

The Divine Magic Of True Love

What Is Love?

Q. How does the book define the emotion of love?

A: Love is one of the most positive emotions that a human being is blessed with. It creates a strong feeling of attraction and liking of something or somebody that makes us happy.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 1: What Is Love?, Page 9

Q. What happens when we experience love?

A: Who hasn't experienced Love, that intense liking for somebody or something that makes us passionately yearn and then, enjoy an ecstasy of bliss? The emotion of Love is deep-rooted in every human being but still, if we want to define what Love is, we often struggle.

Q. Can love cause both happiness and unhappiness?

A: Just like happiness is another emotion, which is difficult to define and easier experienced, so is Love a passionate emotion, but one that can make us both happy and unhappy. When we fall in Love, there is bliss but the moment our heart breaks, we are filled with unhappiness.

Q. What are the positive and negative sides of love?

A: While the positive side of this emotion is called Love, the negative side is called hate. Both are extreme emotions. The positive aspect leads to attraction, deep liking, yearning and even attachment and intimacy.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 1: What Is Love?, Page 10

Q. Is the heart truly the organ of love?

A: We even think that the heart is the organ of Love, when in reality, Love vibrates throughout our body, causing our heart to beat faster. And so, the world is fooled into believing that the heart is the organ of Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 1: What Is Love?, Page 10

Q. How powerful can the emotion of love be?

A: Love leads us to a state of heightened emotions. When one is in Love, one is ready to sacrifice. In passionate Love, one is even ready to kill another. The obsessive emotion of Love leads a human being to the heights of passion, something that no other emotion can do.

Q. Do we only need air, water, and food to survive?

A: We think that we will die without air, water and food but we don't realize that we also need Love and laughter to truly live.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 4: What Is True Love?, Page 7

Q. When does love first appear in a person's life?

A: Love appears in our life from the moment we are born. Nobody teaches a little baby to Love its mother and nobody teaches a mother to deeply yearn for her little child.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 1: What Is Love?, Page 12

Q. What is the 'Rainbow of Love'?

A: The rainbow has seven colours, popularly known as VIBGYOR. The seven colours are violet, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange and red. So are the seven colours of Love. When the White Love of the Soul manifests through the life of a human being, it appears as the seven colours of Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 2: The Rainbow Of Love, Page 13

Q. What are the seven different colors of love?

A: The seven colours, the VIBGYOR of Love begins with Violet Love between a little child and a parent. The second colour of Love is Indigo Love. It is Love between friends. When we are young, we experience Blue Love or the innocent Love that is often understood as romance. The next colour of Love is Green Love or Self-Love... Yellow Love is intellectual Love. Orange Love is emotional. When Love manifests as Red Love, it is erotic physical Love.

Q. How important are love and laughter in life?

A: Isn't it sad that we forget the three most important aspects of life – to Laugh, Love and Live? If we live a life without Love and laughter, it is nothing but a disaster!

Q. Do we really understand the source of love?

A: We all know what Love is but very few of us have discovered True Love. Where does this emotion come from and what does it create in our life? We just experience the emotion of Love with another, physically, emotionally or intellectually but we don't understand the root of Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 1: What Is Love?, Page 10

Q. Why is it sad that we misunderstand love?

A: But unfortunately, because we have not been taught the true meaning of Love, we misunderstand the Divine emotion of Love that throbs within us.

TOPIC: Love vs Lust

Q. What is the most common misunderstanding of love?

A: Most of the world considers Love to be Red Love, an erotic expression of physical Love, commonly understood as lust. We believe that Love is a strong sexual desire but we don't realize the source of that passion.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 3: Love Is Not Lust, Page 16

Q. How does the book define lust?

A: Lust is just craving for sex and can extend to lust for other objects of passion. It can be the lust for power or the lust for money. Lust, no doubt, is a negative word. That is why you cannot lust for something that you really Love. Lust is a very strong and powerful desire but it is not Love.

Q. Why is love often mistaken for lust?

A: Because we consider ourselves to be this physical body, which we are not, and we think we are the mind that we cannot find, we think that Love is physical and material Love. Very few of us discover the Divine Love of the Soul.

Q. How does the book contrast physical love from lust?

A: When the attraction is purely physical, it is not Love. It is just lust. Men, who are more physical in nature, have been created with a larger desire for the expression of physical Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 3: Love Is Not Lust, Page 17

Q. How does the example of a sex-worker demonstrate the difference between love and lust?

A: However, when a man wants to experience lust or sex, he will rarely fall in Love with a sex-worker who fulfils his lust. The moment his lust reaches its point of physical expression, he will dismiss the service provider without delay because there was no Love at all. This is a simple example where lust is revealed.

Q. When can physical expression be a part of True Love?

A: When Love is expressed in its physical form, it vibrates from the Soul, and this is expressed through the skin by touching the one we Love and then, going further to manifesting Love physically. However, if it is True Love, there will be caring and sharing. There will be mutual respect and the expression of physical Love will be an ecstasy of joy for both Souls involved in the act of erotic Love.

Q. What happens when love becomes lust?

A: The moment Love becomes lust and it loses the essence of the Divine emotion, it remains nothing but a passionate physical desire, which will never truly quench our thirst. It will only make us greedy and make us burst. Lust can become an addiction from which we will suffer but True Love is a Divine benediction, which we are blessed with.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 3: Love Is Not Lust, Page 17

Q. What is the key difference in the intention behind love-making versus lust?

A: Without Love, we would never have children but lust is never the cause of progeny and creating new life. Lust is solely for the gratification of physical erotic Love and not for the purpose of creating a Divine life.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 3: Love Is Not Lust, Page 18

Q. Why has erotic love overshadowed True Love?

A: Many people think of Love as lust. Because of the great pleasure that comes from sex and physical Love, the erotic aspect of Love has overtaken the Divine aspect of True Love. The pleasure that comes from being physical has confused most of the world in understanding what True Love is.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 1: What Is Love?, Page 12

Q. What does one have to do to discover True Love?

A: If one wants to discover True Love, one has to first transcend the Love of the skin. As long as one is enamoured and attached to worldly Love between the body, head and heart, one will never ever discover True Love of the Soul.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 30: Transcending Love Of The Skin, Page 82

Q. What is the acronym for LUST?

A: LUST is Love Underestimated as Sexual Transaction. It is momentary. But when two lovers truly Love each other, their Love that flows from their head and heart expresses itself through the body to make Love, truly beautiful.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 9: The 4 Pillars Of Love, Page 37

Q. Why do many cultures make love a taboo subject?

A: Many cultures and religions have made Love a taboo, confusing Love with lust. It is through Love and the process of Love-making that the Creator has ensured progeny and the continuation of life on earth through our offsprings.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 3: Love Is Not Lust, Page 18

TOPIC: What Is True Love?

Q. What is True Love, if not just attraction?

A: If Love is not just an attraction between a man and a woman, if Love is not just pleasure that comes from the pleasure between skin and skin, what is that True Love that is hidden within? Let us discover True Love that is not just a kiss. Let us discover True Love that is bliss. Eternal Happiness is what True Love is.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 4: What Is True Love?, Page 19

Q. How is True Love related to the Rainbow of Love?

A: True Love is a manifestation of the seven colours of the Rainbow of Love. True Love is White Divine Soulful Love. It is Love that emanates from the Soul, the Spark Of Unique Life that throbs within.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 4: What Is True Love?, Page 19

Q28. What is the complete acronym for TRUE LOVE?

T - Transcendental, R - Rainbow of 7 Colours, U - Unconditional, E - Eternal, L - Longing, O - Of the Soul, V - Very Passionate, E - Ecstasy of Joy.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 5: The Acronym Of True Love, Page 23

Q. What does it mean for True Love to be 'Transcendental'?

A: True Love is transcendental. It is Spiritual and universal. It comes from deep within the Soul. It is not just ordinary attraction of skin to skin. It goes beyond the limits of ordinary Love. Therefore, True Love is Divine, transcendental. It means that it is not worldly Love but Spiritual Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 5: The Acronym Of True Love, Page 23

Q. What does it mean for True Love to be 'Unconditional'?

A: Is all the Love of this world True Love? Hardly! True Love is very rare to find. And the acronym reveals what it is. True Love is unconditional. When we say, 'I Love you,' because we need somebody, it is not True Love. It is transactional. When there are conditions and transactions, it cannot be True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 5: The Acronym Of True Love, Page 24

Q. Why is True Love considered 'Eternal'?

A: True Love is eternal. Therefore, when you Love somebody, you don't leave and if you leave, it only means that there was no True Love. True Love is accepting and forgiving. True Love has no expiry date. It is a deep Soulful Love and just as the Soul is immortal, so is True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 5: The Acronym Of True Love, Page 24

Q. What is the meaning of the 'LOVE' part of the acronym?

A: True Love is a longing. It is not just a temporary attraction. True Love is of the Soul. It is not of the skin. Because True Love is that deep longing of the Soul, it is very passionate. Love that is true creates an ecstasy of joy. It is the greatest source of bliss. True Love creates Eternal Happiness.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 5: The Acronym Of True Love, Page 25

Q. Is True Love different from devotion or Bhakti?

A: Many people confuse True Love to be Bhakti or devotion. That is not True Love. That is separating me and God. True Love is for the God that is within. True Love is for the life that throbs beneath every skin.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 4: What Is True Love?, Page 21

Q. How did the author's Spiritual Master define True Love?

A: My Spiritual Master said it beautifully, 'True Love is a triple yearning, which is greater than a miser's Love for gold, greater than a lover's Love for the beloved and greater than the tears that a little child sheds for its mother, who it has lost.'

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 4: What Is True Love?, Page 22

Q. Do you 'fall in love' or 'rise in love' with True Love?

A: What does the world think of Love? It is falling in Love and then, falling out of Love. But this is not True Love. In True Love, you don't fall in Love. You rise in Love. Your Divine Love elevates you to ultimately Love the Divine that manifests in the ones you Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 11: Moving From Love To True Love, Page 42

Q. What is the real longing in True Love?

A: True Love is not just about giving a rose to the one you Love. What is causing that Love is the longing from the Soul within to the other Soul that is hidden beneath the bone and skin.

Q. How should we evolve our love to make it True Love?

A: Love has to evolve. First, to real Love, real longing of the Soul and then, this real Love must grow into True Love that is Divine, Eternal, Unconditional Love. No doubt, it is not easy to find True Love in this world. True Love is heavenly. It is Godly.

TOPIC: Where Love Comes From & Its Signs

Q. What is the ultimate source of the emotion of love?

A: It lies in our Consciousness. The moment the Soul gives us life and the heart is throbbing, Love flows through us. Our Consciousness flows from the Soul, that Spark Of Unique Life that gives each of us breath from birth to death.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 6: Where Does Love Come From?, Page 27

Q. Does love really come from the heart?

A: It is grossly misunderstood that Love begins in the heart. There are songs and movies that talk of how our heart feels as our heart breaks but there is no connection between the heart and Love. When we Love, the emotion drives more blood into our chest and so, it seems that our heart is full of Love, when in reality, Love throbs in every cell of our existence.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 6: Where Does Love Come From?, Page 28

Q. What is the connection between God and the source of love?

A: Where does the Soul come from? The Soul is energy. It comes from SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power and returns to SIP. Therefore, Love has its source in SIP.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 6: Where Does Love Come From?, Page 28

Q. Is a person capable of love after death?

A: Our Consciousness flows from the Soul, that Spark Of Unique Life that gives each of us breath from birth to death. The moment we die, we are incapable of loving anymore.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 6: Where Does Love Come From?, Page 28

Q. What is White Love and how does it relate to other types of love?

A: True Love emerges from White Divine Spiritual Universal Love that springs from the Soul. We don't need to find this Divine Love. The moment we are born, the Soul in its apparent Consciousness vibrates White Love, till the moment we are gone. But White Love is not visible. It becomes visible through the seven colours of Love that it manifests as.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 15: White Love And Its Seven Manifestations, Page 50

Q. What are some of the defining signs of True Love?

A: Is there longing in your Soul? Is there passion in your Love? Not just passion for one but does your Love flow like a river that has waves of joy? Do you experience ecstasy in your Love, not just ecstasy for the person you Love but ecstasy in the emotion of Love that flows through you? These are the signs of True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 7: Signs Of True Love, Page 29

Q. What does the story of Saint Namdev and the dog illustrate about True Love?

A: Namdev started running behind the dog with a bottle of ghee (Indian clarified butter), which is spread on chapatis to make them more delicious. When we can see G O D, in a D O G and affectionately Love every living creature on earth as a manifestation of the Divine, it is a sign of True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 7: Signs Of True Love, Page 30

Q. What is a key giveaway that someone is expressing True Love?

A: In True Love, we are happier when we make others happy. This is a giveaway. If we find somebody trying to make us happy, putting our happiness ahead of their own, it is a strong sign of them expressing True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 7: Signs Of True Love, Page 31

Q. What are some other actions that are signs of True Love?

A: Signs of True Love are sacrifice, doing anything for the beloved or the ones we Love, acceptance, giving space and understanding the person. Forgiveness, compassion and kindness are all signs of True Love, if they flow seamlessly and unconditionally.

Q. Is a simple crush or infatuation a sign of True Love?

A: When we have an attraction, an infatuation or a crush on somebody, it is a strong sign of Love but not necessarily a sign of True Love. If it was True Love, then this Love would flow to one and all as we would Love beyond the skin. We would Love the Divine that dwells within.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 7: Signs Of True Love, Page 30

Q. Why do most worldly love relationships lack the signs of True Love?

A: In the worldly Love that we see today, most Love relationships are transactional and conditional. We tell people, 'I Love you,' but in reality, we don't truly Love them. We just need them. True Love is not just saying, 'I Love you,' but expressing it in actions.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 7: Signs Of True Love, Page 30

Q. What do we need to do to awaken True Love?

A: Therefore, if we want to awaken True Love, we have to go beyond the body that seems to Love. We have to transcend the Mind and Ego, ME, and then we will discover that Divine Energy of True Love that will flow from the Soul. Yes, True Love awakens from the Soul and we are all Souls.

TOPIC: Relationships, Marriage & The Pillars Of Love

Q. Is marriage the only conclusion for love?

A: Those who don't understand the true meaning of Love, blindly believe that Love means a good relationship and ultimately, marriage. To the world, Love has no other conclusion. But is this the truth?

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 8: Love, Relationships And Marriage, Page 32

Q51. What is the key to a successful marriage?

A: Marriage can be the most beautiful thing in this world. But a marriage will fail if one plus one becomes two. For a marriage to succeed, one plus one should become one, not two.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 8: Love, Relationships And Marriage, Page 32

Q. Why do so many relationships end after marriage?

A: It's very strange that two lovers enjoy a beautiful relationship before marriage but get divorced soon after marriage. Why? It is because expectations change. After marriage, people start replacing Love with traditional expectations from a husband and wife.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 8: Love, Relationships And Marriage, Page 33

Q. Can love exist without being in a formal marriage?

A: Can Love then, thrive without a marriage? Of course, it can. If one loves the Soul, the Divine in one and all, one does not necessarily need marriage. While there can be beautiful Love in a marriage, one may choose to enjoy Divine Love even without marriage. It is a personal choice.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 8: Love, Relationships And Marriage, Page 34

Q. What are the four pillars that make love strong and stable?

A: The four pillars of Love are emotional, physical, intellectual and Spiritual. Love must flow from not just the body and the heart but from the head and the Soul too. The body expresses physical Love, the heart emotional, the head makes intellectual Love blossom but it is the Soul that creates Eternal Love between people.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 9: The 4 Pillars Of Love, Page 35

Q. What makes a loving relationship unbreakable?

A: When a Spiritual pillar is added, that Love becomes firm and unbreakable. Couples who enjoy a loving relationship which involves body, heart, head and Soul, enjoy True Divine Love that is stable and fulfilling.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 9: The 4 Pillars Of Love, Page 35

Q. How can a couple ensure their love lasts and thrives?

A: When two people who enjoy True Love are together, they build their Love on the four pillars of a beautiful emotional understanding, an exciting physical intimacy, a stimulating intellectual conversation and a Divine and Spiritual bonding. Such a Love is True Love and is unbreakable.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 9: The 4 Pillars Of Love, Page 36

Q. What is the secret to making a relationship work?

A: To experience True Love in a relationship, one must learn to give more than to take. Unfortunately, we want more out of Love and so, we destroy it. Love is not a well to pull the waters of happiness out.

Love is a fountain. The more the water flows out of the fountain, the more it will circulate and return.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 10: How To Make A Relationship Work?, Page 38

Q. Why is it dangerous to take a relationship for granted?

A: We don't forget to water our plants but we often forget to shower Love on the ones we Love. We take our relationship for granted. Slowly and steadily, the Love starts to wither away, till it reaches a point of no return.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 10: How To Make A Relationship Work?, Page 39

Q. What is the most important commitment in a relationship?

A: When you Love, you never leave and if you leave, it only reveals there was no Love. To make a relationship work, the commitment of it being eternal is most important. And this will only happen when the magic of Love flows through body, head, heart and Soul.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 10: How To Make A Relationship Work?, Page 39

Q. What is a common problem that leads to relationships breaking?

A: The common problem in broken relationships is that two people think that they Love each other, when in reality, they don't! They never build that bond that needs both Love and trust. If trust is missing, a relationship can't work. We may drag it for as long as we want but ultimately, it is bound to break!

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 10: How To Make A Relationship Work?, Page 40

Q: How does possessiveness affect a loving relationship?

A: Often, we become over-possessive and think that this is what being in Love is. But possessiveness causes suffocation and leads to the death of a loving relationship. But there is a way to make a loving relationship work. It is to turn our Love into True Love.

TOPIC: Sufi, Greek & Spiritual Divine Love

Q. According to the Sufis, what is 'Real Love' or 'Love for God'?

A: Ishq-e-Haqiqi, in Persian, means Real Love or the Love for God. The Sufis talk of primarily two types of Love – Ishq-e-Haqiqi and Ishq-e-Majazi. The latter is the Love for God's creation or worldly Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 12: Ishq-e-Haqiqi – The Sufi Love, Page 44

Q. What is the difference between Ishq-e-Haqiqi and Ishq-e-Majazi?

A: When we demonstrate Ishq which is Haqiqi, it relates to the True Love that we are talking about, a Love that is real, genuine, non-transactional, unconditional or with no expectations. Worldly Love was lust or Majazi and not Divine Haqiqi Love.

Q. What did the ancient Greeks call the purest form of love?

A: While True Love is Divine Universal Spiritual Love that the Sufis called Ishq-e-Haqiqi, the Greeks called this Love, Agape. The Greeks described different forms of Love with different names. They compared Agape with Eros or the erotic, sexual and passionate Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 13: Agape – Love Of The Greeks, Page 46

Q. How is Agape different from Eros?

A: Agape is selfless unconditional universal Love. Surely, we must know that True Love is not Eros, the Erotic Love of the Greeks or Ishq-e-Majazi, the pleasurable worldly Love of the Sufis.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 13: Agape – Love Of The Greeks, Page 46

Q. What other kinds of love did the Greeks identify?

A: In fact, the Greeks talked of Love being Agape, Storge, Philia and Eros. While Agape is Spiritual Love, Storge is Love between parents and children. These are different from Philia or the Love between friends, equals and siblings.

Q. Why does erotic love (Eros) often overshadow divine love (Agape)?

A: Alas! The Erotic Love or Eros, is so powerful that it overshadows the true Divine love of Agape. The pleasure of Eros is so passionate that the bliss of Agape, True Love is compromised, when in reality, Eros or physical Love is only momentary. It is not unconditional.

Q. Is True Love a modern idea?

A: This Divine Love of the Sufis was discovered centuries ago. It is not that True Divine Love is something new that we are trying to invent. The ancient Greeks called it Agape, as against Eros, which was just lust. Therefore, while the Sufis and the Greeks have discovered the meaning of True Love in their very own way, an understanding of True Love has not percolated to the world.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 12: Ishq-e-Haqiqi – The Sufi Love, Page 44

Q. What is the core difference between ordinary love and True Spiritual Divine Love?

A: Love is temporary. True Love is eternal. Love has conditions. True Love is unconditional. Love is transactional. True Love is sacrificial. Love is for the skin. True Love is for the Divine within.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 14: True Love Is Spiritual Divine Love, Page 48

Q. How does True Love change one's motivation?

A: In Love, we are trying to make ourselves happy. In True Love, we are trying to make the Divine in others happy. Love is possessive. True Love is freedom.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 14: True Love Is Spiritual Divine Love, Page 48

Q. What is the difference in how 'love' and 'True Love' handle relationships?

A: In Love, there is fear of heartbreak. In True Love that is Soulful, there are no hearts that can break for Love flows from the Soul. Love can be a contract like a marriage or relationship but True Love has no contract because in True Love, there is no you and me. We become one.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 14: True Love Is Spiritual Divine Love, Page 48

Q. What did the Greeks believe about the gods of love?

A: Interestingly, the Greeks created several Gods and Goddesses of Love. Aphrodite was the Goddess of Love and Fertility and her son was Eros, who in Latin is often called Amor or Cupid. These mythological terms and names should help us only to evolve to that state of True Love that is transcendental, unconditional and eternal.

Q. Is True Love common in the world?

A: We see Love in the world but we don't see True Love for it is Heavenly Divine Spiritual Love. True Love is rare to find, while Love is very common. Everybody loves but very few experience True Love.

Probably 1% of humanity even understands the difference between Love and True Love.

TOPIC: The Soul, Prema Yoga & Loving The Divine In All

Q. What must we do to discover True Love?

A: As long as we Love from body to body, mind to mind, heart to heart, we cannot discover True Love. True Love is of body, heart, head and Soul. It emerges from the Soul but we get carried away by Love that is physical intimacy.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 18: The Soul Loves The Divine In All, Page 56

Q. What is Prema Yoga?

A: A fifth state of Yoga, Prema Yoga was revealed to me on Monday the 10th of January, 2022. I could remain in the state of Prema Yoga. I could Love God, all the time, for God was not somewhere far away in the skies. God was in every Soul. God was in my beloved, in every member of my family, even in the little pet dog that lovingly wagged its tail.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 19: My Gift Of Prema Yoga, Page 60

Q. How does one practice Prema Yoga?

A: Therefore, if we want to Love God, there is a simple way - we Love all the manifestations of God and this creates an ecstasy of joy, a happiness that we have never experienced before.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 19: My Gift Of Prema Yoga, Page 59

Q. Who is a Prema Yogi?

A: A Prema Yogi is a Divine Saint, whose life flows with True Love. Prema is Love and Yogi is one, who is in union with the Divine. Therefore, a Prema Yogi, through the Yoga of Love, remains in union with the Supreme, the Divine. He loves all manifestations of God, of the Supreme Immortal Power, SIP.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 32: Living As A Prema Yogi, Page 86

Q. How does a Prema Yogi view the world?

A: As a Yogi of Love, one lets the Divine emotion of True Love flow to all living beings, be it you, me, a butterfly, a bee or even a tree. A Prema Yogi even loves a DOG as GOD, because to a Prema Yogi, being in a state of Prema Yoga means seeing God in all and loving God in all.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 32: Living As A Prema Yogi, Page 86

Q. How can a person love everybody as God?

A: The moment we realize that every human being, in fact, every living creature is none other than the Soul, that the Soul is none other than God or SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power, in that moment, we discover God walking on earth. We realize that God is appearing in every being. If we can realize this, we are blessed with the Divine magic, where we can see God in all, serve God in all and Love God in all.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 22: Loving Everybody As God, Page 66

Q. What does it mean to love your beloved as God?

A: True Love is when we Love our beloved as God. The Love between us and the one we Love is beyond a physical, emotional and intellectual relationship. It is bonded with a spiritual glue. It is a relationship from Soul to Soul. This is rare and only possible when, at least, one of the two partners has discovered the magic of True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 20: Loving The Beloved As God, Page 62

Q. What happens when you see your partner as a divine being?

A: The moment we treat our beloved as a God or Goddess, it demonstrates True Love. This comes with the Realization that the one we Love so much, is none other than a manifestation of SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power. Everybody cannot realize this. But those who do, make their Love, magical, eternal, unconditional and non-transactional.

Q. How does the ego prevent us from loving the divine in all?

A: Unfortunately, we have been conditioned to think of Love, as Love between one body and another. The mind has fooled us into believing that Love is something special between two people and so, the mind, our biggest enemy, steals away the ecstasy of True Love that each one of us is intrinsically blessed with. The false layers of ignorance created by the Mind and Ego, ME, dilute True Love into becoming worldly Love.

Q. What is the relationship between the Soul and SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power?

A: 'My' Soul and 'your' Soul are both essentially a part of SIP, the Supreme Immortal Power. True Love makes us like two waves that are part of one ocean. When we realize that all Souls are Divine and Love flows from Soul to Soul, we are able to Love one and all because we are able to see the Divine in one and all.

TOPIC: Soulmates, Attachment & DetachmentQ. What are Soulmates?

A: What are Soulmates and do they really exist? Unless we understand the meaning of True Love, we cannot get to the root of what makes us Soulmates. What is the connection between Soulmates and True Love?

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 21: Soulmates – Do They Exist?, Page 64

Q. How do two people become Soulmates?

A: Two people can be Soulmates only when they both transcend body, mind and heart, such that their Souls become one, although they exist in two different bodies. When both the lover and the beloved develop deep, sincere, selfless, Divine, transcendental Love, then there is the possibility of them being Soulmates.

Q. Is it easy to find a Soulmate?

A: This may not even happen in one in a billion. It is so rare, for first, there must be True Love in one, which is very difficult to find and that must be followed by True Love in the beloved.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 21: Soulmates – Do They Exist?, Page 64

Q. What is the bond between Soulmates like?

A: When two people become Soulmates, they are no more, two. They become one. There is absolutely no difference between the one and the other. Financially, physically, emotionally, intellectually, socially, spiritually and in every other sense, there is no difference.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 21: Soulmates – Do They Exist?, Page 65

Q. Why is it so difficult for two people to become Soulmates?

A: Each one of us is different. We are conditioned by our body, mind and heart and our upbringing fills us with different kinds of emotions, likes and dislikes. As long as we carry this baggage, it is very difficult to experience the Love of Soulmates.

Q. What is the difference between attachment and True Love?

A: Attachment seems to be only Love. It is not True Love. It is just attraction, desire and passion. Not many will agree to this because most of the world experiences attachment due to an attraction and they think it is Love. It may be worldly Love but by no means is it True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 26: From Attachment To Detachment, Page 74

Q. Is being possessive a sign of True Love?

A: If such a man has Love for that woman, there would be an attachment, which would lead to the man becoming possessive about the woman. Here, the attraction to the woman has become an attachment due to the perceived Love that he has for her. But is it True Love? Unfortunately, it is not!

Q. What is 'Detached Attachment'?

A: One is not attached to the body of the beloved that one loves. One realizes that Love is for the immortal Soul, not the mortal body. The body is just a manifestation of the Divine, whom one loves. Therefore, such True Love becomes a state of Detached Attachment. On the outside, it may appear that there is deep attachment. But deep within, there is no attachment, only Pure Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 26: From Attachment To Detachment, Page 75

Q. How can one achieve a state of Detached Attachment?

A: Those who are seeking True Love must learn the art of Detached Attachment. It is natural to be attached to the ones we Love but if we overcome our ignorance about Love and are awakened to understand the meaning of True Love, we will go beyond attachment to a state of detachment.

Q. Is being attached to the people we love a product of True Love?

A: Attachment is a product of Love but not of True Love. The moment there is True Love, one is not just detached but also attached. This Detached Attachment is a product of True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 26: From Attachment To Detachment, Page 75

Q. What must we do to prepare ourselves to be a Soulmate?

A: Unless we are willing to empty ourselves completely and reprogramme the software of our life with True Love, deleting all other impressions, memories and desires that can separate us from our Soulmate, we are not yet prepared and ready to experience the journey of being Soulmates.

TOPIC: Sacrifice & Loving Without Expectations

Q. What is the difference between how 'love' and 'True Love' see the self?

A: Regardless of how much Love we have for somebody, the essence in Love is that we Love ourselves first. This is the truth. But True Love is different. In True Love, there is no cause and effect. There is nothing but True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 28: In True Love, There Is Sacrifice, Page 78

Q. What is the role of sacrifice in True Love?

A: When one is ready to sacrifice unconditionally, anything and everything, it is a mark of True Love. What holds us back from such sacrifice in Love? Nothing but the ego, the 'I'. In True Love, we sacrifice the 'I'.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 28: In True Love, There Is Sacrifice, Page 78

Q. What is the 'Sacrifice Mantra' that one discovers in True Love?

A: 'I seek nothing. I want nothing. I am nothing. I am willing to do anything for you.' It's the sacrifice Mantra that one discovers in True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 28: In True Love, There Is Sacrifice, Page 79

Q. Why does the sacrifice in True Love seem unrealistic?

A: The sacrifice that we are talking about in True Love seems so idealistic and unrealistic that it would seem that such Love cannot exist. That is why True Love is very difficult to find. Where can we see such a state of total sacrifice that appears as complete surrender, where the lover has completely surrendered to the beloved?

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 28: In True Love, There Is Sacrifice, Page 79

Q. Is True Love limited to sacrifice for one person?

A: In fact, beyond the sacrifice that one does for the beloved, True Love overflows into the world as care, compassion, understanding and forgiveness. All this forms the very basis of True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 28: In True Love, There Is Sacrifice, Page 79

Q. Do people in True Love expect to be loved in return?

A: The least that one expects in Love is to be loved in return. But in True Love, even that is not expected. True Love is loving the beloved without expecting the beloved to Love us back. True Love goes beyond this. It is loving one and all, loving the whole world, without waiting for the world to Love you.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 29: Loving Without Expectations, Page 80

Q. How can someone love without having any expectations?

A: But when one is awakened with True Love, then their life is transformed, for in True Love, you just give. You don't wait to get. You forgive, even without your expectations being met. True Love is Divine.

Thus, it is Transcendental, Spiritual and Universal.

Q. Are love relationships based on transactions?

A: All Love relationships are based on a give-and-take equation but True Love is only give and give. The lover who experiences True Love doesn't seek anything in return. The moment we do something in Love and seek something in return, it reveals that the relationship lacks something. It is not True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 27: True Love Is Not Transactional, Page 77

Q. Why are there no transactions in True Love?

A: When we see the Divine in our beloved, we are already living in that state of being ever-grateful for the Divine bliss that we enjoy and thus, we seek nothing else. This Divine ecstasy that is born of True Love is priceless and thus, there can be no further transaction to equate a give-and-take in the subject of True Love.

Q. What is the simple test to know if love is True Love?

A: If we want to differentiate between Love and True Love, the litmus test is simple. If in Love, there is any expectation, it is only Love, not True Love. But in those rare cases, where there is deep Love and longing but no expectation, Love has transcended the body, mind and ego and has become True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 31: True Love Has No Expectations, Page 85

Q. Why don't people who experience True Love have expectations?

A: True Love is loving the Divine in one and all with the Realization that we ourselves are manifestations of the Divine and we are already Loved by the Divine that is within us. Having this Realization, the ones who experience True Love have nothing to expect. Just being in this state of True Love is such an ecstasy that one lives and loves without any condition, any reason or any objective.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 31: True Love Has No Expectations, Page 85

Q. Is it true that what you give is what you get in True Love?

A: This world is a transactional world. Everything is give-and-take. In fact, the world is governed by the Law of Karma. What you give is what you get. What you do will come back to you. So, Love too, has become transactional. No doubt, it is. But True Love is very different.

TOPIC: True Love As Bliss, Eternal Joy & Whether It Ever Ends

Q. How is the joy from True Love different from other kinds of happiness?

A: Who doesn't want to be happy? We all want to be happy but a very few amongst us have discovered the ecstasy of joy that comes from True Love. The bliss that True Love is, cannot be explained in words. It has to be experienced. It is a euphoria of Divine Joy that sprouts from the Soul and flows in every cell of our body.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 23: True Love Is The Ultimate Ecstasy Of Joy, Page 68

Q. What makes True Love such a powerful force in life?

A: That is why the power of Love is said to be so strong that people are ready to sacrifice anything for it. People are ready to let go of their life and careers, their family and friends, even the crown and the kingdom for the sake of Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 23: True Love Is The Ultimate Ecstasy Of Joy, Page 68

Q. How can True Love eliminate all misery and sorrow?

A: True Love is of the Soul. It transcends the body, mind and ego. When Love flows to another Soul in True Love, it eliminates the mind and ego that separate me and you. In True Love, there is no duality. The lover and the beloved become one, just as the body, mind and ego dissolve.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 24: True Love Eliminates All Misery, All Sorrow, Page 70

Q. What happens to negative thoughts and feelings in the sunshine of True Love?

A: True Love also transcends the mind as it resides in the cavity of the Soul. All thoughts of fear, worry, stress, anxiety, regret, shame and guilt disappear the moment there is the sunshine of True Love.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 24: True Love Eliminates All Misery, All Sorrow, Page 71

Q. Can True Love ever end?

A: True Love never ends. It continues from the time we are born, till the time we are gone. Our life on earth will come to an end as every 'body' dies. But True Love transcends death because Love is of the Soul.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 34: Can True Love Ever End?, Page 90

Q. If a person leaves a relationship, was it True Love?

A: Therefore, True Love can never end. If one has True Love, one never leaves. But if one leaves, there never was True Love. We must remember this when we Love, as we move our Love to True Love that is not transactional.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 34: Can True Love Ever End?, Page 91

Q. How does True Love relate to the purpose of life?

A: The third peak of happiness is Enlightenment, which is realizing the Divine within. Then, Love will flow from Soul to Soul, creating an uninterrupted flow of ecstasy. This joy is unparalleled. This happiness has three Ps – Pleasure, Peace and Purpose. We Love the Divine in one and all, till we ultimately become one with the Divine, which is man's reason for being alive, the very purpose of human existence.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 33: True Love Is Bliss, An Ecstasy Of Joy, Page 89

Q. Why is it important to evolve from love to True Love?

A: We must transcend Love and realize True Love if we want our bliss to be seamless, eternal and everlasting. If we don't want heartache and heartbreak, we must not restrict Love to being just Love. We must evolve to that state of Transcendental True Love that is Eternal Bliss.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 33: True Love Is Bliss, An Ecstasy Of Joy, Page 89

Q. Why is True Love the ultimate source of bliss?

A: True Love is an ecstasy of joy. We all experience Love but with True Love, there is seamless bliss. That is why there are no disappointments, no unhappiness and the root of this is not having any expectations.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 31: True Love Has No Expectations, Page 84

Q. How is True Love different from the Love of the world?

A: This is because True Love is God, it is from God and for God. We experience them but we don't realize that they are in us from the moment we are born, till we are gone. Love is Eternal, Unconditional, Spiritual and Divine.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 25: How I Discovered True Love, Page 73

Q120. Does True Love distinguish between good and bad?

In True Love, there is no good and bad. Everything is perfect. True Love is complete acceptance and total surrender to the Divine presence that is within, in the Soul and that manifests as every Soul.

Source: The Divine Magic Of True Love, Chapter 34: Can True Love Ever End?, Page 91

Q. Can love be eternal if it is only for the physical body?

A: As long as Love is only for the skin, it can never be True Love. When Love flows deep to the Divine within, the Divine that Loves is not the mortal body. It is the eternal Soul. And thus, this True Love from the Soul never ends.
