dissolves

Q: Why is peace the foundation of happiness?

A: We human beings seek happiness but we don't realize that peace is the foundation of happiness. We let our peace and tranquillity get replaced by stress and anxiety, when we let our ego ride uncontrolled. The moment we lose peace of mind, happiness, we can no longer find. The Enlightened Ego lives a life of peace and tranquillity. It overcomes fear and anxiety, worry and stress. When there is no mind, then automatically, peace, we will find. And on this foundation of peace, true happiness is built

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 29: Choose Tranquillity, Instead Of Jealousy (Page 64)

Q: Can we experience happiness that lasts forever?

A: Have we experienced a state of infinite happiness? Not pleasure, that comes and goes but happiness that forever flows? We all suffer through the cycle of pleasure and pain. But this is a gift received by the Enlightened Ego. The one who takes the road less travelled, transcends the body and mind, so that the 'I', he can no longer find! This opens the door to Bliss, Love and Peace. The Enlightened Ego experiences joy and bliss eternally, not just in moments

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego enjoy bliss even when the body suffers pain?

A: The ego is awakened that I have a body but I am not the body. When the mind tries to create fear, worry, stress and anxiety, the ego locks it, blocks it and moves to a state of Consciousness. The Enlightened Ego may experience pain in the physical body but it does not suffer the pain. Anger, revenge, jealousy and hate get thrown out of the gate because for the Enlightened Ego, there is no 'I' and no 'you'. This state of bliss is based on the foundation of peace

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 48: Bliss, Love And Peace (Page 101-102)

Q: What is the state of Nirvana, Moksha or Salvation?

A: To the world, our ultimate goal is Salvation. Some people call it Moksha and others call it, Nirvana. But it is the same thing. It is Liberation from misery on earth and Unification with the Divine or freedom from rebirth. How can one reach this state? It is through Enlightenment or Spiritual Awakening. Nirvana, Moksha and Salvation is nothing but God-Realization. Self-Realization only happens when the ego is enlightened. This Realization leads to Liberation

Q: How does the Enlightened Ego experience love for God?

A: How can we love God? We can't. We can only be devoted and obedient to Divine laws. But an Enlightened Ego learns to love God. The Enlightened Ego realizes that God is not

God. God is in every Soul that walks and talks and so, the Enlightened Ego is able to love God by loving one and all. Love for an Enlightened Ego is definitely not for the skin. That is a crush, lust or infatuation. The Enlightened Ego loves the Divine that is within and this makes such an Awakened One, enjoy true love

Q: What does 'Bliss, Love and Peace' mean for the Enlightened Ego?

A: What is the reward for an Enlightened Ego? It is Eternal Bliss, Divine Love and Everlasting Peace. We all experience misery, pain and we yearn for Peace. The Enlightened Ego enjoys Bliss, Love, as miseries cease. Not just freedom from negative emotions but an active state of Eternal Happiness. The Enlightened Ego not only enjoys peace and bliss but it also enjoys the magic, the ecstasy of Divine Love. Together with peace and bliss, this creates an unparalleled ecstasy of joy

Q: How is true love different from ego-driven love?

A: The word 'LOVE' itself means — Longing, Of the Soul, Very Passionate, Ecstasy of Joy. Unfortunately, in today's world, love is not so. In today's world, 'LOVE' is — Longing, Of the Being, Very Possessive and Exclusive. As long as love is conditional and ego-driven, it will end in heartache and heartbreak. But when the ego is enlightened, love will become a fountain of joy, an ecstasy of bliss. True love is from Soul to Soul, not from skin to skin

Q: Why can't we find peace if the mind is active?

A: Wherever there is a piece of mind, there can be no peace of mind. Therefore, we have to eliminate the mind. The mind is nothing but a bundle of thoughts. It goes to the past and creates regret, shame and guilt. Then the mind jumps to tomorrow and creates stress, worry and anxiety. Immediately, any peace that we enjoy will cease because of our own mind. The Enlightened Ego slows down the pace of thoughts and thus, eliminates the mind, allowing peace to emerge naturally

Q: What is the path to Salvation for a common person?

A: What is life all about? It is not just to live as 'I' and then to die. It is to find out, 'Who am I and why am I here?' It is to be liberated from earth and from rebirth and united with the Supreme. Our goal is Nirvana, Moksha and Salvation. The way is simple: Go on a quest to ask 'Who am I?' Then, go deep into our very being. When we realize that the ego that says 'I', is a big lie, we start our journey towards an Enlightened Ego and the path to Salvation opens.

Q: How does Enlightenment lead to Unification with the Divine?

A: When the ego is enlightened, it rings the death knell of the Mind and Ego, ME. And so, when the body dies, there is no reincarnation. The Enlightened Ego's Realization causes that Illumination that in the moment of death, there is Liberation and Unification with the Divine. We are a speck of Divine Energy. We are manifestations of God. God is SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power and we, the Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life, come from God and go back to God

THE DIVINE SOUL & SELF-IDENTITY

Q: Who are we truly — the body, mind or something else?

A: We appear to be the body, the hardware and the mind, the software. But in reality, we are the Power supply, the Soul. Realization of the Truth enlightens us that we are not the body, mind and ego. We are the Divine Soul. The Soul is a Spark Of Unique Life. It is immortal. It does not die. It is energy and energy can neither be created nor destroyed. The truth is that we exist. We cannot deny our existence. So, then, who are we? We are the Divine Soul

Q: What is the Soul?

A: The Soul is a Spark Of Unique Life. It gives life to the first cell, the zygote. Thereafter, it is the Soul that causes the cells to multiply from one to two, two to four, four to sixteen and so on, till we become twenty-five billion cells. Each cell of existence is nothing but energy, the Soul energy. Therefore, in that moment of death, when the Soul departs and there is no breath, the trillions of cells of an adult human being disintegrate and go back to the five elements

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 22: I Am The Divine Soul (Page 49)

Q: Am I the body that will die?

A: The first question that the seeker must ask is — 'Am I the body that will die?' This body was formed over nine months in our mother's womb. One day, this body that we think is 'me', will die and people will say that we passed away. Who departs in the moment of death? We are not this body that will die. When we investigate, we will realize that the body is created out of five elements on earth and returns to the five elements. But we are not the body. We are the Divine Soul

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 11: Am I The Body That Will Die? (Page 27)

Q: Where is the mind? Can we find it?

A: What is the mind? We all believe we have a mind. But, in reality, do we? The mind appears to be but have we ever seen the mind? How does it look like? Is it round or square? Is it tiny or

Q: What does 'we are all one' mean?

A: What is the Ultimate Truth? As long as the Ego is ignorant, we will believe that I am 'I' and you are 'you' but when the ego is enlightened, we will be transformed. We will realize that we are not the bodies that we wear, we are the ones that wear the body. We will realize that we are like different waves, all belonging to one ocean. We are all effects and the cause is one. We may appear to be the different bodies that we wear but the truth is that we are the Soul and have the same source

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 24: We Are All One (Page 53)

Q: What is the Supreme Immortal Power?

A: God is SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power and we, the Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life, come from God and go back to God. SIP is nameless and formless, birthless and deathless, the Divine Power that is everywhere, in everything. The Enlightened Ego realizes that we are both the same Power. There is no duality. The energy that fills the universe, called dark energy or dark matter by scientists, is nothing but Divine Energy. Therefore, the Ego that is Enlightened, realizes the Divine in one and all

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 33: We Are Manifestations Of The Divine (Page 71) & Chapter 49: Nirvana, Moksha Or Salvation (Page 104)

Q: Why is the ego said to say 'I', but this 'I' is a lie?

A: What is the Truth? The Truth is that the ego is a false identity. The Truth is that when the ego says, 'I', it's a lie. We have already analysed that we are not this body that will die. We have reflected and know that the mind doesn't exist. You can't find the mind! When there is no body and mind, where is the question of the ego? In five simple words, the Spiritual Awakening is — 'Not This, Not This, Thou Art That.' I am not this body. I am not the mind. I am the Divine Soul

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 13: The Ego That Says 'I', Is A Lie (Page 31) & Chapter 47: Not This, Not This, Thou Art That (Page 99)

Q: What is self-enquiry and why is it important?

A: The quest for the truth leads us to understanding, 'I am I' and then, realizing, 'I am not I.' The search reveals that I am not the body that will die. I am not the mind that I cannot find but I am, I exist. Then, who am I? This Realization is the purpose of every human being, who is born on earth. It starts with the question, 'Who am I?' This simple question, if answered, can eliminate all the agony and anguish caused by the ego. Self-enquiry is the path to Liberation

Q: Is the Soul the same in all beings?

A: We are all manifestations of the Divine. Each one of us is a Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life and we all come from SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power. The Awakened Soul knows for sure, that we are all manifestations of the one Divine. We are all like different waves, all belonging to one ocean. We are different effects of the same cause. When the ego is enlightened, it realizes that we are all Divine Souls with the same source. The Soul in you and the Soul in me are essentially the same

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 33: We Are Manifestations Of The Divine (Page 71-72)

Q: What happens to the Soul after death?

A: The Soul is a Spark Of Unique Life. It is immortal. It does not die. It is energy and energy can neither be created nor destroyed. We, the Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life, come from God and go back to God. When the body dies, the Soul departs. The Soul becomes one with the Supreme and does not have to be reborn as there is no Karma of the Soul. The Karma belongs to the body, which dies and thereafter, is carried by the Mind and Ego, ME, to the next life cycle

Q: Why do we say 'I will never die'?

A: The Enlightened Ego gets a profound spark of Spiritual Awakening, 'I will never die.' This Spiritual Awakening comes as a sequel to the first Realization that the ego will never die. The soul is immortal. It does not die. It is energy and energy can neither be created nor destroyed. We can live in our body realizing, 'I will never die. I am the immortal Soul.' And this will free us from all misery and pain, again and again. The body will die but we — the Divine Soul — are eternal

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 42: The Ego Can Never Die (Page 89)

Q: What is God-Realization?

A: God-Realization is the ultimate Realization, beyond Self-Realization. When the ego realizes that I am not 'I', I am the Divine Soul, the ego starts another journey of Truth Consciousness, of Eternal Bliss and the ecstasy of Divine Love. The first Realization of an Enlightened Ego is Self-Realization. This leads to the realization 'I am not 'I''. And ultimately, the soul realizes that we are one with the Supreme Immortal Power. Nirvana, Moksha and Salvation is nothing but God-Realization

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 46: Let Go Of Your Ego And Realize God (Page 97)

Q: What is the mystery of ME?

A: Till now, we have been talking about the ego. But what about the 'ME'? Who is the ME that looks in the mirror and says, 'That's me'? The truth is that ME is the Mind and Ego together. The Mind and Ego, ME, is that combined identity. It is not the body, which we know will die. ME is the subtle identity, the Mind and Ego combination that carries Karma and returns to earth in a rebirth. In reality, nobody has seen the Mind or the Ego but ME appears to be very real

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 6: The Mystery Of ME (Page 17)

Q: What is the journey of Mind and Ego through life?

A: The Mind and Ego, ME, is that combined identity that is conceived nine months before the date on our birth certificate. Along with the mind, the ego directs the body to do Karma and so, it becomes a part of the life drama. It faces trauma just as it enjoys the show. But ultimately, it has to go. The drama called life is unfolding, day after day. You and me, are born and ultimately, we will die. The Mind and Ego, ME, carries all its Karma and is reborn again and again

Source: Enlightened Ego by AiR (Atman in Ravi) — Chapter 7: Mind And Ego — Their Journey (Page 19)

Q: How do we start our spiritual quest today?

A: Do you want to live a life of Eternal Bliss and Everlasting Peace? Do you want the magic of Divine Love, where heartaches cease? If you do, start your quest, today. It starts with two important questions — Who am I? Why am I here? How can you start your quest today? When you shut the door that is leading you astray in the eternal material world and you open the door that goes within, you start that inner voyage towards an Enlightened Ego. Enlightenment is all about switching on the light
