

How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss

TOPIC: PEACE

Q. Why do we seek peace?

A. We all know the truth but we have not realized it. The truth is that we are all seeking peace because peace is the foundation of happiness. When there is no peace, our happiness does cease! Imagine, you are in a celebration party drinking champagne and eating the most exotic food. Suddenly, there is some bad news of a death in the family or a disaster. What happens to the celebration? It becomes desperation. The moment we lose peace of mind, happiness, we can no longer find. Therefore, we all need peace to be happy.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 1: Why Do We Seek Peace? | Page 9

Q. How can I find peace of mind?

A. The only way to find peace of mind, is to eliminate the mind. It is the mind that is robbing us of our peace. The mind with its toxic thoughts, continues to drill us and kill us and destroys our peace. The moment we still the mind, peace, we can find. But the challenge is, how to still the mind? The whole world is trying to find a way to still the mind and find peace. Most of us are searching for peace outside when in reality, peace is inside. We travel to faraway destinations to find peace of mind. Little do we realize that as long as we carry our mind with us, peace, we can never find.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 2: How To Find Peace Of Mind | Page 11–12

Q. Why does the mind destroy peace?

A. There is a rascal, a thief, called the mind. When the mind appears, it brings with it fear, worry, stress, anxiety, regret, shame and guilt. This aggression of toxic thoughts leads us into depression. The mind goes to the past and creates regret, shame and guilt with its thoughts that nurse, curse and rehearse the incidents and wrongs of the past. We lose our peace. Then the mind jumps to tomorrow and creates stress, worry and anxiety. Immediately, any peace that we enjoy will cease because of our own mind. Therefore, it is said that where there is a piece of mind, there can be no peace of mind.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 3: Where There Is Mind, There Is No Peace! | Page 13–14

Q. What is the mind?

A. The mind is nothing but a bundle of thoughts. Unless thoughts become a cluster, the mind is not formed. The word MIND reveals that it is nothing but M – Misery, I – Ignorance, N – Negativity, D – Desires. When negative thoughts appear in our head, we call it the mind. However, our mind is too smart. It fools us with occasional positive thoughts too. But beware, the mind is nothing but a rotten rascal. Its aim is to create misery and sorrow, as it steals our present moment of joy and shuttles between yesterday and tomorrow.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 4: What Is The Mind? | Page 15

Q. What is the MK-50 and how does it affect peace?

A. The mind is also a weapon but is far more destructive than the AK-47. We call it the MK-50 because it is capable of shooting at us up to 50 thoughts a minute. This can become a whopping 50,000 thoughts a day and can be very dangerous when it comes to peace! Where there is a piece of mind, there can be no peace of mind because the mind is bombarding us with a thought every second. It may be the same thought that is drilling us and killing us or it may be a new thought that leads to instant death in our head, although our heart continues to beat.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 5: The AK-47 And The MK-50 | Page 17

Q. What are the 7 toxic thoughts of the mind?

A. The mind produces the 7 deadly miseries that can lead us into depression and sometimes, even suicide! The mind causes FEAR – a False Expectation Appearing Real. The mind causes us to worry (Waste of Life, Overthinking, Repeating the Problem, Rehearsing the Fear, Yearning of the Mind). The mind causes stress — Sad, Toxic, Repetitive, Exhausting, Sadistic and Suffocating thoughts. The mind causes anxiety, regret, guilt and shame. These 7 miseries are all caused by the toxic thoughts of the mind. No wonder, there is no peace of mind!

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 19–20

Q. How do we move from thoughts to thoughtlessness?

A. We have already discovered that the mind is nothing but a bundle of thoughts. For peace, we have to eliminate thoughts. People often talk of Mindfulness. It is becoming mindful of what we are thinking. Some people call it Awareness. This is a state better referred to as Consciousness. When we are able to move from thoughts to thoughtlessness, we reach that state of Mindfulness, Awareness or Consciousness. In this state, there is no mind, there are only thoughts. The mind ceases to exist because it is no more shooting those 50 toxic thoughts every minute. In this state of Thoughtlessness, thoughts appear gently like snowflakes, one by one, into our Consciousness for us to discriminate and live with peace, devoid of any anxiety.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 7: From Thoughts To Thoughtlessness | Page 21–22

Q. What is the state of Consciousness?

A. What is this state of Consciousness? It is a state of Eternal Bliss and Peace. It is a state of Everlasting Happiness. When we pause this river of gushing thoughts, then we move from a state of mind to a state of Consciousness. Then there is no more poison in our head that will make us dead. Consciousness guarantees peace because Consciousness is a state of 'no mind'. It is the mind that robs our peace of mind and so, obviously, in Consciousness peace will flow like a river and we will enjoy that state of Eternal Happiness.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 8: The State Of Consciousness | Page 23–24

Q. How does the intellect help us find peace?

A. With an active intellect, man can choose peace and tranquillity over stress, worry and anxiety. When the toxic thoughts of the mind attack us and create fear, worry, stress and anxiety, regret, shame and guilt, the intellect which is activated in Consciousness can intercept these toxic thoughts and through discrimination, eliminate this negative contamination. The intellect uses the power of reason and logic to discriminate and shoots down unnecessary fear and stress. If we use our intellect in Consciousness, we can choose to live a life of peace and tranquillity. But this is a choice that we must make.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 9: The Intellect And Peace | Page 25–26

Q. What is NEP and how does it destroy peace?

A. NEP is negative emotions that create poison. What are some NEP emotions that cause disease? Fear, worry, stress, anxiety, regret, shame and guilt are the 7 miseries of the mind. When the mind activates the ego, it creates 7 more monsters of NEP. They are anger, hate, revenge, jealousy, pride, greed and selfishness. Rotten thoughts come from NEP. Where there is NEP, there can be no peace and where there is PEP, all miseries will cease.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 10: From NEP To PEP | Page 27

Q. What is PEP and how does it create peace?

A. If we can make it a habit to live with PEP, Positive Energy Power, then we can choose positive emotions as the raw material for our thought factory. If we choose faith, hope, trust and enthusiasm and add to these, emotions of courage, confidence, love, joy, peace, forgiveness, compassion and optimism, these will become positive raw materials that will create positive thoughts. The whole world talks about 'Thinking Positive'. But how can we think positive when the mind is full of negativity? We can choose PEP over NEP and if we make this wise choice, we will experience Eternal Peace and Everlasting Happiness.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 10: From NEP To PEP | Page 28

Q. How do we make the monkey mind a monk?

A. If you look at the word 'MONKEY', it has a tail, the EY. If we cut the monkey's tail, EY, what is left is MONK. What is the monkey's tail — EY? It is the nature of the monkey mind. It is Ever-Yelling and Ever-Yearning. Who is a MONK? M – Master over Mind, O – Only in Meditative Yoga, N – No Desires, K – Kindled Consciousness. When we make the monkey mind a monk, we will experience peace and tranquillity that forever flows, not just a spurt of silence that comes and goes. Peace is possible but it is a choice.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 11: Making The Monkey Mind, A Monk | Page 29–30

Q. What are the attributes of PEACE?

A. What are the attributes of PEACE? P – Perfect Stillness of Mind, E – Eliminating Desires, A – Acceptance and Surrender, C – Consciousness, E – Experiencing Bliss. The whole world talks of peace but peace is rare to find. Little does the world realize that the culprit is the mind. It tries to make us find peace but peace is left behind. Only without the mind, will we have peace.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 12: Peace Is The Foundation Of Happiness | Page 32

Q. Why is peace the foundation of happiness?

A. We all want to be happy. Who doesn't? But we have not learned the simple secret of happiness. It is peace. If we were to choose pleasure or peace to be true happiness, those who choose pleasure will be glad but soon will be sad. But those who choose peace will be happy all the time because if there is no peace, there can be no happiness. All successful people are not happy. But all happy people are successful because happy people have peace. Successful people may enjoy pleasure but pleasure is not real happiness. It is peace that is the foundation of happiness.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 12: Peace Is The Foundation Of Happiness | Page 31

Q. Where is peace truly found?

A. Peace is always within us. Alas! We lose our peace and our tranquillity does cease because the rascal mind and its toxic thoughts seize both our Consciousness and our intellect.

Therefore, the existing peace within, disappears like the tranquillity of a still lake. When we throw several pebbles in a pond with silent and still water, it creates ripples and the peace is lost. The mind creates ripples of toxic thoughts and steals our peace. If only we can be in Consciousness and if we learn the art of putting the intellect in charge of our life, there can be discrimination, just as there will be Realization of the Truth. And this is sure to guarantee peace.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 9: The Intellect And Peace | Page 26

TRUE LOVE

Q. Why do we all need love?

A. We all need love but we don't understand that love starts right from the time we are in school. A little child needs the love of its mother, just as that child will cry and scream if the mother is missing even for a moment. Without love, though we may survive for a much longer period but ultimately, we will shrivel and die without the sunshine of love. Even if one is physically alive, deep within, they will be dead without love.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 1: We All Need Love | Page 34

Q. What is true love?

A. True love is bliss, it's not just a kiss! Love is not just the infatuation of one body with another. It is not just passion from skin to skin. True love erupts from the Soul, the Divine within. True love is eternal. It is not ephemeral love. It is not conditional. If one truly loves, then one never leaves. If one leaves, it only means one loved for a reason, a need, a selfish purpose. True love is Divine. Those who discover true love, enjoy an ecstasy of bliss that is greater than any other happiness.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 2: What Is True Love? | Page 36–37

Q. What is Ishq-e-Haqiqi, Agape and Mumukshutva?

A. Ishq-e-Haqiqi literally means 'real love' or the love of God. This intense love is true Divine Spiritual Love. In ancient Greece, the Greeks used the term Agape for true love that is unconditional, when one is ready to sacrifice anything for the beloved. It is Divine Love that flows from the Soul and makes our life whole. In the Vedas and Upanishads, the term is called Mumukshutva — when one develops deep love and longing for the Divine, seeking Liberation from this illusory world. True love is not the attraction for beautiful skin. True love is that love that is for the Divine within.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 3: Ishq-e-Haqiqi, Agape, Mumukshutva | Page 38–39

Q. What is the difference between loving because you need and needing because you love?

A. If 'I love you, only because I need you,' then the fact is that 'I only need you. I don't really love you.' But when, 'I need you because I love you,' then 'I need you, not because I need something from you, but because I truly love you.' This is true love. When there is love, we don't leave. When we leave, it means that there was no love! True love is eternal, unconditional love. If we truly want to enjoy love, then we must discover what true love is.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 4: I Love You Because I Need You | Page 40–41

Q. How do we discover Divine Love?

A. Very few of us discover True Divine Love. Very few realize that true love comes from the Soul. If we want to discover true love, we must quickly discover who we are, in reality. What stops us from discovering True Divine Love? It is the Mind and Ego, ME. Self-Realization is the way to discover True Divine Love. We will realize that we are all Souls. We all come from SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power and the true love in our heart can never take us apart because in reality, we are one and love is Divine when it is yearning for each other as Divine Souls.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 5: Discovering Divine Love | Page 42–43

Q. What are the 7 colours of the rainbow of love?

A. The rainbow of love has 7 colours. When we are born, Violet Love fills our life — the love between a child and a parent. Indigo Love manifests in the form of friendship, when a best friend is more important than anybody else. Blue Love is the innocent romance we experience for the opposite sex as children. Green Love is Self-Love. Yellow Love is intellectual love — we love those on the same intellectual frequency. Orange Love is emotional love. Red Love is erotic love. When we discover the 7 colours of the rainbow of love, our life is filled with love and compassion, kindness and forgiveness.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 6: The Rainbow Of Love | Page 44–45

Q. Is love freedom or attachment?

A. True love is not clinging. Clinging is the cause of all suffering. If you truly love somebody, you give them the freedom to live, to breathe, to love because true love is not a monopoly between two people. True love is Divine. True love is bliss. Love is not attachment. When you are so attached to somebody that you become so very possessive of them, you actually suffocate them. Those who discover true love give their beloved all freedom because there is a perfect understanding between two real lovers. Love is not a contract. Love is not conditional. True love is the ability to let each other free but the love between two lovers creates that energy that keeps them bonded.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 7: Love Is Freedom, Not Attachment | Page 46–47

Q. What are the 4 pillars of love?

A. What are the four pillars of love? Love is not just of the body, as thinks a man. Love is not just of the mind, as thinks a woman. True love is body, mind, heart and Soul. This makes true love whole. Unless we blend physical and emotional love with intellectual and spiritual romance, life will be boring and love may experience heartaches and heartbreaks. True Eternal Divine Love will have all the four pillars of physical intimacy, emotional magic, intellectual elevation and Spiritual Divinity. When love is built on these four pillars, it is unbreakable!

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 8: The 4 Pillars Of Love | Page 48–49

Q. What is the connection between love and trust?

A. The key to opening the door to love is trust. When we start to trust somebody a lot, love automatically develops just as we find love growing when we start to trust. What is trust? TRUST is Total Reliance Unconditional Surrender To The One You Love. When you trust your beloved, there is no element of doubt. Love and trust go hand in hand. For love to be there, trust must be beside it. Those who think that they can cheat in love are sure to find their love dissolve and disappear. For love to grow, trust must grow.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 9: Love Is Trust | Page 50–51

Q. What does the LOVE acronym mean?

A. The word LOVE reveals what it truly is. It is L – Longing, O – Of the Soul, V – Very Passionate, E – Ecstasy of Joy. The one who truly loves, realizes that love does not belong to the body and the mind but comes from our true existence, from the Soul. When one realizes the true self, then one experiences true love, realizing that we are all in fact, Souls, and we all come from one source, the Supreme Immortal Power, SIP that the world calls God. Then we discover true love.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 10: The LOVE Acronym | Page 52–53

Q. Why is love God?

A. Love is such a beautiful emotion that it can create instant bliss and Eternal Happiness. The SOUL is a Spark Of Unique Life that comes from SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power we call God. Without the Soul, there would be no conception, no creation of life. It is the Soul that vibrates Consciousness in which love exists. Thus, love is present in every breath of our Consciousness. Love is Divine. Love is soulful. Love is from SIP that the world calls God. Love creates bliss and it is the most important bond that glues the world together and creates magic in life.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 11: Love Is God | Page 54–55

Q. How is love an ecstasy of joy?

A. True love is the Divine in us loving the Divine in another and this magic is truly blissful. When we reach this state, where there is a union between two Souls that love each other as one, then there is a state of Eternal Happiness that forever flows. It is not pleasure that comes for a moment and goes. The bliss of love lingers in our hearts and Souls and seamlessly flows throughout our life. This gift of true love is rare but it is our ultimate goal that we attain the state of Eternal Happiness where we experience the ecstasy of love.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 12: Love Is An Ecstasy Of Joy | Page 56

Q. Why do heartbreaks happen in love?

A. Sometimes, we hear of hearts breaking. Heartaches and heartbreaks are not part of true love. When love is of the world and it's full of conditions and expectations, there are bound to be disappointments and hearts will break. In today's world, love, relationships and marriages break as often as we make them. No sooner than falling in love, there is falling out of love. This is because there was no true love. When there is love, we don't leave. When we leave, it means that there was no love! True love is eternal, unconditional love.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 4: I Love You Because I Need You | Page 41

Q. What stops us from discovering true love?

A. What stops us from discovering True Divine Love? It is the Mind and Ego, ME. It tells us that we are the one in the mirror that we see. But the truth is that there is no me. It is created out of ignorance. We are a manifestation of the Divine. When we transcend the mind and ego, and live as the Divine Soul, we will discover true love that is within. We will not be attracted by the skin but love the Divine that dwells within.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 5: Discovering Divine Love | Page 43

Q. How does love relate to the Soul?

A. We, the Divine Soul, come alive in the zygote in that moment of conception. One day, the body will die. Our loved ones will destroy our body and say that we passed away. We are that Power, that Spark Of Unique Life, that Soul, that departs in the moment of death, when there is no breath. When we realize that we are that Soul, then we will not have boyfriends and girlfriends. We will have only soulmates. Our Souls appear to be different, but they are like waves of one ocean. Our Souls come from SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power and return to SIP.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 5: Discovering Divine Love | Page 42–43

HAPPINESS & BLISS

Q. What is happiness?

A. Happiness is a state of being happy. It is the emotion of joy. It is being positive, being blissful and peaceful. It is the art of enjoying pleasure and not suffering in pain. It is a skill of overcoming all misery that attacks us again and again. It is discovering how to live joyously in the present moment, not living with the misery of yesterday or the fear of tomorrow. It is that state of Eternal Bliss that comes with Truth Consciousness. Happiness is a choice. We can choose to be happy or unhappy. We can be glad or sad.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 1: What Is Happiness? | Page 59–60

Q. Is there a way to Eternal Bliss?

A. Anybody can be happy, once in a way. But is there a way to Eternal Bliss? Yes, there is. The purpose of life is to reach this state of Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Happiness. Therefore, the challenge of finding that way to Eternal Bliss is finding how to live in Consciousness. It is being able to flip over from a state of mind to a state of Thoughtlessness. In this state of Consciousness, the intellect shines and we can choose positive thoughts over negative ones. Thus, we can eliminate NEP, emotions that create Negative Energy Poison and live with PEP, emotions that will boost Positive Energy Power.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 2: Is There A Way To Eternal Bliss? | Page 61–62

Q. Why is success not happiness?

A. If success was happiness, then all the successful people in this world should be the happiest people in this world. But is this true? We find many successful people even committing suicide. Success can give pleasure. Achievement can create wealth that can make us enjoy material happiness but it cannot give Eternal Bliss. The real purpose of being a winner is to be happy. Not just for that moment of achievement but to enjoy a blissful and peaceful life. Success is not happiness. Happiness is success. If we don't discover this, our life becomes a mess.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 3: Success Is Not Happiness | Page 63–64

Q. What does it mean to move from achievement to fulfillment?

A. Most of us are running behind trinkets and treasures of life thinking that money can buy happiness. But very few people are blessed. Only a few discover peace, which is the foundation of happiness. Those who stop chasing their passions and are fulfilled satisfying their need, they attain a state of bliss that is built on the foundation of peace. The happiness that comes from the fulfillment journey is far more blissful and peaceful than pleasure that comes from the achievement journey. What is FULFILLMENT? F – Being Fully Content, U – Having A Universal Connection, L – Living with Love and Laughter, F – Having Faith and Hope.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 4: From Achievement To Fulfillment | Page 65–66

Q. What is the ultimate peak of Enlightenment?

A. Why is Enlightenment the loftiest peak of happiness? Because when one reaches the state of Enlightenment, not only does one enjoy pleasure that may come from success and achievement and not only does one experience peace that comes from contentment and fulfillment but one is also liberated from all misery and sorrow, as one realizes that we are not the body and mind that suffers all kinds of pain. When one reaches that state known as Enlightenment, one is Spiritually Awakened. One wakes up from slumber to realize, 'I am a Divine Soul, a Spark Of Unique Life, that knows no suffering.'

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 5: The Ultimate Peak Of Enlightenment | Page 67–68

Q. What is pleasure and how does it differ from happiness?

A. Pleasure makes us Happy. Pleasure gives us Joy. But Pleasure is momentary. It is just like a toy. When we were kids, we would become so excited when we would go into a toy shop. The difference between men and boys is just the cost of their toys. Does all this create happiness? Of course, it does. But this happiness is just pleasure that comes and goes. This is not happiness that forever flows. Therefore, if we want to be happy, we must learn to enjoy pleasure in a way that we can remain happy, most of the day.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 6: Pleasure | Page 69–70

Q. How does peace create happiness?

A. We all seek peace of mind but not many of us know the truth that peace is the basic foundation of happiness. If there is no peace, one cannot enjoy pleasure. The moment you lose peace of mind, you lose the treasure of happiness. If we want peace, then we have to eliminate the mind, for where there is a piece of mind, there can be no peace of mind. In fact, where there is peace, there is no mind. And where there is a mind, there is no peace. To be happy and to enjoy peace, we must learn to live life, moment by moment. We must make a vow that we will be happy now.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 7: Peace | Page 71–72

Q. What is the connection between purpose and happiness?

A. If one wants to enjoy Eternal Bliss and feel that ecstasy of joy, that euphoria of bliss, one has to discover our purpose. What is the purpose of coming to earth? Why did we take this human birth? To get to the root, we have to Realize the Truth. When we realize that I am not the body, mind and ego, I am the Divine Soul, then we are liberated from the triple suffering – the pain of the body, misery of the mind and agony of the ego. Therefore, this Realization of who am I, takes us to the ultimate peak of happiness that comes with discovering our purpose.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 8: Purpose | Page 73–74

Q. What is SatChitAnanda?

A. The word SatChitAnanda is broken up into 3 words. Sat means Truth, Chit means Consciousness, and Ananda means Eternal Bliss. When there is Sat, Chit, which means there is Consciousness of the Truth, there is Ananda, bliss unknown to the common man. When we are in Truth Consciousness, in that state of Sat Chit, we are not under the spell of the Mind and Ego, ME that creates hell. We are conscious of the truth. We realize that we are not the body, mind and ego that suffers. We realize that we are the Divine Soul. Living in this Truth Consciousness, we achieve the goal of Ultimate Happiness.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 9: Satchitananda | Page 75–76

Q. How do we eliminate misery and sorrow?

A. What is the primary cause of our misery and pain? It is the mind and the ego that make us unhappy, again and again. Therefore, we must focus on eliminating the mind and ego, if we want to uproot all our miseries. We have to tackle the 7 common miseries caused by the mind — fear, worry, stress and anxiety, regret, shame and guilt. We also have to defeat the 7 monsters created by the ego — anger, hate, revenge and jealousy, pride, greed and selfishness. Once we are successful in uprooting the joy-stealers, we can pull happiness triggers and enjoy peace and bliss.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 10: Eliminating Misery And Sorrow | Page 77–78

Q. What is the bliss of the Soul?

A. The Soul is the Atman, the Ruh, the Spirit that gives us breath till our death. The moment we realize that we are not the body, mind and ego, we are the Divine Soul, we experience that state of Eternal Bliss, living in Truth Consciousness. The bliss of the Soul overcomes the darkness of ignorance that causes the existence of the mind and ego and so, we are free from all misery. We realize that we have a body but we are not the body. Living in this Soul Consciousness, we experience Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Bliss.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 11: The Bliss Of The Soul | Page 79–80

Q. What is the role of enthusiasm, faith, hope and trust?

A. The simplest way of being happy is to live with enthusiasm. Enthusiasm comes from the Greek word Entheos, which means En – in and theos – God. What is FAITH? It is Full Assurance In The Heart. What is HOPE? It is Having Only Positive Expectations. What is TRUST? It is Total Reliance and Unconditional Surrender to the Almighty. When our life is full of faith and hope and trust, how can we be unhappy? We create an automatic defence mechanism against the mind that is creating toxic thoughts to steal our bliss. This shield is enthusiasm and this makes us happy.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 12: Enthusiasm, Faith, Hope, Trust | Page 81–82

Q. How does acceptance lead to happiness?

A. Life happens and we often have no control over what happens in life. Those who understand the Law of Karma and accept without protest, live a life of bliss and peace. We have two choices. Either we can accept what is happening in life and be peaceful and blissful or we can reject everything that is happening and live a life of disgruntlement and disappointment. If we discover that we have no option but to accept life because it is our own Karma returning to us, then, we will live with gratitude and count our blessings, rather than counting our troubles.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 13: Acceptance | Page 83–84

Q. How does surrender bring peace and joy?

A. A simple way to be happy and to live with bliss is to just surrender. The simple formula is ABC. First Accept, then do your Best and finally, Choose to surrender in Consciousness. Be aware that what is going to unfold is absolutely fair. Nobody can manipulate Karma. Our twin Karma, the combination of our past and present Karma will unfold moment by moment. Then, why worry about it and become unhappy? Why wonder what will happen and live with stress and anxiety? Why not just accept, do our best and surrender? This is the way to be happy.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 14: Surrender | Page 85–86

Q. Why is happiness true success?

A. Happiness is success. When we learn the art of being happy, we are already successful because we have achieved the very objective of success. You don't really need success to be happy but you need happiness to be a success. True success is being happy. If we don't learn the art of happiness, we are failures and we don't need success to be happy. Happiness is a state of being, not achieving. Happiness is like a shadow, the more you chase it, the further it goes away. Life is not a race but alas, we are caught in a chase! We forget the very purpose of our existence. It is to live with bliss, Eternal Happiness.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 15: Happiness Is Success | Page 87–88

THE EGO & THE SOUL

Q. What is the ego and how does it cause suffering?

A. The ego also steals our joy as it creates the 'I', 'me' and 'mine' that can destroy our state of peace and tranquillity. By constantly saying 'I', the ego lives with selfishness and pride. It creates greed that is far more than what we need. Then it destroys our bliss with anger, hate, revenge and jealousy. The combination of the mind and ego is enough to destroy our peace, our love and our bliss. Therefore, we must focus on eliminating the mind and ego, if we want to uproot all our miseries.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 10: Eliminating Misery And Sorrow | Page 78

Q. Who are we in reality?

A. The truth is that we all have peace deep within. The Soul is the Atman, the Ruh, the Spirit that gives us breath till our death. We are a Spark Of Unique Life. But because of our craving for pleasure to get ordinary happiness, we drift into that state of ignorance that causes desire and greed and steals our peace, which is what we actually need. If only we still the mind and enlighten the ego, we can realize that we are that Divine Soul that is birthless and deathless.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 11: The Bliss Of The Soul | Page 80

Q. What is the Mind-Ego ME and how does it trap us?

A. It is ME, the Mind and Ego that stops 'me' from being blissful by seeing the reflection in the mirror and thinking that this is 'ME'. Together the mind and ego, rob us of our peace by creating ignorance in which the body thinks, blinks and sinks. Unless we overcome ignorance, we will never reach that state of Eternal Peace. Our peace of mind will be stolen by our mind. Every burglar of peace, love and bliss is created by the mind and the ego, and all of this is because of ignorance.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 4: Overcoming Ignorance | Page 96

Q. What is the triple suffering of body, mind and ego?

A. Why do we become unhappy? It is because we suffer the triple suffering of the body, mind and ego. Who doesn't experience physical pain? We fall as we grow tall as we break our bones and ultimately, the body experiences decay and disease as it grows old. While we cannot escape physical pain, we can avoid suffering this pain. When we realize that we are not the body, then although there is pain, we don't become miserable again and again. This is only possible when we also realize that we are not the Mind and Ego, ME that creates all our misery.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 11: The Bliss Of The Soul | Page 79

Q. What is Self-Realization?

A. A small minority of humanity goes on a quest for the truth. They ask questions about themselves, about life, God and go to the bottom of the root till they realize the truth. What is the truth that we must discover? The truth is that we all have peace deep within. When we realize that I am not the body, mind and ego, I am the Divine Soul, then we are liberated from the triple suffering – the pain of the body, misery of the mind and agony of the ego. Self-Realization blesses us with pleasure and gives us peace and also makes miseries cease.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 5: Realizing The Truth | Page 98

Q. What happens when we realize we are not the body?

A. Enlightenment is to switch on the light and overcome darkness. It is to open our real eyes and realize, 'I am not this body that is suffering pain. This body was formed later over 9 months in my mother's womb. I was conceived 9 months before. This body may suffer physical pain but I am not the body. I have a body. This body will grow old and suffer. It will decay and be deceased. But I will not.' This Realization liberates us from immense pain and elevates us to enjoy pleasure at its peak.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 5: The Ultimate Peak Of Enlightenment | Page 67

Q. What is the SIP – Supreme Immortal Power?

A. We will realize that we are all Souls. We all come from SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power and the true love in our heart can never take us apart because in reality, we are one and love is Divine when it is yearning for each other as Divine Souls. God, the Supreme Immortal Power, SIP, manifests in every Soul, every Spark Of Unique Life. The Soul loves and is loved. That is why a dead body is incapable of love. As long as we don't understand that true love comes from the Soul, we will never discover that bliss, that Eternal Happiness.

Source: Part 2 – Love | Chapter 3: Ishq-e-Haqiqi, Agape, Mumukshutva | Page 39

Q. How does the ego create the 7 monsters?

A. When the mind activates the ego, it creates 7 more monsters of NEP. They are anger, hate, revenge, jealousy, pride, greed and selfishness. The ego also steals our joy as it creates the 'I', 'me' and 'mine' that can destroy our state of peace and tranquillity. Enlightenment is also the Realization that I am not the ego that becomes angry, that hates and that takes revenge and becomes jealous. Enlightenment creates a universal oneness and liberates us from demons, the monsters like pride, greed and selfishness.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 5: The Ultimate Peak Of Enlightenment | Page 68

Q. Can we kill the ego?

A. Unfortunately, we cannot kill the ego. But if we want to reach that state of Ananda, the state of Eternal Bliss, we have to enlighten the ego and realize who we truly are. We are not the body, mind and ego that suffers. We are the Divine Soul. With this Realization, the 7 monsters caused by the ego are eliminated. If we then eliminate the 7 miseries of the mind, we will altogether be free from the 14 primary joy-stealers of our life.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 10: Eliminating Misery And Sorrow | Page 78

Q. What is the difference between 'I am the Soul' and 'I am the ego'?

A. Our Mind and Ego, ME, own us. We are made to believe that we are the body, mind and ego. It makes us suffer on earth but it also creates Karma and imprisons us in the cycle of death and rebirth. When we still the mind, kill the mind and we experience that Awareness or Mindfulness known as Consciousness, we realize we are the Divine Soul. Once our Consciousness is locked by the intellect with the truth, then there is no door for the mind and its toxic thoughts to create ripples of misery in the still and peaceful lake within us.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 9: Satchitananda | Page 76

Q. What is Living As The Soul?

A. When we live as the Soul, we realize that we are not the body, mind and ego. We have a body but we are not the body. We live in Soul Consciousness. There is Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Bliss. The moment we realize that we are not the body, mind and ego, we are the Divine Soul, we experience that state of Eternal Bliss, living in Truth Consciousness. We understand that a computer needs hardware and software to function. But can you switch on a computer without power? It is dead. So also, there is a Power of the Soul that gives us life.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 8: Living As The Soul | Page 104

Q. What is Truth Consciousness?

A. In a voyage to discover happiness, the ultimate destination is that state of Eternal Bliss that comes from Truth Consciousness. If we are seeking that state of Ultimate Bliss, then we have to evolve and live in Truth Consciousness. In this state of Divine Peace, where there is no disturbance, every pleasure germinates and grows into bountiful happiness. But all this is only possible if we live in Truth Consciousness, in Sat Chit. Then, there is Ananda, Eternal Bliss.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 9: Satchitananda | Page 76

Q. How do we overcome ignorance?

A. How can we overcome ignorance? Ignorance can be overcome by intelligence and to activate the intellect, we have to flip from mind to Consciousness. We have to still the mind. When we still the mind, we reach the state of Consciousness. In the state of Consciousness, we can Realize the Truth. We must go on a quest. We need the help of a Realized Master. It is not so difficult to live with peace, to discover true love and to enjoy Eternal Bliss. But we must switch on the light and overcome the darkness of ignorance.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 4: Overcoming Ignorance | Page 97

Q. What is the goal — I am not the body, mind and ego?

A. I am not the body, the mind and the ego. Peace, love and bliss are not treasures that we will achieve after we go on a treasure hunt. They are the very essence of our existence. Every human being is given the gift of peace, the blessing of love and the grace of bliss. When we realize that I am not the body, mind and ego, I am the Divine Soul, then our goal is to enjoy every moment of life without suffering any misery and pain. We have to learn to be happy, again and again.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 6: I Am Not The Body, The Mind And The Ego | Page 100

Q. What is our ultimate goal?

A. Our Goal is to be Free from all Suffering on Earth. Our Goal is Liberation from the Cycle of Rebirth. Our Goal is to be Free from the Mind and Ego, ME. And become one with SIP, the Supreme Divine Energy. Once we have done our best, we must surrender the rest because then, it is no more in our control. The purpose of life is to realize who we truly are, the Divine Soul, and live in that state of Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Bliss.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 7: Our Ultimate Goal | Page 102

ENLIGHTENMENT & LIBERATION

Q. What is Enlightenment?

A. Enlightenment is a state of Bliss that we must Seek. It is Bliss and Happiness at its Peak! When one reaches the state of Enlightenment, one is Spiritually Awakened. One wakes up from slumber to realize, 'I am a Divine Soul, a Spark Of Unique Life, that knows no suffering.' Enlightenment is to switch on the light and overcome darkness. Those who live with achievement, enjoy pleasure. And those who climb to the second peak of fulfillment, enjoy peace. But all of them suffer. It is only one who climbs the peak of Enlightenment who is free from all suffering.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 5: The Ultimate Peak Of Enlightenment | Page 67–68

Q. What is Ananda and Nirvana?

A. The ultimate destination is that state of Eternal Bliss that comes from Truth Consciousness. Whether we are seeking peace or love or bliss, ultimately, it is only one thing, happiness. When one reaches that peak of Eternal Bliss, of Everlasting Happiness, only then can we enjoy that state of ecstasy known as Ananda. And this state is attained when we realize who we are and we live in Truth Consciousness. There is a state of Nirvana, of Ananda, which is experienced when we are in pure Consciousness. In this state, we still the mind, we kill the mind and we experience that Awareness or Mindfulness known as Consciousness.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 9: Satchitananda | Page 75–76

Q. Why do we go on a quest?

A. Happiness is a Treasure Hunt, go on a Quest. Don't cling to your Beliefs, put them to Test. It is unfortunate that we live with the myth that we grow up with. We don't go on a quest to put our ignorance to rest. We live a life of darkness and we try to use a broom to sweep away the darkness from the room. We need light, the light of truth. Unless we search, we will continue to try to find God in a temple or church. It is the quest for happiness, for peace, love and bliss that will take us from achievement through fulfillment to that ultimate peak of Enlightenment where there is Eternal Bliss, Divine Love and Everlasting Peace.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 2: Go On A Quest | Page 92–93

Q. What is the need for a Guru?

A. The word Guru comes from the words, Gu, darkness and Ru, light. A Guru is one who takes us from misery or darkness to bliss or light. The Guru shows us the path that will make our life right. It is a Guru who will not only teach us how to experience bliss and how to be free from the triple suffering of the body, mind and ego on earth but also how to be free from the cycle of death and rebirth. Do you have a Guru? When the right Master you find, you will learn to tame your monkey mind. You will leave all miseries behind as you march forward in the journey of Purification and Illumination, of Realization and Liberation.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 3: Need Of A Guru | Page 94–95

Q. What is it truly a choice to live with peace, love and bliss?

A. It is a choice. We have to choose peace. Peace is not a gift from God. Peace is a Divine blessing to each one of us. Just as we can choose peace, we can choose love. But for this, we have to throw hate out of the gate. Can we choose to be happy? Of course! Happiness is something we should never lose because it is a gift we can choose. We must choose peace, love and bliss. We must not lose our life to stress and anxiety, hate and discord, misery and sorrow. Life is a short journey and if we want to make this journey beautiful, we must choose to live it, moment by moment.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 1: It Is A Choice | Page 90–91

Q. What is Realizing the Truth?

A. Peace, love and bliss are not treasures that we will achieve after we go on a treasure hunt. They are the very essence of our existence. Every human being is given the gift of peace, the blessing of love and the grace of bliss. Why then, don't we have all this in our life? Why are these powerful happiness boosters missing? It is only because we do not get to the root and discover the truth. What is the truth that we must discover? The truth is that we all have peace deep within. We lose our peace of mind because of the miseries caused by the mind.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 5: Realizing The Truth | Page 98

Q. What does 'There is Eternal Bliss in Truth Consciousness' mean?

A. When we reach that state of Truth Consciousness, we will experience Ananda, that state of Nirvana that knows no sorrow. We human beings are slaves of the mind. The mind makes us blind and we are enveloped in a blanket of ignorance. But when we are in Truth Consciousness, in that state of Sat Chit, we are not under the spell of the Mind and Ego, ME. We are conscious of the truth. We realize that we are not the body, mind and ego that suffers. We realize that we are the Divine Soul. Living in this Truth Consciousness, we achieve the goal of Ultimate Happiness.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 9: There Is Eternal Bliss In Truth Consciousness | Page 106

Q. What is the Happiness Secret?

A. We all have a choice to choose tranquillity or fill our life with anxiety. We can experience Divine Love or live with heartaches and heartbreaks. We can choose Bliss or open our door to unhappiness. We can choose to be Happy. It's a choice. The happiness secret is this — Peace is the foundation of Happiness. When there is Peace and Love, there is Bliss. The formula for Happiness is Peace, Love and Bliss. This is the way to Eternal Happiness.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 12: The Happiness Secret | Page 112

Q. What is making a vow to be happy now?

A. If we can be happy now and repeat this moment after moment, we can be happy throughout our life, for moments create minutes and hours that create days, weeks and months. All we must do to make our life blissful is to make our moment peaceful. To be happy all the time, our first challenge is to be happy, now. Happiness is neither the journey nor the destination. Happiness is about the 'now'. If we make a vow to be happy in the now, then our life can be wow!

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 11: Make A Vow, To Be Happy Now | Page 110

Q. Why do we need to live in the present moment?

A. We must learn to live in the present moment, not shuttle from yesterday to tomorrow. The monkey mind jumps to a 'yesterday' that is gone and then, to a 'tomorrow' not yet born. It robs us of our present moment and steals our pleasure, our joy. It goes to the past and creates regret, shame and guilt and then it goes to the future and creates fear, worry, stress and anxiety. To be happy and to enjoy peace, we must learn to live life, moment by moment. We must make a vow that we will be happy now.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 7: Peace | Page 72

Q. What is freedom from the cycle of death and rebirth?

A. The moment the Mind and Ego, ME, is dead and we live as the Soul, we will be free from the cycle of death and rebirth. It is a Guru who will not only teach us how to experience bliss and how to be free from the triple suffering of the body, mind and ego on earth but also how to be free from the cycle of death and rebirth. Our goal is to realize who we truly are, the Divine Soul, and live in that state of Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Bliss. Then, we will not be reborn.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 3: Need Of A Guru | Page 95

Q. What is the formula for Eternal Happiness?

A. There is a formula for Eternal Happiness. If there is Peace and Love, there will be Bliss. We all want Peace, Love and Bliss but there can be no Happiness if there is no Peace. If we want to be truly Happy, we need Love. The formula for Happiness is thus, Peace, Love and Bliss. This is the way to Eternal Happiness. People think that life will have both sun and rain. We must experience pleasure and pain. Everybody has loss and gain. But very few people are blessed. They discover the art of being Happy again and again.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Preface | Page 4

Q. What does Ananda, Nirvana mean in terms of liberation?

A. Ananda, Nirvana is that state of bliss that is experienced when we are in pure Consciousness. In this state, we still the mind, we kill the mind and we experience that Awareness or Mindfulness known as Consciousness. Once our Consciousness is locked by the intellect with the truth, then there is no door for the mind and its toxic thoughts to create ripples of misery in the still and peaceful lake within us. In this state of Divine Peace, where there is no disturbance, every pleasure germinates and grows into bountiful happiness.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 10: Ananda, Nirvana | Page 108

Q. What is the purpose of human life?

A. While we have been given this human birth for Enlightenment, for using our intellect and realizing the truth, it is unfortunate that most of us just live and die, and we do not realize the truth of 'Who am I?' The purpose of life is to discover the purpose of life. Once we realize 'I am not this body, mind and ego. I am That, the Soul,' then our goal is to enjoy every moment of life without suffering any misery and pain. We have to learn to be happy, again and again.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 8: Purpose | Page 73–74

Q. What does the book's message ultimately teach us?

A. Do you want to transform your life? Do you want to live with Peace, Love and Bliss? In your hands is a treasure, a treasure greater than any pleasure. In your hands is a secret that is not some theory but a way lived by many that guarantees Happiness every day. Yes, there is a way. You will learn to accept life gracefully as you live peacefully. You will discover your true identity and not only be free from all suffering on earth but you will discover a way that will liberate you from the cycle of death and rebirth. When you discover the truth of, 'Who am I?' you will fly in the sky with ecstasy and joy.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Introduction | Page 7

KARMA & REBIRTH

Q. What is the Law of Karma?

A. The world is governed by certain universal laws. Everything is controlled by Karma, the Law of Action and Reaction. This law is based on the principle, 'As you sow, so shall you reap.' Therefore, whatever is happening in our life is nothing but a reaction of our own action. Those who understand Karma and accept it, live joyously because they understand that it's their Karma. They live with acceptance and in fact not only do they accept but they also joyously welcome whatever happens in life.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 13: Acceptance | Page 83–84

Q. Why do bad things happen to good people?

A. If we continue to live with ignorance, without understanding Karma, we will always question why bad things happen to good people and we will live with self-pity and choose misery and unhappiness to fill our life. Whatever is going to happen in your life or my life tomorrow, is going to be as per twin Karma, the Karma we have already done in the past and the Karma we are doing in the present. Because what is happening in our life today, may be a result of actions done decades ago, which we have forgotten. It could even be the result of our previous life.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 14: Surrender | Page 86

Q. What carries Karma into our next life?

A. We must seize the opportunity of finding the right Guru, the right Master. Otherwise, life will escape us and one day, we will be gone, only to be reborn. The Mind and Ego, ME, will be reborn because as long as ME exists, we cannot escape rebirth. ME will imprison us in ignorance. It will create desires and passions and thus, we become prisoners of pleasure, people and possessions. Unless we kill our Mind, still our Mind, transcend our Ego and let go of it, we cannot escape Karma and rebirth.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 3: Need Of A Guru | Page 95

Q. How does Karma control our destiny?

A. Life is a drama and we are actors, who come on the earth stage based on our Karma. Ultimately, this is a show. Everybody has to go. But those who understand Karma, enjoy the drama and they overcome all trauma because they accept, accept and accept. What we do today is the seed that we are planting for a better tomorrow. Just like the seeds we plant decide the fruit on the tree, our deeds will decide our destiny. These deeds may be deeds of the past, which we cannot change or deeds of the present, which we can.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 13: Acceptance | Page 84

Q. Can we escape the cycle of rebirth?

A. The moment the Mind and Ego, ME is dissolved and we live as the Soul, we will be free from the cycle of death and rebirth. Unless we discover that life flows from the Divine that dwells in the temple of our heart, in our Soul, we cannot discover true love. Unless we realize that the kingdom of God is within, we will not experience that Divine Love. But once we live as the Soul, we will not be reborn. We will experience that state of Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Bliss.

Q. What is acceptance in the context of Karma?

A. Life happens and we often have no control over what happens in life. Many of us don't accept. We protest. We cry. We look at the sky and question, 'Why?' We don't realize that life is a drama, that everything is unfolding as per Karma. Therefore, there is trauma. Those who understand the Law of Karma and accept without protest, live a life of bliss and peace. If we discover that we have no option but to accept life because it is our own Karma returning to us, then, we will live with gratitude and count our blessings, rather than counting our troubles.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 13: Acceptance | Page 83

Q. What is the role of surrender in dealing with Karma?

A. Whatever will be, will be. Whatever is going to happen in your life or my life tomorrow, is going to be as per twin Karma, the Karma we have already done in the past and the Karma we are doing in the present. When we understand that we cannot change our past Karma, we accept whatever is happening. However, we must understand that we can choose our present Karma. Therefore, instead of worrying and wondering, we must do our best. Once we have done our best, we must surrender the rest because then, it is no more in our control.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 14: Surrender | Page 85

Q. How do past Karma determine our present life?

A. Every time somebody is born, they carry with them, the unsettled Karma of their past life. That is why sometimes, a child is born blind or with certain challenges. It is not because God is not kind. It is because the ME, the Mind and Ego has carried its Karma into a new birth on earth. The Law of Karma is impeccable. Nobody can manipulate Karma. Our twin Karma, the combination of our past and present Karma, will unfold moment by moment in this life.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 14: Surrender | Page 86

Q. What is the connection between prayer and Karma?

A. Many of us grow in life believing in the lie that God lives in the sky. We live with fear and believe that one day, after we die, we will go to heaven or hell. We don't realize the simple truth that heaven and hell are right here on earth and we experience these in the way we take birth. We think that just by praying, we will be forgiven for our bad Karma. Of course, prayer itself is good Karma but we can do more than just pray. We can do our best and surrender the rest, as we fold our hands and accept the Divine law unfolding.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 14: Surrender | Page 86

Q. Does good Karma free us from rebirth?

A. Whether it is good or bad Karma, we are caught in the cycle of transmigration, the cycle of death and rebirth. Good Karma will not free us from the cycle of rebirth. To truly be free from rebirth, we have to defeat the Mind and dissolve the Ego, and when there is no ME, then there will be no Karma and rebirth. This state is known as Mukti or Freedom, Moksha, Nirvana or Salvation. In such a state, the Mind is dead. It is defeated. The Ego is enlightened.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 5: The Ultimate Peak Of Enlightenment | Page 68

Q. What is heaven and hell in terms of Karma?

A. Heaven and hell are right here on earth and we experience these in the way we take birth. Then, we either live in heaven or we live in hell and this depends upon Karma, our own deeds. If our life is full of peace, love and bliss, we are in heaven. If our life is filled with fear, stress, anxiety and misery, we are in hell. We can choose. It is our Karma that determines whether we live in heaven or hell right here on earth.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 14: Surrender | Page 86

Q. How does Karma relate to our daily actions?

A. What we do today is the seed that we are planting for a better tomorrow. Just like the seeds we plant decide the fruit on the tree, our deeds will decide our destiny. These deeds may be deeds of the past, which we cannot change or deeds of the present, which we can. Can we do anything about our past deeds? Then why regret? Why not accept? Once we accept, we can do our best. This is the best way to live and to be happy.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 13: Acceptance | Page 84

Q. Is our destiny pre-determined by Karma?

A. Our destiny is not a matter of chance. It is our choice. Whatever is going to happen in your life or my life tomorrow, is going to be as per twin Karma, the Karma we have already done in the past and the Karma we are doing in the present. The simple formula is ABC. First Accept, then do your Best and finally, Choose to surrender in Consciousness. Be aware that what is going to unfold is absolutely fair. Nobody can manipulate Karma.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 14: Surrender | Page 85

Q. What is the connection between Karma and the mind?

A. The mind causes us to suffer on earth and it is also the cause of our repeated rebirth. The mind and ego together create our Karma. Unless we still the mind, kill the mind and transcend the Ego, we can never be free from Karma and never achieve the ultimate goal of Liberation. It all starts with the Mind. If we are able to live in Consciousness, there will be no Mind or Ego. There is no Karma. And without Karma, there is no rebirth.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 7: Our Ultimate Goal | Page 102

Q. Why must we understand Karma to be at peace?

A. Those who understand Karma and accept it, live joyously because they understand that it's their Karma. They live with acceptance and in fact not only do they accept but they also joyously welcome whatever happens in life. Whether it seems to be, good or bad, they remain glad and are never sad. They just continue to live doing the best they can. This is the best way to live and to be happy. When we understand Karma, we stop resisting life and start flowing with it in peace.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 13: Acceptance | Page 84

FEAR, WORRY & ANXIETY

Q. What is fear?

A. The mind causes FEAR. Fear is a False Expectation Appearing Real. There is actually no danger but fearful thoughts take command of our life and so, we are filled with strife. These poisonous thoughts make the monster look much bigger than it is! The mind will listen to a little whistling sound of an insect and imagine it to be a deadly reptile that will kill us. Recently, the fear of COVID proved to be far deadlier than COVID itself. Far more damage was caused by the fear of COVID than by the virus itself. When we eliminate the mind and its toxic thoughts, we can eliminate fear.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 19

Q. What is worry?

A. The mind causes us to worry. What is WORRY? It is W – Waste of Life, O – Overthinking, R – Repeating the Problem, R – Rehearsing the Fear, Y – Yearning of the Mind. What causes worry? It is the toxic thoughts of the mind and if we eliminate these toxic thoughts, if we can still the mind, we will be free from worry and peace, we will find.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 19

Q. What is stress?

A. The mind causes stress. What is STRESS — Sad, Toxic, Repetitive, Exhausting, Sadistic and Suffocating thoughts. Just imagine all these thoughts in our head. Is there any doubt that we will lose our peace and soon be dead? The mind causes anxiety by constantly bombarding us with these poisonous thoughts. These thoughts suck away our tranquillity and replace it with anxiety.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 20

Q. Why is there no need to worry?

A. Think about it — when there is no problem, there is no need to worry. And when there is a problem, even then, there is no need to worry, because if we can do something about the problem, then why worry? And if we can't do anything about the problem, it is useless to worry. Then why are we worrying? Ignorance! Unless we overcome ignorance, our peace, our love and our bliss will be in the bin. We will never win a life of Eternal Happiness.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 4: Overcoming Ignorance | Page 97

Q. How does the mind create anxiety?

A. Our Mind bombards us with up to 50 thoughts a minute. It does not stop. It produces thousands of thoughts every hour and these thoughts produce stress. Thought after thought, we become worried and anxious. These aggressive thoughts of the Mind create anxiety attacks and ultimately, lead us into a state of depression. The mind causes anxiety by constantly bombarding us with these poisonous thoughts. These thoughts suck away our tranquillity and replace it with anxiety.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 20

Q. What is the mind's relationship with regret and the past?

A. The mind also causes regret. In reality, we cannot go to the past. But the mind can! It goes back to a yesterday that is gone and fills us with thoughts of regret and this goes on and on. Those who are able to live in the present moment, live free of guilt because the past is gone. Nothing can change it. So, they move on. The toxic thoughts of the mind play a game and create shame. Shame is needless because the situation is done and dusted. Why feel ashamed of what can't be changed?

But the mind wants to create toxic thoughts and make us suffer.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 20

Q. How does the mind create fear of the future?

A. Then, the mind jumps to a tomorrow and creates stress, worry and anxiety. Immediately, any peace that we enjoy will cease because of our own mind. While nobody can go to a yesterday and tomorrow, the mind can. It goes to the past and creates regret, shame and guilt with its thoughts that nurse, curse and rehearse the incidents and wrongs of the past. We lose our peace. Then the mind jumps to tomorrow and creates stress, worry and anxiety.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 3: Where There Is Mind, There Is No Peace! | Page 14

Q. What is the danger of Rotten-thought-itis?

A. What is the cause of all diseases in the world today? What is the reason for so many mental illnesses? The world today, is filled with psychiatrists because more dangerous than hepatitis and tuberculosis, is the dangerous disease called Rotten-thought-itis. Rotten thoughts come from NEP. When the mind activates the ego, it creates 7 more monsters of NEP. They are anger, hate, revenge, jealousy, pride, greed and selfishness.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 10: From NEP To PEP | Page 27

Q. Can fear be completely eliminated?

A. When we eliminate the mind and its toxic thoughts, we can eliminate fear. Fear is a False Expectation Appearing Real. Fears are not dangers. But ignorance makes us fear. When we still the mind, in that state of Consciousness, the intellect activates and can intercept the toxic thoughts of fear. The intellect uses the power of reason and logic to discriminate and shoots down unnecessary fear and stress. When we flip from NEP to PEP and choose positive emotions like faith and courage over fear, fear gradually dissolves.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 19

Q. How is depression caused by the mind?

A. The mind produces the 7 deadly miseries that can lead us into depression and sometimes, even suicide! The moment there are toxic thoughts, one finds that his or her life is in doubt. The mind creates so many toxic thoughts. It makes us fear and worry as we become stressed and anxious. Ultimately, the stress created by the mind burns away our peace and bliss. Then, the mind makes us WORRY — Waste of life, Overthinking, Rehearsing the fear, Repeating the problem and Yearning. All of this creates anxiety and eventually, depression.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 19–20

Q. How do we overcome fear and anxiety?

A. We must flip from NEP to PEP. If we choose faith, hope, trust and enthusiasm and add to these, emotions of courage, confidence, love, joy, peace, forgiveness, compassion and optimism, these will become positive raw materials that will create positive thoughts. In Consciousness, we can activate our intellect and choose PEP over NEP. Where there is NEP, there can be no peace and where there is PEP, all miseries will cease.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 10: From NEP To PEP | Page 28

Q. What is guilt and how does the mind create it?

A. The mind also causes guilt. Toxic thoughts are the foundation on which, our misery is built. Those who are able to live in the present moment, live free of guilt because the past is gone. Nothing can change it. So, they move on. The toxic thoughts of the mind play a game and create shame. Shame is needless because the situation is done and dusted. Why feel ashamed of what can't be changed? But the mind wants to create toxic thoughts and make us suffer.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 6: Toxic Thoughts Of The Mind | Page 20

Q. Why do we create unnecessary fear in our mind?

A. Fear is a False Expectation Appearing Real. There is actually no danger but fearful thoughts take command of our life and so, we are filled with strife. These poisonous thoughts make the monster look much bigger than it is! The mind will listen to a little whistling sound of an insect and imagine it to be a deadly reptile that will kill us. Unless we discover the truth of the mind, peace we will never be able to find. Therefore, we must still the mind so that fear dissolves.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 4: Overcoming Ignorance | Page 96

Q. How does Consciousness eliminate fear?

A. In Consciousness, there is no Mind, there is no anxiety. In this stillness, there is Peace and Bliss, Joy and Tranquillity. In Consciousness, when we are not bombarded by negative thoughts anymore, we are at peace. With an active intellect, man can choose peace and tranquillity over stress, worry and anxiety. The intellect which is activated in Consciousness can intercept these toxic thoughts and through discrimination, eliminate this negative contamination. This is sure to guarantee peace over fear.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 8: The State Of Consciousness | Page 23

Q. What is the connection between the monkey mind and anxiety?

A. Just like a wild monkey that jumps from here to there, that seeks this and that, that grabs everything it can, the mind too is a monkey! It jumps to a 'yesterday' that is gone and then to a 'tomorrow' that is not yet born. It makes us regret and feel guilty with shame. Then, the monkey mind jumps to a tomorrow. It causes fear and worry. It fills us with stress and anxiety and it destroys our tranquillity. If we want peace, we have to still the monkey mind.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 11: Making The Monkey Mind, A Monk | Page 29

MEDITATION & CONSCIOUSNESS

Q. What is true meditation?

A. The whole world is trying to find a way to still the mind and find peace. The subject of meditation has become both a fashion statement and a popular solution to the stress and anxiety of this modern world. People are selling 'solutions' on the internet through apps, music and even Yoga. They have made all this into some mystical secret that will give us Eternal Peace. Unfortunately, we have not discovered the simple truth. If only we still the mind, peace, we can find. The mind is not outside of us. Therefore, whatever we do, the 'Peace Solution' lies within each one of us.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 2: How To Find Peace Of Mind | Page 12

Q. How do we move from mind to Consciousness?

A. How can we flip over from the state of mind to Consciousness? It is by becoming aware of our mind, a mind, which we cannot find! But still, as the mind bombards us with thoughts, we become blind to the truth. When we become conscious of these toxic thoughts of the mind and we make an effort to be in silence, to become the witness and to observe these poisonous thoughts that appear as the mind, we automatically move to a state of Consciousness. This is a simple method of being in Awareness.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 7: From Thoughts To Thoughtlessness | Page 22

Q. What is Mindfulness and Awareness?

A. People often talk of Mindfulness. It is becoming mindful of what we are thinking. Some people call it Awareness. This is a state better referred to as Consciousness. All these words mean the same thing. When we are able to move from thoughts to thoughtlessness, we reach that state of Mindfulness, Awareness or Consciousness. In this state, there is no mind, there are only thoughts. The mind ceases to exist because it is no more shooting those 50 toxic thoughts every minute.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 7: From Thoughts To Thoughtlessness | Page 21

Q. What happens in the state of Consciousness?

A. It is a state of Eternal Bliss and Peace. It is a state of Everlasting Happiness. Whatever thoughts appear in our Consciousness, are subject to discrimination by the intellect. In Consciousness, thoughts don't pour like rain. The Mind Killer 50 becomes one thought at a time when we are in a state of Consciousness. Consciousness guarantees peace because Consciousness is a state of 'no mind'. It is the mind that robs our peace of mind and so, obviously, in Consciousness peace will flow like a river.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 8: The State Of Consciousness | Page 23–24

Q. How do we still the mind in practice?

A. If we want to kill the Mind, then there is a way. We have to still it! The moment we still the Mind, there are no thoughts and then there is no Mind. Every time we still the Mind, the Mind disappears and we reach a state of Consciousness. We can be in this state of Consciousness, by becoming aware of our mind, making an effort to be in silence, to become the witness and to observe these poisonous thoughts that appear as the mind. This is a simple method of being in Awareness.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 7: From Thoughts To Thoughtlessness | Page 22

Q. What is the role of silence in reaching Consciousness?

A. Thoughts come uninvited. They don't knock at the door. But once they enter, they push us on the floor. If we are in Awareness, we can push them out and shut the door. Then we can remain in that state of thoughtlessness and enjoy peace. It is a choice — thoughts or Thoughtlessness, mind or Consciousness and it's not easy. The mind wants to attack us, for that is the only way it can ensure its existence. In Thoughtlessness, there is no mind but there is peace. We have to choose.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 7: From Thoughts To Thoughtlessness | Page 22

Q. How does Consciousness activate the intellect?

A. The challenge in our life is the contamination caused by the mind. When we reach that state of Consciousness, then in that thoughtlessness, there is no mind. There are no desires and passions and we are free from ignorance. In a mind state, there is no Consciousness. But in the state of Consciousness, when there is no mind, the intellect shines. The intellect is man's greatest gift. It is the tool of discrimination. It can decipher black from white and what is wrong from what is right.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 9: The Intellect And Peace | Page 25

Q. What is the difference between mind state and Consciousness?

A. When we are not bombarded by thoughts anymore and we are in a state of Peace and Happiness, we can be aware that we are in a state of Consciousness. Our greatest challenge is to flip over from Mind to Consciousness. In a mind state, there is no Consciousness. But in the state of Consciousness, when there is no mind, the intellect shines. Consciousness guarantees peace because Consciousness is a state of 'no mind'. It is the mind that robs our peace of mind and so, in Consciousness peace will flow.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 8: The State Of Consciousness | Page 24

Q. Is it possible to be in Consciousness always?

A. It is not always easy to remain in a state of Consciousness. But we have a choice. If we let the mind take charge of our life, its nature is to create misery, ignorance, negativity and desires. But if we choose to still the mind, we kill the mind. In Consciousness, there are no poisonous thoughts. However, even if we do this, the game is still not over! The mind is a monkey. We have to activate our intellect in the state of Consciousness to block the mind and lock the mind.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 8: The State Of Consciousness | Page 24

Q. How does Consciousness guarantee Eternal Bliss?

A. In this state of Divine Peace, where there is no disturbance, every pleasure germinates and grows into bountiful happiness. But all this is only possible if we live in Truth Consciousness, in Sat Chit. Then, there is Ananda, Eternal Bliss. When we are in Truth Consciousness, in that state of Sat Chit, we are not under the spell of the Mind and Ego, ME. We are conscious of the truth. We realize that we are not the body, mind and ego that suffers. We realize that we are the Divine Soul.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 9: Satchitananda | Page 76

Q. What is the Happiness Secret in terms of Consciousness?

A. The Happiness Secret is to live in Consciousness and flip from NEP to PEP. In the state of Consciousness, the intellect shines and we can choose positive thoughts over negative ones. Thus, we can eliminate NEP, emotions that create Negative Energy Poison and live with PEP, emotions that will boost Positive Energy Power. When we flip from mind to Consciousness and choose these positive emotions over negative emotions, just as we choose peace and tranquillity over worry, stress and anxiety, we experience Eternal Happiness.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 2: Is There A Way To Eternal Bliss? | Page 62

Q. What is Soul Consciousness?

A. When we live in Soul Consciousness, we experience Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Bliss. The Soul is the Atman, the Ruh, the Spirit that gives us breath till our death. The bliss of the Soul overcomes the darkness of ignorance that causes the existence of the mind and ego and so, we are free from all misery. We realize that we have a body but we are not the body. Living in this Soul Consciousness, we experience Eternal Peace, Divine Love and Everlasting Bliss.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 11: The Bliss Of The Soul | Page 80

Q. How does deep sleep mirror Consciousness?

A. Have you ever experienced a state of deep sleep when there was no dream? We wake up from such a sleep and say, 'I slept like a log!' We experience deep Peace and Bliss in that sleep that is dreamless. But this is not common because the mind is a rascal. Every once in a while, our Mind permits us to sleep without a dream. Then, we wake up and say, 'I slept like a log!' We experience deep Peace and Bliss. This is similar to the state of Consciousness where the mind is absent.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 4: What Is The Mind? | Page 15

Q. Why is Consciousness the goal for peace lovers?

A. Therefore, those who want peace, must seek to be in Consciousness more than anything else. Consciousness guarantees peace because Consciousness is a state of 'no mind'. It is the mind that robs our peace of mind and so, obviously, in Consciousness peace will flow like a river and we will enjoy that state of Eternal Happiness. However, thoughts exist in Consciousness and if we are not fully aware, these thoughts can quickly accumulate and become the mind.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 8: The State Of Consciousness | Page 24

Q. How does one live 'moment by moment' in Consciousness?

A. We must learn to live in the present moment, not shuttle from yesterday to tomorrow. If we can be happy now and repeat this moment after moment, we can be happy throughout our life, for moments create minutes and hours that create days, weeks and months. All we must do to make our life blissful is to make our moment peaceful. Happiness is about the 'now'. If we make a vow to be happy in the now, then our life can be wow! We can live a life where there is no misery and sorrow.

GRATITUDE & CONTENTMENT

Q. What is the relationship between contentment and happiness?

A. Those who stop chasing their passions and are fulfilled satisfying their need, they attain a state of bliss that is built on the foundation of peace. They are happy fulfilling their need and they don't let their need become greed. We all have basic needs. But while food is a need, pizza is a want. When we have too many wants, desires and passions and when these are unfulfilled, we become unhappy. Far greater than wanting success and achievement, is to count our blessings, and live with contentment and fulfillment. These 'happy' ones evolve from pleasure to peace.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 4: From Achievement To Fulfillment | Page 65

Q. Why is gratitude key to happiness?

A. If we discover that we have no option but to accept life because it is our own Karma returning to us, then, we will live with gratitude and count our blessings, rather than counting our troubles. Those who understand Karma and accept it, live joyously. They just continue to live doing the best they can. Those who count their blessings, smile all the while. Discover the art of gratitude and life will transform. We will be free from misery and sorrow as we count our blessings instead of our problems.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 13: Acceptance | Page 83–84

Q. Why must we not let need become greed?

A. We all have basic needs. If we don't get air for 3 minutes, we will die. Without water, we can last for 3 days. And we can survive without food for 3 weeks. These are needs. But while food is a need, pizza is a want. When we have too many wants, desires and passions and when these are unfulfilled, we become unhappy. The monkey mind is Ever-Yearning, 'I want this, and I want that!' Does the mind ever stop its desires? The desires of the mind only become passions, even obsessions, only to steal our peace and tranquillity.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 4: From Achievement To Fulfillment | Page 65

Q. What does the story of Tom the fisherman teach us?

A. Tom was a fisherman and Robert was his boss. The millionaire Robert once decided to motivate Tom, 'Why don't you work harder and become rich? Then you can appoint a team, buy a fleet of boats, a yacht and a mansion.' 'Why?' questioned Tom. Robert replied, 'So that you can be happy.' Tom laughed and quizzed, 'Why go through that when I am already happy?' True happiness does not always require more success. Those who are content and fulfilled are already happy without the race for more.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 3: Success Is Not Happiness | Page 64

Q. How does enthusiasm create happiness?

A. A person who has enthusiasm, is happy. Such a person is upbeat about life and appears to be gung-ho, despite the circumstances of life. The power of enthusiasm is such that it can withstand any toxic emotion. Though there is an assault of fear, worry, stress and anxiety, enthusiasm braces these enemies and moves forward with a smile. Enthusiasm creates optimism. It spreads courage and confidence and continues to help us keep a smile in the toughest of times. Therefore, those who have enthusiasm are happy.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 12: Enthusiasm, Faith, Hope, Trust | Page 82

Q. What is the secret of Charlie's happiness despite cancer?

A. Charlie was a simple man. He had a humble job and earned enough to take care of his family. He spent his time and money in serving others, as this made him happy. One day, the doctor told him that he had cancer. His enthusiasm did not let him suffer the disease and lose his smile and laughter. Nobody knew that Charlie was suffering from the disease till he died, several years later. Charlie lived with enthusiasm. He knew the secret of life and he had chosen to have faith and hope. Even cancer could not steal his happiness. Such is the power of enthusiasm.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 12: Enthusiasm, Faith, Hope, Trust | Page 82

Q. How does counting blessings change our life?

A. Those who are happy are not controlled by their greed. They achieve enough to fulfil their need. But what is important is that they are happy. They count their blessings and this is the key to be happy, to be successful. Haven't we seen people who count their blessings, smile all the while? Then, why don't we learn to smile? Those who discover that far greater than pleasure is peace, and choose to count their blessings, are the ones who evolve from pleasure to peace.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 15: Happiness Is Success | Page 88

Q. Why do the simple things in life give us peace?

A. We all experience the bliss and happiness that comes from being in a state of peace and tranquillity. It may be watching a beautiful sunrise or sunset or playing with our pet dog that is wagging its tail or watching a little bird sing a song. We all experience moments of bliss in nothingness. In this state of peace, all our sorrows cease and this results in a state of Eternal Bliss. How can such simple things make us happy? Because these give us peace and peace is the very foundation of happiness.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 1: Why Do We Seek Peace? | Page 10

Q. What is a Happiness Card and how does it help?

A. In my first book on happiness, I asked people to create their 'Happiness Card'. It was a simple card that had a list of, 'What makes me happy?' Each of us may have different pleasures that create happiness. For one, it may be a nap. For somebody else, a long drive and for another, it could be silence or a cup of coffee. To enjoy the pleasure and be happy, one should list the 10 things that make us happy. Then, we should make it a habit to read our Happiness Card every day. We should make it a ritual to pull some of these happiness triggers regularly.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 6: Pleasure | Page 69–70

Q. Why is happiness our birthright?

A. Who doesn't want to be happy? Who wants to be sad? Who doesn't enjoy pleasure? It is normal and natural to enjoy pleasure and we must. Happiness is our birthright. Sometimes, some theology or philosophy, some religion or scripture advocates that pleasure is harmful. This is a lie, just like another lie that God lives in the sky. It is our right to smile, not to cry. So, let's learn to enjoy pleasure like a treasure! We all have a choice to choose tranquillity or fill our life with anxiety. We can choose Bliss or open our door to unhappiness.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 6: Pleasure | Page 70

Q. What does it mean to live with grace instead of being in the rat race?

A. Are you seeking peace and tranquillity? Are you seeking Eternal Happiness? If yes, then stop your chase and get out of the maze. Learn to live with grace. Life is not about accumulating wealth, which will ultimately make you lose your health. Life is about being happy and to be happy, you need peace. All we must do to make our life blissful is to make our moment peaceful. We are all running a race. We are trying to be an ace. We are so busy in this chase that we forget to enjoy this journey called life.

Source: Part 1 – Peace | Chapter 12: Peace Is The Foundation Of Happiness | Page 32

Q. What is the gift of life and why must we not waste it?

A. Life is a gift. It is a limited resource and soon, this journey will be over. At the end of this journey, what ultimately matters is, not what we collected or what we will leave behind. What matters is, did we live with bliss, peace and love? Were we happy every moment of our life? Did we truly live or did we just exist, fighting through the unnecessary battles of life that really don't matter? What matters is to be happy, blissful and peaceful. What matters is to overcome misery and sorrow.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 15: Happiness Is Success | Page 88

Q. How does fulfillment differ from material success?

A. What is FULFILLMENT? F – Being Fully Content, U – Having A Universal Connection, L – Living with Love and Laughter, F – Having Faith and Hope, I – Living with Inspiration and Enthusiasm, L – Liberation and Freedom, L – Living with Meaning and Purpose, M – Making a Difference, E – Emotionally Positive, N – Noteworthy Success, T – Tranquillity and Peace. The happiness that comes from the fulfillment journey is far more blissful and peaceful than pleasure that comes from the achievement journey.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 4: From Achievement To Fulfillment | Page 66

Q. Why do we run from yesterday to tomorrow and miss the present?

A. We are all running a race. We are trying to be an ace. We are so busy in this chase that we forget to enjoy this journey called life. We are caught in a maze and soon, life is over! Our glass of life is empty and our glass of success, money and wealth is full. But what can we do with it now? We have lost our health and we have made so much wealth. What we earn, others will burn and we will miss that opportunity of enjoying this beautiful life in that state of Eternal Bliss. Running after success, our life is filled with fear, stress and anxiety.

Source: Part 3 – Bliss | Chapter 3: Success Is Not Happiness | Page 64

Q. What is the importance of living in the 'now'?

A. Happiness is not a journey, it's not a destination. Happiness is about the 'now'. If we make a vow to be happy in the now, then our life can be wow! To be happy all the time, our first challenge is to be happy, now. If we can be happy now and repeat this moment after moment, we can be happy throughout our life, for moments create minutes and hours that create days, weeks and months. All we must do to make our life blissful is to make our moment peaceful.

Source: Part 4 – How to Live with Peace, Love and Bliss | Chapter 11: Make A Vow, To Be Happy Now | Page 110