

Poems for Life

TOPIC 1: PEACE

Q: What is peace and where can it be found?

A: We are all seeking Happiness when all we want is Peace. When we turn within, we will find it and our stress and worry will cease. Peace is an inner thing. It is a state of Mind. If we can only be quiet, this treasure we will find.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 93

Q: Why do we lose our peace of mind?

A: There is a Monkey within that jumps from thought to thought. Our very own Mind is the thief that must in our quest be caught. And so, we lose our Peace of Mind as we fill our Mind with junk. If we want to restore Peace within, we must make the Monkey a Monk.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 93

Q: What is the relationship between peace and happiness?

A: Peace is the foundation of Happiness. Without Peace there can be no bliss. If we want to be really Happy, in our Mind we must plant this. Until we stop this 'Ever Yearning' and we stop our constant crave, we will take stress and anxiety with us into our grave.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 93

Q: How do we start cultivating peace?

A: It starts with making the Mind still, stopping it from a burst of thoughts, tying the Mind with a virtual rope, tightly with many a knot. We live with worry, anxiety, and stress right through our life. The cause may be a failing business or a nagging husband or wife.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

Q: Why does searching for peace outside not work?

A: We run through life like mad men seeking this and that. We get lost in a world of desires, we become as blind as a bat. As long as our Mind is not still, we can never enjoy Peace. The Monkey Mind jumps here and there from New York to Rome, and Greece. But we don't need to go anywhere — Peace, if we want to find, all we have got to do is just still the Monkey Mind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

Q: What fills the mind that destroys peace?

A: The Mind fills us with negative thoughts of anger, revenge and hate. It creates so much worry and stress that we exist in a joyless state. First we must flip from NEP to PEP — from negative to positive. We must give a shampoo to the Mind. Then with Bliss and Joy we will live.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 95

Q: What is the ultimate solution for lasting peace?

A: We must discover the Monk within and live like a Peaceful Soul. In ignorance we search for worldly things — rubies, diamonds and gold. Turmoil and worry will create wrinkles and soon we will be old. Only worries we will carry with us when this gift of life will cease.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

Q: What happens when we fill our mind with worldly desires?

A: The pity is life will soon be gone and we will lose the treasure of Peace. Only worries we will carry with us when this gift of life will cease. In ignorance we search for worldly things — rubies, diamonds and gold. Turmoil and worry will create wrinkles and soon we will be old.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

Q: How does stress and worry affect us over our lifetime?

A: We live with worry, anxiety, and stress right through our life. The cause may be a failing business or a nagging husband or wife. But the pity is life will soon be gone and we will lose the treasure of Peace. Only worries we will carry with us when this gift of life will cease.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

Q: What does it mean to make the monkey a monk?

A: There is a Monkey within that jumps from thought to thought — our very own Mind is the thief. If we want to restore Peace within, we must make the Monkey a Monk. We must discover the Monk within and live like a Peaceful Soul. This means training the restless, wandering mind to become still, calm, and disciplined through awareness and practice.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 93

Q: Can peace be bought with wealth or possessions?

A: In ignorance we search for worldly things — rubies, diamonds and gold. Turmoil and worry will create wrinkles and soon we will be old. We run through life like mad men seeking this and that. We get lost in a world of desires, we become as blind as a bat. Peace cannot be purchased — it must be found within.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

Q: What is the cause of anxiety and stress in our lives?

A: The Mind fills us with negative thoughts of anger, revenge and hate. It creates so much worry and stress that we exist in a joyless state. As long as our Mind is not still, we can never enjoy Peace. The Monkey Mind jumps here and there — our very own Mind is the thief that must in our quest be caught.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

Q: How can we shift from negativity to peace?

A: First we must flip from NEP to PEP — from negative to positive. We must give a shampoo to the Mind. Then with Bliss and Joy we will live. We must discover the Monk within and live like a Peaceful Soul. It starts with making the Mind still, stopping it from a burst of thoughts.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 95

Q: Is peace a destination or a state of being?

A: Peace is an inner thing. It is a state of Mind. If we can only be quiet, this treasure we will find. Peace is not something we travel to or purchase — when we turn within, we will find it and our stress and worry will cease. It is already present within us, waiting to be discovered.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 93

Q: Why do most people never find peace?

A: We don't need to go anywhere — Peace, if we want to find — all we have got to do is just still the Monkey Mind. Until we stop this 'Ever Yearning' and we stop our constant crave, we will take stress and anxiety with us into our grave. Most people keep looking outward and never turn within.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 94

TOPIC 2: FEAR

Q: What is fear?

A: Fear is False Expectations Appearing Real. The mind creates this thought, but once paralyzed by this panic, in anxiety we are caught. Why are we scared, why do we fear? God gave us this instinct for a reason so that from real dangers, we can drift.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 78

Q: How does fear affect our life?

A: The consequence of fear is tremendous — it can bring our life to a halt. It can stop our intellect from thinking by just finding fault. Fear can lock us in prison. Fear can shut life's door. Fear can frighten us to no end, drilling into our core.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 79

Q: What is the difference between fear and real danger?

A: Fear is not a danger, fear doesn't kill. It's just an Expectation that Appears Real. But when fear attacks us and fills our body and mind, the rascal makes us suffer and makes our life a grind. A danger can attack us, but fear just makes us feel blue.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 79

Q: What causes fear?

A: What is the cause of fear? This killer is caused by our mind. It makes us see what is not; in anxiety, makes us blind. The mind creates this thought and once paralyzed by this panic, in anxiety we are caught.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 79

Q: What are the different types of fear people experience?

A: There are many types of fears — some even fear a loud sound, some fear to go up in the sky, some a lizard on the ground! Fear often grows into a phobia — an irrational fear of something. Dentophobia is a fear of the dentist and claustrophobia, a crowd of anything. Some have zoophobia, arachnophobia, aerophobia, and cyberphobia.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 78

Q: How can we overcome fear?

A: There is a way to overcome it with courage and with hope. We must wipe out every thought of worry — then with stress and panic we will cope. The first step is to wipe out ignorance from the mind, to differentiate the mind from the intellect — both are of a different kind. The intellect can discriminate, it can Realize the Truth.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 79

Q: What is the biggest fear that humans have?

A: The biggest fear is that of death — loss of all that is known. And then a greater fear still — what is beyond death, unknown. Because we fear we will die, we live with such panic. We get scared of a virus — that's truly tragic!

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 80

Q: What role does the mind play in creating fear?

A: The mind creates this thought of fear. But once paralyzed by this panic, in anxiety we are caught. What is the cause of fear? This killer is caused by our mind. It makes us see what is not; in anxiety, makes us blind. Fear is False Expectations Appearing Real.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 78

Q: Is fear a gift or a curse?

A: God gave us this instinct for a reason so that from real dangers, we can drift. However, the whole world is in panic and fear is making a mountain of a molehill. Fear is the cause of this panic — far more than any external threat, it is fear that will kill. So fear as an instinct serves us, but irrational fear destroys us.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 78

Q: How does fear imprison us?

A: Fear can lock us in prison. Fear can shut life's door. Fear can frighten us to no end, drilling into our core. It imprisons us within our own mind — when fear attacks us and fills our body and mind, the rascal makes us suffer and makes our life a grind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 80

Q: What is the relationship between fear and the intellect?

A: The first step is to wipe out ignorance from the mind, to differentiate the mind from the intellect — both are of a different kind. The intellect can discriminate, it can Realize the Truth. We must ask questions and investigate till we get to the bottom of the root. It is important to flip our life over from NEP to PEP — from negative emotions to positive emotions.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 79

Q: Why do people live in constant fear and worry?

A: Fear is False Expectations Appearing Real. The mind creates this thought and once paralyzed by this panic, in anxiety we are caught. The consequence of fear is tremendous — it can bring our life to a halt. It can stop our intellect from thinking by just finding fault. Because we live in ignorance, fear takes over our life.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 78

Q: What happens to our life when we are consumed by fear?

A: Fear is the cause of panic — it is making a mountain of a molehill. It stops our intellect from thinking. Fear can lock us in prison, shut life's door, and frighten us to no end, drilling into our core. The whole world locks itself in, unable to enjoy the sky, unable to truly live.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 78

Q: How can we flip from fear to positive living?

A: It is important to flip our life over from NEP to PEP — from negative emotions to positive emotions, from poison to power, step by step. After all, life is a drama on the earth stage — it's just a show. We are all actors in this theatre. We come, but we must go. When we see life as a divine play, fear loses its grip.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 80

Q: Why is it tragic to live in fear when life is short?

A: Nobody can escape death — life is in somebody else's hand. There is a power we can't comprehend that created the sky and land. Because we fear we will die, we live with such panic — that's truly tragic! Life is short and spending it consumed by fear means we never truly live.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 80

TOPIC 3: HAPPINESS

Q: What is happiness and how do we find it?

A: Happiness is everybody's goal. We want it with heart and Soul. Everybody wants pleasure, nobody wants pain. Things don't make us happy — Happiness is a state of being. It's not what you have that matters; how you feel is everything.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 75

Q: Why doesn't money or success bring happiness?

A: We think that money makes one happy, but we see the rich are not glad. They may have everything in the world, but in the end, they are sad. If Success was Happiness, then achievers would be glad. But look around and you will find that many of them are sad.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 49

Q: When can we truly be happy?

A: Everybody wants happiness, but nobody knows how. We don't know that joy belongs to the NOW. You can't be happy in the yesterday that's gone and you won't find happiness in the tomorrow that's not yet born. Happiness is a journey, not a destination.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 75

Q: What are the three peaks of happiness?

A: Not one, nor two, joy has three peaks. The first is Achievement, the second is Fulfillment. The third is rare — it's called Enlightenment! On the first peak, happiness is greed. When you transcend pleasure, with contentment you are happy, your desires cease. But those who climb the third peak of Enlightenment experience joy and bliss beyond Achievement and Fulfillment.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 76

Q: Why do we miss happiness even when we seek it?

A: Look around, and you will find it's rare to find people smile. But happiness belongs to those who laugh all the while! Most of us, we just cry and we die — we don't know how to be happy. We miss to discover a simple secret: God is the source of Joy. Instead of seeking God within, we are searching for Happiness in places where it cannot be found.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 75

Q: Is happiness dependent on external circumstances?

A: Happiness is a journey, not a destination. It doesn't depend on what may be your occupation. It doesn't matter what is your religion and what is your nation. Things don't make us happy — nor people, or places give us bliss. Happiness is an inner thing; in life, this truth we miss.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 76

Q: What is the secret that most people miss about happiness?

A: We miss to discover a simple secret: God is the source of Joy. Instead of seeking God within, we are searching for Happiness! Of course, we become happy at times, but the source of Joy we miss. If only we change our search for God and look for Him within, we will have everlasting Joy and Peace and a Blissful Life will begin.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 66

Q: How does greed interfere with happiness?

A: On the first peak, happiness is greed — it happens when you desire and fulfill your need. Happiness here is wanting more and more; we seek pleasure and wealth, but peace we ignore. But when our need becomes our greed, to misery this will lead. The whole world is chasing Success, everyone wants achievement — sometimes we win, sometimes we lose — there is no Contentment.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 49

Q: What is the connection between God and happiness?

A: God is the source of Joy. We know that God can do anything — He is the giver of Happiness, the one who gave us birth. If only we change our search for God and look for Him within, we will have everlasting Joy and Peace and a Blissful Life will begin. The secret is: GOD equals Happiness.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 66

Q: Why do people who achieve great success still feel unhappy?

A: If Success was Happiness then achievers would be glad. But look around and you will find that many of them are sad. Of course, Achievement gives joy and excitement, oh boy! But when our need becomes our greed, to misery this will lead. The whole world is chasing Success — sometimes we win, sometimes we lose — there is no Contentment.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 49

Q: Can happiness be found through meditation?

A: Happiness can happen with simple meditation. It starts with making the Mind still. It's only when we spend time in peace that we will experience joy. Then we will feel what true bliss is — it's amazing! When we are conscious that God lives within, we will suffer no more.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 76

Q: What is the highest form of happiness?

A: Those who climb the third peak of Enlightenment experience joy and bliss beyond Achievement and Fulfillment. This is Nirvana — Moksha — Enlightenment — Everlasting Bliss. It is not temporary pleasure or even fulfillment, but a permanent state of joyful awareness rooted in the realization that we are the Divine Soul.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 76

Q: Why do we search for happiness in the wrong places?

A: We don't discover this Divine Truth that GOD equals Happiness. We are looking for joy in so many places but within ourselves we miss. We are not the body, we are not the mind — this Truth we must realize. We are in fact God energy. Once we are conscious that God lives within, we will suffer no more.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 67

Q: What does contentment have to do with happiness?

A: Some of us are happy as we live with contentment and fulfillment. When you transcend pleasure and you are seeking peace, with contentment you are happy, your desires cease. You are happy with the breeze, you are happy with the seas. Those who truly understand life live with contentment; they don't let their greed overtake their need — they find fulfillment.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 49

Q: Is happiness a permanent or temporary state?

A: Happiness is a state of being, not a thing to be obtained. Happiness is a journey, not a destination. Those who climb the third peak of Enlightenment experience joy and bliss that is everlasting — beyond the temporary highs of Achievement and Fulfillment. True happiness, rooted in realization of the Soul, is permanent.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 76

TOPIC 4: LOVE

Q: What is true love?

A: True Love is bliss, it's not just a kiss. It's sad this truth in life we miss. True Love is really magic — that we miss it, is tragic. True Love is a gift that is God sent. True Love is not just of body and mind — True Love is something which the heart alone cannot find. Our Goal: find True Love in the Soul. Then in True Love you will find two Souls will bind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: Why do we confuse love with romance and passion?

A: What makes you think that Love is a kiss? We sing and we dance and we enjoy the romance, but the bliss and the peace of True Love we miss. It's sad that people think sex is Love. The Greeks called Eros the Love of passion, but Agape was True Love that was their mission — True Love was not just physical and neither intellectual or emotional.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: What are the different types of love?

A: Haven't you seen kids loving their mom and dad? Friendship too is Love, it's not just a fad. When there is Love, there is bliss. There are many different types of Love in fact. The Greeks identified Eros as passionate love and Agape as True Love — a higher, Godly love that was their mission.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: Why does love cause us pain and tears?

A: If Love is so beautiful then why do we cry? Why do lovers fight and then question why? Because there is Love but there is no True Love. The beauty of Love very soon does die. True Love is Love of the Soul — when we love only at the physical or emotional level, it is fragile and fades.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

Q: How is true love related to the Soul?

A: True Love is not just of body and mind. True Love is not something which the heart can find. What is our Goal? Find True Love in the Soul. Then in True Love you will find two Souls will bind. With True Love you find that two become one — there are no disagreements and life becomes fun.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

Q: What happens when two souls are bound in true love?

A: With True Love you find that two become one. There are no disagreements and life becomes fun. When 'you' and 'me' become 'us', then there is no more fuss. And the treasure of True Love in life is won. Love is Love, but True Love is bliss.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

Q: Why is falling in love easy but true love rare?

A: Falling in Love is a very easy task — when somebody makes your heart dance and you feel the romance, life becomes beautiful and you live in that trance. But True Love is something great — but it is not everybody's fate. It is sad though we live, this treasure we miss.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: Is love only between romantic partners?

A: Haven't you seen kids loving their mom and dad? Friendship too is Love, it's not just a fad. When there is Love, there is bliss — Love is not just a passionate kiss. There are many different types of Love in fact. Love expresses itself as family love, friendship, and at its highest, as Divine love.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: What is the role of God in true love?

A: True Love is a gift that is God sent. The Greeks called Agape the True Love — to make Godly Love the obsession. True Love is Divine — it connects us to the Divine within ourselves and within others. God is Love and Love is God; when we experience True Love in the Soul, we experience the Divine.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: Why is missing true love in life tragic?

A: True Love is really magic — that we miss it, is tragic. True Love is bliss, it's not just a kiss. It's sad this truth in life we miss. Life becomes beautiful when we live in the trance of True Love. Those who find it find that two become one, there are no disagreements, and life becomes full of joy.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: How does ego prevent true love?

A: Because there is Love but there is no True Love, lovers fight and cry. When 'you' and 'me' become 'us', then there is no more fuss and the treasure of True Love in life is won. Ego creates the separation between 'me' and 'you' — once the ego dissolves in True Love, two become one and bliss follows.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

Q: What is the bliss that true love brings?

A: True Love is bliss, it's not just a kiss. When there is Love, there is bliss. True Love is something great. With True Love you find that two become one — there are no disagreements and life becomes fun. When 'you' and 'me' become 'us', then there is no more fuss and the treasure of True Love in life is won.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

Q: Why do we miss the truth about love in life?

A: It's sad this truth in life we miss. We sing and we dance and we enjoy the romance, but the bliss and the peace of True Love we miss. In ignorance of True Love, our life is spent. We look for love in the body, the mind, in romance — but the real treasure is True Love found in the Soul.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 68

Q: What did the ancient Greeks teach about love?

A: The Greeks called Eros the Love of passion. But Agape was True Love that was their mission. True Love was not just physical and neither intellectual or emotional. True Love was to make Godly Love the obsession. This ancient wisdom teaches us that the highest form of love is spiritual — connecting Soul to Soul.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

Q: How does one experience true love in daily life?

A: When 'you' and 'me' become 'us', then there is no more fuss and the treasure of True Love in life is won. True Love is finding it in the Soul — then two Souls will bind. Falling in Love is a very easy task, but True Love is not everybody's fate. It begins with letting go of ego and recognizing the Divine in each other.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

TOPIC 5: THE SOUL

Q: What is the soul?

A: The Soul is a Power that gives me breath. Without the Soul, there would be death. It comes to me just as I am born and it leaves me when life is gone. The Soul is energy — it gives me power. It makes me grow tall like a tower. But once it leaves, I can't even bend and my life story comes to an end.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 84

Q: What is the role of the soul in our life?

A: It is the Soul that makes me live. What is the function of the Soul? What does it do to make me whole? Body, mind, heart and Soul — each has a specific role. The Soul is a Power that gives me breath. The Soul is alive in every cell. It makes me pray and ring the bell.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 83

Q: Are all souls different or is there one universal Soul?

A: Just like there is one power source in my house that makes gadgets work and the lights glow, and so there is just one life source. Is my Soul different from yours? The truth is there is one Divine energy — one universal Soul power — that animates all life. We are all particles of the same Divine Source.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 84

Q: What happens to the soul after death?

A: Where does the Soul go and how? I wonder — it goes to heaven, how? I ponder. The Soul comes to me just as I am born and it leaves me when life is gone. Without the Soul, I would be dead. Those who realize their true nature as Soul transcend the cycle of birth and death.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 83

Q: Why don't we know our own soul?

A: What is the Soul, have you ever thought? Or is it a mystery in which you are caught? We all have a Soul, we seem to know. Everybody says 'We have a Soul' but to search for it is now my goal. We have been taught about the Soul but few truly seek to discover it within themselves.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 83

Q: What is the ultimate goal related to the soul?

A: What is our life's ultimate goal? To find the truth about the Soul. Before life is over, and it is time to die, we must find the truth, not in ignorance lie. Let's Realize the Truth before it is time to go. We must realize we are not body or mind — we are the Divine Soul.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 84

Q: How is the soul connected to God?

A: The Soul is a Power that gives me breath — the Divine Life that makes me glow. We are in fact God energy. God lives within us as the Soul. Without God, what are we? Without the Soul, we are nothing. The body, in the end, returns to dust — it is God that is everything. The Soul is our divine connection to the Supreme.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 84

Q: What is the truth about who we really are?

A: We foolishly think we are the body and mind till we get the 'Aha' — we are the Soul, we find. We are not the body, we are not the mind, nor the ego that we are told. The truth is different — we must realize we are the Divine Soul. To realize this is the ultimate goal of life.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 9

Q: Is the soul the same as the mind?

A: Body, mind, heart and Soul — each has a specific role. The body moves and the mind does think; the heart beats, and the Soul — I blink! The Soul is distinct from the mind. My eyes and nose I can touch and feel; my mind wanders, my peace it does steal. But the Soul is the power that gives life — it is energy of a divine kind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 83

Q: How does realizing we are the soul change us?

A: Those who realize we are not body or mind, those who are able — the Truth to find — they are the fortunate few who escape from the cycle of Karma. We are not the body, we are not the mind — we are the Divine Soul. Once we realize this, we find liberation, freedom from suffering and rebirth.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 21

Q: What does 'I am the Divine Soul' mean?

A: We are not the body, we are not the mind. Nor the ego that we are told. The truth is different — we must realize we are the Divine Soul. We are in fact God energy — to this Truth we must rise. The Soul is a Power that gives us breath; without the Soul, there would be death. To say 'I am the Divine Soul' is to recognize our true, eternal nature.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 84

Q: Why do people live without knowing their soul?

A: What is the Soul, have you ever thought? Or is it a mystery in which you are caught? We all have a Soul, we seem to know. Let's Realize the Truth before it is time to go. Most people are busy consuming life; the Life Manual they do not read. In ignorance, we live and die without discovering our true Soul nature.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 83

Q: Does the soul have a form or is it formless?

A: Without God, what are we? Without the Soul, we are nothing. The body, in the end, returns to dust — it is God that is everything. God has no bone, nor skin — God is a Power that gives us life in the trillions of cells within. The Soul, like God, is formless — it is pure energy, pure consciousness, pure life.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 55

Q: How can we begin to discover our soul?

A: What is our life's ultimate goal? To find the truth about the Soul. Before life is over and it is time to die, we must find the truth, not in ignorance lie. We must pause, not rush through life — we must ask the ultimate question: Who am I? We must get to the bottom of the root and discover we are the Divine Soul.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 84

Q: What is the relationship between the soul and bliss?

A: Those who realize they are the Divine Soul experience Nirvana, Moksha, Enlightenment and Everlasting Bliss. We can be conscious and live in bliss. If only we understand this product called 'Life', we will be free from problems and sorrows, we will only have joy and bliss. The Soul, when realized, is the very source of permanent bliss.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 8

TOPIC 6: KARMA

Q: What is the law of karma?

A: The Law of Karma is very deep. As we sow, so shall we reap. The bad we do will make us weep and the good that we do, we get to keep. It's a Law of Action, a Law of Reaction. It's a Law that says, we get what we give. A Law that ensures what goes around comes around.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 19

Q: Does karma end at death?

A: Death is not the end — it's just a bend. Whatever we have done has to be undone. Our Body may die, but our Karma stands by. We CAN escape our Karma — that is a lie! Our Mind will be reborn to live and to die and we will continue to suffer and cry. The Karmic score decides how we are reborn.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 19

Q: Who is responsible for our karma — the body or the mind?

A: Is our body responsible for how we act? No, it's our mind that's in charge, in fact. Thus, the Law of Karma is that of the Mind. It's the ego and mind that suffers, we find. It carries the good and the bad that we do. The score doesn't settle at death when we go.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 20

Q: How does karma affect our rebirth?

A: Life after life, the score goes on. The Karmic score decides how we are reborn. Death is not the end — it's just a bend. Whatever we have done has to be undone. If our actions are rewarded as we live — that's great. Otherwise, the residue will decide our fate.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 20

Q: Can we escape from karma?

A: We can if only we Realize the Truth — we must get to the bottom; we must get to the root. What is our purpose of life on Earth? Those who realize we are not the body or the mind, those who are able — the Truth to find — they are the fortunate few who escape from the cycle of Karma and action.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 20

Q: What is the law of cause and effect?

A: What is this Law of Cause and Effect? A Law that ensures the balance is perfect. A Law that records everything we do — good or bad, it must come back to you. If we plant tomatoes, we won't get mangoes. If we plant cactus, we won't get a rose. So also if we do good, our reward will be good.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 19

Q: Why do we keep suffering life after life?

A: So should we suffer again and again? When will we finally escape this pain? We live in ignorance of the truth. Life after life, the score goes on. The Karmic score decides how we are reborn — and we continue to suffer and cry until we realize the Truth and get to the bottom of the root.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 20

Q: What is the connection between karma and dharma?

A: The Law of Karma is born from our Dharma. Karma is a Law — A Universal Law. A Law that watches all our actions and a Law that ensures the same reaction. Our Dharma — our duty and right action — is the foundation from which our Karma flows. Good dharma creates good karma; neglecting dharma creates suffering.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 19

Q: Does karma apply to everyone equally?

A: The Law of Karma is for all who come and go, except for those who understand this show. A Law that's for everyone on this ground. The Law controls how on Earth we come and go. Those who realize they are not the body or the mind, those who find the Truth — they escape the law of Karma.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 21

Q: What does 'as you sow, so shall you reap' mean in real life?

A: If we plant tomatoes, we won't get mangoes. If we plant cactus, we won't get a rose. So also if we do good, our reward will be good, and if we do bad — what returns is just as bad. It's a Law of Action, a Law of Reaction. It's a Law that says, we get what we give.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 19

Q: Is there a way to settle our karmic debt?

A: Whatever we have done has to be undone. If our actions are rewarded as we live — that's great. Otherwise, the residue will decide our fate. We can escape our Karma only if we Realize the Truth — we must get to the bottom; we must get to the root. Those who realize they are not the body or the mind escape from Karma.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 19

Q: How does the law of karma govern the universe?

A: The Law of Karma makes this world go round. It's a Law that makes sure all's well on the ground. It belongs to the One who created this show — it controls how on Earth we come and go. A Law that records everything we do — good or bad, it must come back to you. It is a Divine, Universal, Perfect Law.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 21

Q: What is the purpose of life given the law of karma?

A: Where did we come from? Where do we go? The Law will go on till the Truth we know. What is our purpose of life on Earth? Are we just born to die and take birth? We must realize the Truth — that we are not the body or the mind. Only then can we escape the endless cycle and achieve liberation.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 20

Q: How does ignorance keep us trapped in karma?

A: Are we the Body? Are we the Mind? Are we the Ego? The Truth we must find. The ignorance that's around us, we must rewind. We are Energy of a different kind. Because we live in ignorance of our true divine nature as Soul, we continue to act from ego and mind — generating karma — and remain trapped in the cycle of rebirth.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 21

Q: What is good karma and how do we create it?

A: The bad we do will make us weep and the good that we do, we get to keep. If we do good, our reward will be good. A Law that says, we get what we give — a Law that ensures what goes around comes around. Living with love, compassion, honesty and service creates good karma and moves us toward liberation.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 19

TOPIC 7: THE MIND

Q: What is the mind and where is it?

A: My mind is king, I thought it is everything! It makes me blink, it makes me think. It gives me joy until I die. The only problem with my mind — where it is, I cannot find! The body I can see, the body I can find. Likewise I am sure, I have a mind. It is not yours, I know it is mine. The only problem with my mind — where it is, I cannot find!

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 52

Q: Why is the mind called a rascal?

A: My mind is a monkey, a rascal my mind. The only problem with my mind — where it is, I cannot find! It made me worry, it made me fear. I resolved to kill my mind — the rascal I vowed, I must grind. There is a rascal, a thief, called the mind. When the mind appears, it brings with it fear, worry, stress, anxiety, regret, shame and guilt.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 52

Q: How does the mind cause suffering?

A: The Mind goes to the past and creates regret, shame and guilt with its thoughts that nurse, curse and rehearse the incidents and wrongs of the past. We lose our peace. Then the Mind jumps to tomorrow and creates stress, worry and anxiety. Immediately, any peace that we enjoy will cease because of our own mind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 53

Q: Can we find the mind physically?

A: We can touch our nose and scan our heart but the mind we cannot find! What about the mind, do we have one? Has anyone found the mind? It is my memory, it is my mind, it is my intellect — one of a kind. My greatest treasure is my mind. The only problem with my mind — where it is, I cannot find!

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 1

Q: How do we control the mind?

A: I made my intellect rule my mind. I shot down thoughts of a monkey kind. I wanted joy and peace of mind — no more my king, my rascal mind. To eliminate the stress and worry the mind causes, we must use our intellect. The intellect is a tool given to us to discriminate black from white, to make important decisions of life and to choose what is right.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 53

Q: What happens when we stop the mind?

A: I realized then there was no mind — it was a rascal! No need to find! The moment we still the mind, peace, we can find. Peace is not outside of us — most of us are searching for peace outside when in reality, peace is inside. The moment we still the mind, we discover the peace that was always within us.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 53

Q: What is the difference between the mind and the intellect?

A: The first step is to wipe out ignorance from the mind, to differentiate the mind from the intellect — both are of a different kind. The intellect can discriminate, it can Realize the Truth. My mind is a monkey, a rascal. But Suddenly, I realize — my intellect and my memory are of a different kind. The intellect is our tool of discrimination and wisdom.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 52

Q: Why is the mind compared to a monkey?

A: There is a Monkey within that jumps from thought to thought. Our very own Mind is the thief that must in our quest be caught. My mind is a monkey, a rascal. It jumps from the past to the future, from one thought to another, never staying still — just like a restless monkey jumping from branch to branch.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 93

Q: How does the mind create fear and worry?

A: When the mind appears, it brings with it fear, worry, stress, anxiety, regret, shame and guilt. This aggression of toxic thoughts leads us into depression. The Mind goes to the past and creates regret, shame and guilt. Then the Mind jumps to tomorrow and creates stress, worry and anxiety. Immediately, any peace that we enjoy will cease because of our own mind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 53

Q: What does it mean to make the monkey a monk?

A: There is a Monkey within that jumps from thought to thought. If we want to restore Peace within, we must make the Monkey a Monk. We must make our intellect rule our mind — shoot down thoughts of a monkey kind. To make the monkey a monk means to transform the restless, undisciplined mind into a still, peaceful, disciplined awareness.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 93

Q: Is the mind an enemy or a friend?

A: My mind is king, I thought it is everything! But — the rascal made me worry, it made me fear. Enough my dear, no more tear. The mind is a rascal, a thief, called the mind. When the mind appears, it brings with it fear, worry, stress, anxiety, regret, shame and guilt. The mind begins as a tool but becomes our worst enemy when left uncontrolled.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 52

Q: Can we live without the mind?

A: I realized then there was no mind — it was a rascal! No need to find! The moment we still the mind, peace we can find. The goal is not to destroy thinking, but to free ourselves from being enslaved by the toxic, rascal mind. When we use our intellect to rule the mind, we discover our true nature as the Soul.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 53

Q: How does the mind keep us from realizing the truth?

A: We are ruled by the monkey mind — until we stop its constant chatter, the truth we will not find. For the mind is full of rotten thoughts; we suffer because of this junk. If we want to discover the true meaning of life, we must make the monkey a monk. The mind, left uncontrolled, keeps us lost in illusion.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 6

Q: What toxic thoughts does the mind produce?

A: The aggression of toxic thoughts leads us into depression. The Mind fills us with negative thoughts of anger, revenge and hate. It creates so much worry and stress that we exist in a joyless state. When the mind appears, it brings with it fear, worry, stress, anxiety, regret, shame and guilt — this is the mind's arsenal of suffering.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 53

Q: How can we use our intellect to overcome the mind?

A: I made my intellect rule my mind. I shot down thoughts of a monkey kind. The intellect is a tool given to us to discriminate black from white, to make important decisions of life and to choose what is right. The first step is to differentiate the mind from the intellect — both are of a different kind. The intellect can Realize the Truth.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 53

TOPIC 8: THE EGO

Q: What is the ego?

A: The ego is my identity — the ego says, 'This is me'. Because I keep saying 'My' and 'Mine', the God within I don't see. But first, it is the ego that keeps saying 'I' and 'me'. It dominates our life so much that God we cannot see. The ego creates duality — it makes God different from us and the truth we cannot see.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: How does ego prevent us from finding God?

A: Little do we know that the ego does hide that very God that lives inside. As long as the ego dominates our life, between God and us it creates a veil. And though God is right here and now, to realize God, we fail. Because the ego causes ignorance, the truth we cannot see.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: What suffering does the ego cause?

A: The ego makes me suffer — triple suffering with body and mind. It is the ego that makes me cry with miseries of a different kind. 'How dare you did not do it!' — this anger, revenge, and hate. It's the ego that makes us go around and stops us from heaven's gate.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 55

Q: How do we let go of the ego?

A: We must let go of the ego if God we must find. And for this, we must realize the biggest enemy is the mind. We live with passion and attachment while nothing belongs to us. The way to joy is detachment — just letting go, without a fuss. Unless we go in search for the truth, unless we start our quest, we will just believe the myth.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: What is the ego's relationship with religion?

A: The world has hundreds of religions and thousands of Gods to whom we pray. The fact is we don't know who God is and we don't even know what we say. The ego makes us pray to a statue and a saint and a God with a snake and a flute. Because the ego causes ignorance, the truth we cannot see — we believe in the myth and superstition.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: Who is God hidden by the ego?

A: God lives in the temple of our heart — alas, his voice is not heard. The ego makes us deaf and blind. God is not on a faraway planet, nor an old man with a long white beard. Little do we know that the ego does hide that very God that lives inside. Between God and us, the ego creates a veil.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: What is the duality created by the ego?

A: What does the ego do in fact? It creates duality. It makes God different from us and the truth we cannot see. The ego is my identity — the ego says, 'This is me'. Because I keep saying 'My' and 'Mine', the God within I don't see. This sense of separation between 'me' and 'God', 'me' and 'others', is the ego's great illusion.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: Is the ego the same as the mind?

A: We must let go of the ego if God we must find. And for this, we must realize the biggest enemy is the mind. The ego and the mind work together — it's the ego and mind that suffer, we find. They carry the good and the bad that we do. The ego says 'I am' and the mind fills it with thoughts — together they keep us trapped.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: What happens when the ego dissolves?

A: God lives in the temple of our heart. Those who truly love God will find Him inside their heart. God is Everything, Everywhere — He manifests as You and Me. When the ego dissolves, we stop seeing separation and begin to see God in everything. We realize we are not the ego — we are the Divine Soul, one with God.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

Q: How does ego cause anger and hatred?

A: 'How dare you did not do it!' — this anger, revenge, and hate. It's the ego that makes us go around and stops us from heaven's gate. The ego makes me suffer — triple suffering with body and mind. It is the ego that makes me cry with miseries of a different kind. All anger flows from the wounded ego's sense of 'me' being wronged.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 55

Q: Can we see God without removing the ego?

A: Little do we know that the ego does hide that very God that lives inside. As long as the ego dominates our life, between God and us it creates a veil. And though God is right here and now, to realize God, we fail. The ego must be let go — only then can we hear the voice of God within.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: What does 'letting go of the ego' feel like?

A: The way to joy is detachment — just letting go, without a fuss. When 'you' and 'me' become 'us', then there is no more fuss and the treasure of True Love in life is won. Life is like a spiritual puzzle — the pieces we must find. We must put together who we are and not live like we are blind. Letting go brings freedom, joy, and bliss.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 69

Q: How does the ego make us spiritually blind?

A: The ego makes us deaf and blind — it stops us from the truth. Because the ego causes ignorance, the truth we cannot see. We believe in the myth and superstition and just be who we are told to be. God lives within, but because the ego dominates, we keep searching outside — in temples, monasteries, and churches.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 54

Q: Why does the ego keep us from reaching heaven?

A: It's the ego that makes us go around and stops us from heaven's gate. The ego creates duality — it makes God different from us. As long as the ego creates the veil, God cannot be realized. Heaven is not a distant place — it is the state of realizing God within. The ego, with its 'I' and 'mine', blocks this realization.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 55

Q: What is the ultimate freedom from the ego?

A: Those who truly love God will find Him inside their heart — not in temples, churches or monasteries, neither in Scriptures we tear apart. When the ego is dropped, we realize: God is Everything, Everywhere — He manifests as You and Me. He is the Cause and we just Effects. Without Him, we cannot be. This is ultimate freedom.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

TOPIC 9: GOD

Q: Who is God and where is God?

A: I searched for God in temples but nowhere was He found. I looked into the skies and waters and everywhere on the ground. Those who truly love Him will find Him inside their heart. God is Everything, Everywhere — He manifests as You and Me. He is the Cause and we just Effects. Without Him, we cannot be.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 22

Q: Is God a person with a form?

A: God has no bone, nor skin — God is a Power that gives us life in the trillions of cells within. God is not on a faraway planet, nor an old man with a long white beard. God lives in the temple of our heart. God defined is God denied — we must believe that He lives. He is beyond our comprehension but He is the One who gives.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 55

Q: What is God truly?

A: God is not God, God is SIP — Supreme Immortal Power. The Sun, the Moon, the Stars, the Birds, the Animals, the Flowers — they are just manifestations of the one and only Power! God is Everything, Everywhere. He is beyond our comprehension but He is the One who gives. This is a Cosmic Drama — the Earth just a big stage and we are all just actors.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

Q: Does God live in temples and churches?

A: Not in temples, churches or monasteries, neither in Scriptures we tear apart — those who truly love Him will find Him inside their heart. I searched for God in temples but nowhere was He found. I looked into the skies and waters and everywhere on the ground. God lives in the temple of our heart — alas, His voice is not heard because the ego makes us deaf and blind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 22

Q: How can we find God?

A: Those who truly love God will find Him inside their heart. If only we change our search for God and look for Him within, we will have everlasting Joy and Peace and a Blissful Life will begin. We don't discover this Divine Truth — we are looking for joy in so many places but within ourselves we miss. God is realized within.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

Q: What is the purpose of life in relation to God?

A: The purpose of life is to find God — we must Realize the Truth. To realize we are a particle of God and within us is the temple of the Lord. Our Ultimate Goal is to realize God — not in a temple, monastery or church. God lives within our heart — when will we start our search?

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

Q: Why do we struggle to find God despite seeking Him?

A: All cannot find the Master — it depends on His Grace. A few of us are lucky to finally see His face. Not in temples, churches or monasteries, neither in Scriptures we tear apart. Those who truly love Him will find Him inside their heart. We don't know many things and this fact we don't know — we do not know that life is nothing but a show.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

Q: What is the cosmic drama that God is directing?

A: This is a Cosmic Drama — the Earth just a big stage. We are all just actors; we perform till we age. Then one day, the time will come — we will have to pack and go. When Death will take over life, it will be the end of the show. God is the Director of this Cosmic play — we are all His actors.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

Q: Is God equal to happiness?

A: God is the source of Joy. If only we change our search for God and look for Him within, we will have everlasting Joy and Peace and a Blissful Life will begin. 'God = Happiness' is a secret we must discern and know. Then we will discover true bliss and joy as our bond with God will grow.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 66

Q: How does realizing God transform our life?

A: Those who truly love God transcend body, ego and mind. They discover they are the Soul within — in fact, they are Divinity. They don't see humans as bone and skin; they see God in you and me. Once we are conscious that God lives within, we will suffer no more.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 7

Q: Why do we remain ignorant about God?

A: Though we know Santa is a lie, we believe in the myth and don't ask why. We just exist, we live and die, without asking the question of who and why. We don't know who, where and what is God but there is a Creator who is our Lord. We remain ignorant because we never truly question or seek.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 31

Q: What does it mean that God is Supreme Immortal Power?

A: God is not God, God is SIP — Supreme Immortal Power. The Sun, the Moon, the Stars, the Birds, the Animals, the Flowers — they are just manifestations of the one and only Power! God is not a person — God is the infinite, immortal energy that creates, sustains, and pervades all of existence.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 165

Q: Can we see God with our eyes?

A: I searched for God in temples but nowhere was He found. Those who truly love Him will find Him inside their heart. God has no bone, nor skin — God is a Power that gives us life in the trillions of cells within. God cannot be seen with physical eyes — God is experienced within, in the stillness of the Soul.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 22

Q: What is the biggest mistake people make in seeking God?

A: We think our goal is happiness and pleasures we do seek. So shallow is our passion, we never reach the peak. If we can't realize God, our life is without a gleam! We go for many pilgrimages, just going round and round. We search in scriptures and religions — but God is not found outside; He is within.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 23

Q: What is God's relationship to each human being?

A: God is Everything, Everywhere — He manifests as You and Me. He is the Cause and we just Effects. Without Him, we cannot be. We must realize we are a particle of God and within us is the temple of the Lord. God is not separate from us — we are made of God energy and God lives within each one of us.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 24

TOPIC: ENLIGHTENMENT

Q: What is enlightenment?

A: Enlightenment is about not being ignorant and knowing the Truth for our betterment. For like blind men, we live in the dark. It is Realizing the Truth — getting fulfillment. Those who climb the third peak of Enlightenment experience joy and bliss beyond Achievement and Fulfillment.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 32

Q: What is the ultimate goal of human life?

A: What is the Ultimate Goal of Life? Why this misery, why this strife? We want happiness, but don't achieve our Goal because we don't realize we are the Soul. The purpose of life is to achieve our goal — to realize we are the Divine Soul. Not the body, the ego, nor are we the mind. Who are we? This truth we must find.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 30

Q: What is Moksha and Nirvana?

A: Moksha it was called many centuries ago — it was Liberation after death, this Truth we know. And then there would be no future birth and we would not have to return to earth. Those who don't know are born again — the law of Karma is for all men. And then came about the concept 'Enlightenment' — Realizing the Truth, getting fulfillment.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 31

Q: Who can achieve enlightenment?

A: But there were wise men, the Truth who knew — they were not many, they were just a few. They went on a quest to find the Truth. They didn't just accept — went to the bottom of the root. Realization is a rare gift — not everybody this treasure can find. Those who truly love God transcend body, ego and mind.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 30

Q: What does enlightenment feel like?

A: Those who climb the third peak of Enlightenment experience joy and bliss beyond Achievement and Fulfillment. They discover they are the Soul within — in fact, they are Divinity. They don't see humans as bone and skin — they see God in you and me. They live in joy and peace, as they live with Consciousness.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 30

Q: How does one begin the journey to enlightenment?

A: We must realize we are a particle of God and within us is the temple of the Lord. So wake up, don't just run in the success race. Don't be caught as the ego, trying to be an ace. Don't be lost in the world and its maze. Realize the Truth and live with grace. The journey starts with the Realization of the Truth.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 30

Q: What happens after enlightenment?

A: If you want eternal happiness, and forever to be glad, then kill the rascal mind which otherwise will make you sad. Live in joy and peace, as you live with Consciousness. Achieve Nirvana, Moksha, Enlightenment and Everlasting Bliss. And then there would be no future birth and we would not have to return to earth — Liberation.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 8

Q: Is enlightenment the end of suffering?

A: Those who realize we are not body or mind, those who are able — the Truth to find — they are the fortunate few who escape. We can be happy, we can rejoice — refuse to suffer, that is our choice. Once we are conscious that God lives within, we will suffer no more. Enlightenment ends the root cause of all suffering: ignorance.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 21

Q: What is the myth about enlightenment?

A: In ignorance, we live and we die — we look at the sky, we pray, we cry. But why we are born, we don't find out why. We don't go for a search and quest and we don't put our beliefs to test. Whatever we are told, we believe the myth. The myth is that enlightenment is for special people, saints, or those who renounce the world.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 30

Q: How does enlightenment relate to the soul?

A: We want happiness, but don't achieve our Goal because we don't realize we are the Soul. To find this Truth is our Ultimate Goal — that we are, in fact, the Divine Soul. Enlightenment is the direct realization of our true nature as the Soul, one with the Divine. It is not a belief but a lived experience of the Truth.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 30

Q: Why do most people never attain enlightenment?

A: We are so busy consuming life, the Life Manual we do not read. All we know is to clothe this skin and our greedy body we feed. Having fun, life gets over. We don't stop to understand life — we are just running in this race. We increase our pace and get caught in the maze, trying to be an ace.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 7

Q: What is the spiritual jigsaw puzzle of enlightenment?

A: Life is like a spiritual puzzle — the pieces we must find. We must put together who we are and not live like we are blind. The truth is simple but we don't see it. After death, there is rebirth. It is our own actions, our Karma, that determines our fate — until we realize the Truth and achieve Liberation.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 56

Q: Can an ordinary person in daily life achieve enlightenment?

A: The journey starts with the Realization of the Truth. So wake up, don't just run in the success race. Realize the Truth and live with grace. One need not renounce the world — enlightenment is about realizing who we truly are in the midst of life. Those who truly love God will find Him inside their heart.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 8

Q: What is the connection between enlightenment and liberation?

A: Moksha it was called many centuries ago — Liberation after death. And then there would be no future birth and we would not have to return to earth. Enlightenment is Realization of the Truth while alive — Moksha is the Liberation that follows. Both lead to the end of the cycle of karma and rebirth and the return to our divine source.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 31

Q: How does one know they have attained enlightenment?

A: Those who climb the third peak of Enlightenment experience joy and bliss beyond Achievement and Fulfillment. They discover they are the Soul within — in fact, they are Divinity. They don't see humans as bone and skin — they see God in you and me. They live in joy and peace, as they live with Consciousness. The fruit of enlightenment is bliss.

Source: Poems for Life by AiR (Atman in Ravi), Page 30